MARIGNY HOTEL.

Corner of Victory street and the Pontchartrain Rail Road.

THE proprietor begs leave respectfully to invite the attention of the public to this establishment, which has been raised in a new and splendid style, unequalled in this country.

No pains or expense have been spared, and the utmost exertions will be used by all employed in the house to afford as much convenience and comfort to its patrons, as any place of the kind possibly can.

Boarders and lodgers will be accommodated in the most genteel style, and the rooms are delightfully pleasant.

There is a nobly furnished saloon expressly for the accomodation of Ladies on the second floor, connected with which are apartments where Ice Cream, Soda Water and Confectionary are served to Ladies and Gentlemen every evening.

This will be found very convenient for Ladies and Gentlemen that travel on the Rail Road, who are too late for the cars, as a pleasant place to sit in, will be some compensation for the disappointment, and add to this some of the luxuries of this house will make the delay a pleasure—and for those who indulge in an evening promenade, this will be a most desirable resort.

This splendid establishment has been fitted up with great expence; and the proprietor has only been induced to incur the responsibility, from the knowledge of the fact that the citizens of New Orleans are second to none or can fix for their certainty of rewarding laudable exertions.

VEGETABLE COMPOUND OIL.

FOR dying and converting Red and Grey Hair to a black or dark brown, and also for preserving, nourishing, and promoting its growth, without any inconvenience whatever.

The proprietor of this inestimable preparation, is well aware that the foundation of all the nostrums, which have heretofore been made use of for the purpose of converting red or grey hair to a black or dark brown, is the nitrate of silver or other mineral substances, which, it is admitted, will color the hair, but at the same time will deaden and destroy it; so that in the end the cure is worse than the disease.

The ingredients of which this Vegetable Compound Oil is composed, are such as will be found to nourish and promote the growth of hair, and that more so than any other article known, which is sold for that purpose, (notwithstanding the wonderful things they are said to perform.) It will also soften and give it a beautiful glossy appearance; and also, at the same time, will color and convert it to a beautiful black or dark brown, according to its nature and primary color. The dye itself being purely vegetable, and combined with other ingredients, becomes nourishing, softening, and greatly promotes the growth of hair, and is recommended as the best valuable preparation, for this purpose, of any that has ever been offered to the public.

The Vegetable Compound Oil acts upon the hair in a slow and progressive manner, and if applied according to the directions, and regularly continued, it will keep the air a good color, will feed and nourish it, and greatly promote its growth. And surely the hair is a beautiful ornament to any person, but particularly the female, and therefore its beauty ought to be cultivated and preserved.

About three bottles of this oil will be sufficient for one person for a year; and persons getting into years, the beauty of whose hair is on the decline, will find this compound oil of great benefit in preserving it.

Finally, this Vegetable Compound Oil, with these directions observed and these cautions complied with, will perform all that is said of it, and this the proprietor knows not by supposition or theory only, but by actual experience.

A fresh supply of the above, of a very superior quality, at reduced price, just received and for sale by
