WM. SMITH'S

Northern Seed Store, No. 51 Custom-House street.

The subscriber begs leave to inform his friends and the public, that he is now landing from the ship Natchez, a renewed supply of fresh received direct from the growers and warranted equal as to freshness and quality, with any imported into New Orleans, either from the Northern or Western states.

Country merchants and dealers will find it more to their advantage to obtain their supplies at this establishment than from other in the city, as from the superior being nurseries and practical knowledge of the business, he is better prepared to fill an extensive order, (whether wholesale or retail,) for any of the standard kinds of KITCHEN GARDEN SEEDS, than any similar establishment south of the Atlantic cities, not even excepting any of the Shaker's societies. Dealers can always, during the Fall and Spring seasons, on a short notice, obtain an almost unlimited supply of Garden Seeds either by the single dozen papers, or gross, neatly and uniformly put up with printed labels in French & English.

The subscriber begs to return his warmest acknowledgements for the public patronage with which he has been favored since his first establishment in 1822, and hopes by personal assiduity, to merit a continuance thereof. In his new store, No. 63, Custom house street, where he will be permanently located.

BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL, for young ladies, conducted by Madame Gennes, in Mr. Lambert's new house, Royal street, corner of St. Philip street. Terms—Boarding, for two months, $300, day boarders, do. $100, washing, do. (optional) $20, French, do. $10, music, do. $25, harp, per quarter, $30, piano, do. $21, singing, do. $21, drawing, do. $21. The course of studies comprises a simultaneous teaching of the French and English languages and literature, writing, drawing, arithmetic, geography, chronology, history, and the different sorts of needle work, fancy making, tapestry and fancy works. Beds are found by the establishment, for which the pupils have to pay $5. Each pupil is to bring 2 pair of sheets, 1 woollen blanket, 1 white quilt, 12 towels, a silver spoon, fork and goblet, a dessert knife, and a sufficient suit of clothes and linen. School books and writing books are paid for separately. Payments to be made every three months, and in advance, either in cash or in negotiable bills. No deduction for absence. The children are treated with the mildness and attention towards the female portion of society, and consequently Madame Gennes carefully avoids striking their young minds with the ordinary terrors, as she has made a rule never to inflict the least bodily punishment. The increasing success of the establishment and the remarkable progress which the pupils have already made, render it useless to enter into further particulars.
