NOTICE to persons desirous of acquiring in a short time, and at a trifling expense, the indispensable art of a beautiful hand writing.

Mr. DUCHESNE DUVERNAY, professor of Calligraphy, lately arrived from Paris, begs leave to inform his friends, and the public, that he will engage to correct in 25 or 30 lessons, the most bad hand writing, provided the pupil will second his efforts.

The great superiority of his method, over the ancient manner of writing consists in the continual movement of the wrist with the arm, this joint labour ingeniously managed accelerates the progress of the pupil. A more correct idea of the easy and beauty of his system may be formed by calling at his room.

In these days a fine hand writing, is indispensable to every man, from which he often derives a living, this manner of acquiring in a short time a fine hand is not to be neglected. In this there is no surprise to be feared of a fallacious quackery, no vain promises, nothing but what is punctually executed. The professor, strong by his numerous experiences, guarantees a full success.

He has two classes, one from 10 in the morning until 2 in the evening, the second from 5 till 8 in the evening the first will be devoted for ladies the second for gentlemen. He will attend private lessons, and at boarding schools.

N. B. The price of 30 lessons is $15.

His Academy is in St. Peter street, No. 153, between Dauphin and Burgundy streets.

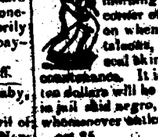
oct 18—1aw1 35 Gravier street

WILL be paid by the subscriber to the person conveying to his residence, or lodging in any jail in this State, a negro named BAM, runaway some months ago. He is 17 years of age, but rather small for his age, and strong, only by his size, 14 or 16 years; he speaks French and English; his lips are rather thick; he usually keeps his mouth half open, by which one may easily see that he wants many front teeth in the superior jaw. He has a sullen look, specially when tormented by fear. He has been seen in the city and upper suburbs.

oct 3 C HUCHET KERNION.

$25 REWARD.



The negro boy named CARTER, age about eleven years, absented himself on Tuesday morning from the residence of Dr Pondebonne, corner of Orleans and Rampart streets. He has on when he went away a pair of grey drill pantaloons, a yellow flannel jacket, and a small coal skin cap; he is very black but has a pleasing countenance. It is supposed he has been enticed away—ten dollars will be given for his apprehension and lodging in jail and the above reward for the discovery of whomsoever enticed him away.
