J. R. PUTNAM, DENTIST,

RESPECTFULLY informs the public that he has removed to the house recently occupied by Dr. Ker, at the corner of Canal and Royal streets, over the Post Office, (entrance No. 6, Royal street,) where he may be found from 9 o'clock, A. M. until 5 P. M., ready to attend to the duties of his profession, and where he invites those who wish to employ or consult him to call, as it is impossible for him to leave his rooms during those hours, except in cases of indisposition. He has rooms for the accommodation of his visiters, separate and distinct from his family apartments, where they can be entirely private during the performance of an operation, or whilst waiting for his services, should he be at the time engaged. His charges will be such as are sanctioned by the usages of his profession and will not be deviated from except for persons of limited means, or where families are to be attended to, then a reasonable deduction will be made. As he has no assistant in his business, and as it is expected that he will be found always in his rooms, it must be obvious to all, that it is impossible for him to keep books and attend personally to the collection of his bills; he therefore respectfully solicits those who receive his services to make settlement at the time, or attend to it as soon as convenient to themselves, as he has given offence to some by presenting his accounts through another person employed for that purpose. It is expected that punctuality will be strictly observed where positive engagements are made, or an excuse furnished in time, as a neglect to do this may subject others who have made engagements to disappointment and him to loss and inconvenience. Those indebted for services rendered during the last season, will oblige him by calling and paying their bills. nov 29

To those who are acquainted with the beautiful location of this establishment, it would be superfluous to say any thing in its favor; but for the information of the public in general, the subscriber conceives it necessary to make known its manifold advantages.

Pass Christian is situated about 50 miles from New Orleans, on Lake Bourgne, nearly opposite the Bay of St. Louis, immediately on the sea shore—the land is 12 to 15 feet above the level of high water mark, which, added to the pure atmosphere, renders it one of the most healthy places in the world; and in fact, from its peculiar situation, it is impossible that an epidemic disease should ever exist there.

The fish is abundant, and of every description—game plentiful—and within a quarter of a mile from the house is an extensive oyster bank, of which it is the subscriber's intention, at all times, to have an unlimited supply. The very best provisions, wines and liquors, will be amply provided, and the subscriber will neglect nothing which may add to the comfort and recreation of those who may favor him with their patronage.
