SCHOOLS.

MRS. R. BAQUIÉ & MRS. A. J. BAQUIÉ'S Academy for Young Ladies, St. Peter street, No. 196, between Rampart and Burgundy streets. Mrs. Regnier Baquié and her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Baquié, having for some time past, given up their whole attention to the education of young ladies, will open, on the 15th November, an Academy, wherein will be taught,

Reading, Writing, Arithmetic; the English, French and Spanish languages; History, Geography, and its adjacent branches; Mythology, Piano Forte, Harp, Singing, Drawing and Dancing.

The English being Mrs. A. Baquié's native language, and Mrs. R. Baquié speaking it with the same fluency as her vernacular tongue, will receive all that attention which its importance in this community calls for. The studies, including a chain of reading, will be guided both in French and English.

Mrs. R. Baquié having hitherto moved in the higher circles of the different countries in which she has resided, will be the more adequate to the task of forming the manners of her pupils' boarders.

DANCING ACADEMY.

NEW METHOD.

J DEVOTI, for the last two years Professor in the Convent of the Sacred Heart, and in the Jefferson and Baton Rouge Colleges, has the honor to inform the ladies and gentlemen of New Orleans that he has opened his course of lessons at madam Leloy's, no. 80 Royal street, between Conti and Bienville.

He will teach elegance of gait, the most modern steps, waltzing, the figures of the newest quadrilles, &c. &c.

Three lessons will be given per week—at 4 o'clock p.m. for the ladies, and at 7 o'clock in the evening for gentlemen.

The price will be $8 per month, payable in advance.

Private lessons will be given at the rate of $12 for twelve lessons.

He hopes that all who appreciate this branch of a finished education will continue him their patronage.

Every month, in order to ascertain the progress of the young ladies, a ball will be given in presence of the parents, at the academy.

Apply to Mr. A. Ducas, corner St. Louis st. and Exchange alley. nov13
