Facts will better than any speech convince the parents. j 27

PROCLAMATION

By Edward D White, Governor of the State of Louisiana.

Whereas the United States are now at peace with the neighboring states of Mexico, in which some hostile movements have occurred between the existing government there and a portion of their people, in which contest there has been in the State of Louisiana, some manifestation of interest which might lead not only to an infraction of our laws, but to a breach of national faith and honor.

The citizens of the State and others within its jurisdiction, are reminded of the provisions of the 2d section of the act of Congress, of April 20th, 1818, which is in these words:

"If any person shall, within the territory or jurisdiction of the United States, enlist or enter himself, or hire or retain another person to enlist or enter himself, or to go beyond the limits or jurisdiction of the United States, with intent to be enlisted or entered in the service of any foreign prince, state, colony, district or people, as a soldier, a marine or seaman, on board of any vessel of war, letter of marque or privateer, every person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a high misdemeanor; and be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars, and imprisoned not exceeding three years: This act does not extend to the subject or citizen of any foreign prince, state or colony, district or people who shall transiently be within the United States, and shall, on board of any vessel of war, letter of marque or privateer, which at the time of its arrival within the United States was fitted and equipped as such, enlist or enter himself, or hire or retain another subject or citizen of the same foreign prince, state, colony, district or people, who is transiently within the United States, to enlist or enter himself to serve such foreign prince, state, colony, district or people, on board such vessel of war, letter of marque or privateer, if the U S shall then be at peace with such foreign prince, state, colony, district or people.

Now therefore I, Edward D White, Governor of the State of Louisiana, issue this my proclamation, calling upon all magistrates and other officers of justice, and upon all good citizens, to assist in preventing the violation of this law, and in bringing to punishment those who may offend against it.

Given under my hand and the seal of the state, at New Orleans, this 13th day of November 1835; [L S] and of the Independence of the United States the sixtieth.

E. D. WHITE.

By the Governor. MARTIN BLACHE, Sec. of State.

NORTH AMERICAN HOTEL.—THE subscriber has the honor of informing the public, that this establishment, which will soon be completed, will be opened in a few days, for the reception of boarders and lodgers. The hotel is situated at the corner of Bienville and Levee streets, in the middle of the crescent, along which New Orleans is built, and commands a beautiful view of both sides of the city and of Mississippi, which during the business season is crowded with masts, and enlivened by the arrival and departure of hundreds of steamboats. No expense will be spared in fitting up the establishment, and rendering it worthy of public patronage. There are two stair cases—one for the general use, the other for private families. Elegant furniture has been ordered; and every thing necessary to render the hotel convenient and comfortable, will be prepared.

From its central position, it will be desirable for persons engaged in business; and from the prospect it commands, to every one of taste. Travellers and private families will be accommodated with the greatest care. The tables will be furnished in the best style.

The best wines and liquors of every denomination will always be kept on hand for those who may call for them.

The subscriber assures the public that no pains will be wanting on his part to render the establishment comfortable, and to give satisfaction to all: he therefore respectfully solicits a share of their patronage.

ORTHOPEDA or distortion of the FEET.—This important branch of surgery, the object of which is to remedy all deformities of the feet, having latterly become the subject of particular attention in France, and its treatment attended with decided success, the subscriber was induced during his residence in Paris in 1834, to devote much of his time to a thorough investigation of its theory and practice; and under the instruction of one of the most eminent practitioners there, he flatters himself that he has acquired such knowledge of the art as enables him with confidence to offer his services to the public.

All defects of the feet may be divided into two classes: the congenital, or such as take place before the birth, and accidental, or those which occur at different periods after it; and they are produced by a variety of causes, affecting the osseous, muscular or ligamentous system. All these cases may be completely and permanently cured. The time required to accomplish a cure must necessarily depend upon the nature and degree of the deformity, and the age and state of health of the patient; a congenital or very aggravated case of ten years standing having been completely rectified. Persons desirous of ocular evidence may satisfy themselves by application to
