Sitting of Monday, 5th June, 1837.

Whereas that, on several occasions the distinctive character of the commissaries of Police has been misapprehended by the reason of their not bearing any badge distinguishing them from all the other inhabitants:

Resolved, that thereafter the commissaries of Police, shall provide themselves, at their own cost, and carry always about them, a white scarf, and when the case shall require it they shall put it on their left arm as a distinctive badge of their office.

(Signed) PAUL BERTUS, Recorder

Approved, June 10, 1837. D. PRIEUR, Mayor.

An ordinance to amend the ordinance entitled "an ordinance concerning the police jail for the detention of slaves in the cases therein mentioned," approved, Oct. 5th, 1817.

The Council of the Municipality No. 1, ordain as follows:

Art 1st. It is forbidden to the keeper of the police jail to cause to be whipped any slave unless it is proved to him that the order to cause said slave to be whipped has been given by the owner of the slave, or his agent duly authorized.

Art. 2. All contravention committed by the keeper of the jail to the provisions of the present ordinance, shall be punished with a fine of $25 to the profit of the 1st Municipality.

Art. 3. Provided that the provisions of the present ordinance, shall not extend to the chastisement to be inflicted upon slaves by order of any competent authority.

(SAME SITTING.)

Ordinance concerning the issuing of Notes of the First Municipality.

The Council of the First Municipality of the City of New-Orleans ordain as follows—

Art. 1. There shall be issued by the First Municipality, in the shortest possible delay, notes drawn by the Treasurer of said Municipality to the order of the Comptroller and endorsed by said Comptroller, to the amount of four hundred thousand dollars; each of these officers shall keep a correct account of the emission in proportion as they will take place.

Art. 2. The First Municipality guarantees fully and formally the reimbursement of the notes issued in virtue of the present ordinance, the redemption of which is hereinafter provided for; and in order to give that guarantee all possible security, there shall be successively deposited in a fund created to that effect, an amount of notes on hand equal to each of the emissions which shall be made; and the deposits thus formed shall be scrupulously affected for the redemption of the notes.

Art. 3. The emissions shall be made in four series successively, in proportion as the wants of the community may require, in conformity with the opinion of the Mayor and of the committee on finances.

Art. 4. Each series shall be of one hundred thousand dollars, and divided as follows:

20,000	Notes of 25 cents	$ 5,000
20,000	do of 50 do	10,000
20,000	do of one dollar	20,000
10,000	do of two dollars	20,000
7,000	do of three dollars	21,000
6,000	do of four dollars	24,000
		$100,000

Art. 5. The notes of each series shall bear, besides the No. of their order, the following designation, to wit: those of the first series shall be marked A; those of the second, B; those of thy. C; and those of the fourth, D; and the said notes shall be in the following form:—

"A No.

"The Municipality No. 1 shall pay to the order of A. J. Guirot, Comptroller, ——, in conformity with an ordinance of the Council of the said Municipality, approved the ——, 1837.

Treasurer."

Art. 6. The banks who shall wish to exchange their notes for those thus issued are authorised to cause to be affixed there on the signature of one of their officers, before putting them in circulation, in order to avoid forgeries.

Art. 7. As long as the present situation of the banking institutions of the city shall not have undergone any change, the notes issued by virtue of the present ordinance shall be received at the office of the Treasurer, in notes current in the State for all sums of ten dollars and above; but when the banks shall have resumed their specie payment, they shall be reimbursable in specie; and will be received in payment of taxes and other debts due to the First Municipality.

Art. 8. The first series of notes shall be printed in New Orleans, on the best paper the Mayor shall deem most adapted to inspire the highest confidence which may be placed in them. They will teach, Reading, Writing, Grammar, Arithmetic, Geography, History, Mythology, Vocal and Instrumental Music, Needle Work, and the English, French and Spanish languages.

If sufficient encouragement is offered they will take borders.

The healthy situation of Carrolton, and its proximity to the city of New Orleans, being only twenty minutes ride from Canal street by the rail road, renders the location a very desirable one for a seminary of learning.
