EDUCATION.

FOUNDED 1844.....INCORPORATED 1856

NEW ORLEANS
Female Collegiate Institute,
OR
BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL
FOR YOUNG LADIES,
Under the Supervision of Madame ED. LOCQUET,
No. 202 Camp Street,
BETWEEN JULIA AND ST. JOSEPH STREETS.

THIS establishment, founded by Dr. and Mrs. Mansfield, of high reputation, has never been questioned, will commence its seventeenth session on MONDAY, the 17th of September.

Mme. ED. LOCQUET, assisted by her sister, Mme. FRANCOIS LOCQUET, will use her best endeavors to fulfilling to merit the confidence reposed, for so many years, in her predecessors.

Professors of the highest talent are employed in all the branches, both useful and ornamental. Piano, Music and the study of the Solfege, will be taught exclusively by the Mmes. Locquet, who enjoy the reputation as professors of music has been so well appreciated by the numerous families who have favored them with their confidence.

The French language, the native tongue of these ladies, and the acquirement of which is now indispensable to a good education, is taught with the utmost care, and is spoken in the institution. Young ladies will therefore find in their constant intercourse with these teachers every facility possible for perfecting themselves in this language.

This establishment, always so commodious and well ventilated, has recently been entirely renovated, with the utmost regard to the comfort and health of the pupils.

Mme. Locquet respectfully invites parents and families to call and visit her school, where prospectuses, with all other information which may be desired, can be obtained.

Letters of inquiry will be promptly attended to by the Principal. sept 1y

ACADEMY

Conti street, No. 123, between Dauphin and Burgundy streets.

THIS Academy, founded by Mr. G. Boyer, is about to resume, with the assistance of Mr. C. Lepratte, a graduate of the University of France, its 28th session. The establishment, which has always deserved its reputation, will be conducted on a much more extensive plan in all the branches with the assistance of the Professor.

A classical and commercial education will be imparted to the pupils, including the study of the ancient languages, to suit parents with whom private arrangements will be entered into either by Mr. Lepratte or Mr. Boyer. The pupils will be taught to use the instruments suitable to the study of Geodesy and Surveying.

Book keeping being now an indispensable qualification, Mr. Lepratte will attend to a regular course, from 8 to 9 o'clock, P. M. A month begun must be paid in full. The classes open on the 1st of October. sep6

Jefferson Academy,

53.....BOURBON STREET, N. O.....53
Conducted by
G. A. GORDO.

THIS establishment, founded in 1838, has long held a high position in public opinion as one of the leading institutions in the South of Louisiana.

The plan comprises a general and extensive system of education. Pupils are admitted at six or seven years of age, and are continued, if they proved for their future pursuits in life. They are distributed into classes, according to their capacities and acquirements.

The premises are, perhaps, the best to be found in the city, with ample space for exercise and recreation, and every convenience for an intellectual boarding.

The Professors are gentlemen of talent, chosen with care. Good order reigns in the establishment, and strict attention is paid to the moral conduct and improvement of the pupils.
