FREE DAY SCHOOL.

ATTACHED TO THE POYDRAS ASYLUM.

THE managers of the Female Orphan Asylum having, for many years past, had frequent application for the admission of children into the Poydras Asylum, who were not objects of that institution, having one, and in many instances both parents; and wishing to extend the usefulness of the institution, have resolved to open a free day school, for the education of female children whose parents cannot have them instructed elsewhere. They propose having the pupils taught reading, writing, arithmetic, and plain sewing.

Parents desirous of availing themselves of this opportunity, will receive a ticket of admission, for any child over five years of age. Information as to the hours, rules, etc. by applying to either of the managers of the Female Orphan Society. aug 2
