MEMORANDUM FOR: Col Napier

SUBJECT : Study of Questionnaires

A preliminary survey has been made of the questionnaires which were forwarded to Government Section by the Public Office Qualification Section on 29 March 1951. This study indicates that--in requesting that the 770 persons be reinstated--the Japanese Government has kept generally within the precedence of the past. There are, however, 141 individual cases which are questionable. It is not implied that any of these 141 cases are not within the standards, but English entries in the questionnaires are so worded that it is believed the Japanese Government should prove to Government Section that the persons concerned were actually erroneously designated.

This study also indicates that of the 770 purgees whose questionnaires were examined, 31 are at present holding public office or teaching jobs.

After October 1950 we have found 770 former military personnel designated by mistake. ACTION TO BE TAKEN BY CABINET ON MISTAKEN PROVISIONAL DESIGNATION OF PURGE

Government authorities added the following explanations in connection with an inquiry which was exchanged between MURASE Nobuchika and Attorney-General OHASHI at the regular session of the Diet on the 30th.

When MURASE stated in his inquiry that since the release from purge on 13 October of last year of a great number of people, the Government has received petitions from more than 700 people..., he referred to those who had discovered their status of provisional purge and had requested the Government for repeal. As these are clearly mistakes in designation, the Observation Section of the Cabinet Secretariat will continue to accept applications despite the abolishment of the Appeals Board and will take action on them at the proper time.

[illegible] the procedural errors of the Governmant Secretariat. For instance, among the purgees who were left off the last depurge list, there were people in reserve service purged as career military men by mistake. Since understanding was reached with GHQ in principle, the Government intends to reinstate them shortly.

Those purgees include reserve military men, assistant military police, temporary military police, and military students (equivalent to our ASTP students) commissioned after the outbreak of the Pacific War, totaling 770 persons.

With the anticipation of realizing this prior to the abolishment of the Appeals Board in the end of this month, it submitted documents and requested an approval by having Tanimura, Chairman of Appeals Board, Okada, Chief of Appeals Board Secretariat, and Izeki, former Chief of Appeals Board Secretariat call on Col. Napier, GS, GHQ SCAP, in the afternoon of 30th. However, it seems that they did not receive an immediate answer.

Furthermore, Chief Cabinet Secretary Okazaki stated at the press conference in the afternoon of the same day, "Since these people were purged entirely through error, their depurge can be handled in routine manner. Application will be accepted even hereafter."
