Whitehall, No. 44 St. Louis street,

NEW ORLEANS, OYSTER SALOON AND HOUSE, &c.—The undersigned will open, on Saturday, 1st December, in St. Louis st, opposite the Exchange, an establishment, the want of which has long been felt in the First Municipality. A Saloon has been fitted up comprehending at a cost more than expenses and luxuries of a coffee room and oyster house. In our arrangements for the gratification of the taste of the public, we have spared no expense, neglected no measure which will tend to give to our establishment a marked superiority over all others of the same kind in New Orleans. A man of known experience and skill has been engaged to purchase the best oysters that can be had, and the liquors will always be of the finest quality.

The strictest decorum will be maintained at all times throughout all parts of the establishment, and we shall strive to render it a place of agreeable resort during the winter months.

A magnificent Billiard room is fitted up for those who delight in this elegant exercise.

The Saloon will be richly decorated and splendidly lighted. Artists of the first merit are employed to give it an appearance of beautiful simplicity which cannot fail to please the eye of taste.

The waiters will be polite and prompt.

A fine rate Cook is employed, nowhere excelled for skill in his profession.

Most respectfully we solicit the public patronage for this new and useful enterprise, and we assure our friends and fellow citizens that no exertion will be avoided that may contribute to the pleasure and enjoyment of those who may honor us with their visits. 224 R. VIOSCA & CO.
