FRESH GARDEN SEEDS
NOW LANDING, AND FOR SALE AT
WM. SMITH'S
Garden Seed Store, No. 83 Custom-House street.

The subscriber begs leave to inform his friends and the public, that he is now landing from the packet ship Natchez, a renewed supply of fresh SPRING GARDEN SEEDS, received direct from the growers and warranted equal as to freshness and quality, with any imported into New Orleans, either from the Northern or Western states.

Country merchants and dealers will find it more to their advantage to obtain their supplies for retailing from the establishment than from other in the city, as from the subscriber's long residence and practical knowledge of the Seed business, he is better prepared to fill an extensive order (either wholesale or retail,) for any of the standard kinds of KITCHEN GARDEN SEEDS, than any similar establishment south of the Mason and Dixon, not even excepting any of the Shaker's collection. Dealers can always, during the Fall and Spring seasons, on a short notice, obtain an almost unlimited supply of Garden Seeds either by the single dozen papers, or green, quality and uniformly put up with painted labels in French & English.

The subscriber begs to return his warmest acknowledgements for the public patronage with which he has been favored since his first establishment in 1828, and hopes by punctual assiduity, to merit a continuance thereof, in his new store, No. 83, Custom house street, where he will be permanently located

BAZAR OF PERFUMES.

Royal street, No. 239.

THIS being the proper season for the use of some of the Cosmetics which are to be found at the above Bazar, the subscriber takes the liberty of making a few observations on the mode of using such articles.

When the warm season arrives the ladies hair are fatigued from the friction to which they have been subjected by the winter head dress, and they call for more than usual care.

The liquid soap, of which yolks of eggs form a compounding part, is an excellent cosmetic to cleanse the head and to dispose the hair to receive the oils or creams with which they are to be impregnated for the purpose of exciting their growth and preventing them from shedding.

He does recommend the floral oil of Satsy, that of Macassar; do. of bear clarrified and perfumed, and several other kinds of oils or pomatums, of which he has a large and diversified assortment. Also, Chiotrix of Guiland, &c.

FOR THE FACE—The subscriber recommends the use of the Persian cream, do. of Cucumbers, very fresh hair powder, potatoes fine powder, cream of rose, white of pearl, superfine Rouge, either in pots, leaves or with vinegar, rose milk, cold cream, &c.

Every kind of shaving and toilette soap, scented or without scent.

Almonds, pastes dry or liquid to whiten the skin, the celebrated cream of soap of Demarson, which preserves its freshness and qualities for a very long time.

FOR THE MOUTH.—Balsam water and Demarson's powder, coral powder and optat.

Superfine essences, to sprinkle over a handkerchief, amongst which that very celebrated essence called the Caprice de Valerie; Lavander waters double distilled and ambered, Alp water, Cologne water, from the lowest quality to the double refined of Demarson, and to No. 24 of Marie Farina; Orange flowers water, rose water, &c.

Every body knows how much cordials will improve by age; persons desirous of procuring very old Regeneratrix water, do. of Iapahan, do. Des Carmes, of the French mountains, &c. will find some here, warranted 15 years old.

Very good Vanilla by the pound or the once, for ice creams—good creole mustard, &c.

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE.—The undersigned wishing to devote all his time to the situations he occupies, will receive propositions for the property hereinafter described, and should they not be disposed of before the thirty-first instant, they will be sold at auction in a few days after at advantageous terms which shall be made known before hand.

The plans are exhibited at the Exchange, accompanied by a figurative plan of the neighborhood, in order better to indicate the situations. The greater part is situated in the vicinity of establishments which will powerfully contribute to their value, and in a part of the city, the commercial importance of which is naturally improving—so that they offer an advantageous investment of capital: they consist—

PLAN A.—Of three lots of ground situate Royal street, between Main and Philip streets, immediately below the property belonging to Mr. Jos. Pilié, city surveyor.

PLAN B.—Of two lots of ground in the 1st square of faubourg Marigny, facing the rail road, and having an issue on Victory street, by a passage of 12 feet for the common use of various lots.

PLAN C.—3 lots of ground being a part of the square bounded by the levee, and part by Victory and St. Ferdinand streets, a three story house and store forming the corner of Levee and Post streets, with a warehouse on Port street, with kitchen and servant rooms above. A three story store facing the levee, forming the continuation of the preceding building. The above mentioned stores are built on lots 22 1-2 to 25 feet front, by 120 depth, and are entitled to a passage of 10 or 12 feet on Post street. 5 lots on the north side of Victory street, between Englien and Ferdinand streets.

PLAN D.—2 lots of ground in faubourg Clouet, the one measuring 56 feet front on the Levee, by about 300 feet depth—the other 70 feet front and 295 to 299 feet depth.

PLAN E.—A square situated faubourg Washington, bounded by France, Amour and Essepe streets; a good children promenade.

PLAN F.—3 lots of ground adjoining each other in faubourg Franklin, one of which form the corner of Solidelle and Elysian Fields' street.

The subscriber will also dispose amicably of some of the shares he owns in the following companies, viz: Merchant's Insurance Company, Pontchartrain rail road Company, Levee Steam Cotton Press Company, and New-Orleans Building Company.
