BAZAR OF PERFUMES.

Royal street, No. 232.

THIS being the proper season for the use of some of the Cosmetics which are to be found at the above Bazar, the subscriber takes the liberty of making a few observations on the mode of using such articles.

When the warm season arrives the ladies hair are fatigued from the friction to which they have been subjected by the winter head dress, and they call for more than usual care.

The liquid soap, of which yolks of eggs form a compounding part, is an excellent cosmetic to cleanse the head and to dispose the hair to receive the oils or creams with which they are to be impregnated for the purpose of exciting their growth and preventing them from shedding.

He does recommend the floral oil of Sainy, that of Macassar, do. of bear clarified and perfumed, and several other kinds of oils & pomatums, of which he has a large and diversified assortment. Also, Phiotrix of Guinand, &c.

FOR THE FACE—The subscriber recommends the use of the Persian cream, do. of Cucumbers, very fresh hair powder, peau-tress fine powder, cream of rose, white of pearl, superfine Rouge, either in pots, leaves or with vinegar, rose milk, cold cream, &c.

Every kind of shaving and toilette soap, scented or without scent.

Almonds, paste dry or liquid to whiten the skin, the celebrated cream of soap of Demarson, which preserves its freshness and qualities for a very long period.

FOR THE MOUTH—Balsam water and Demarson's powder, coral powder and opiat.

Superfine essences to sprinkle over a handkerchief, amongst which that very celebrated essence called the Caprice de Valerie; Lavender waters double distilled and ambered, Alp water, Cologne water, from the lowest quality to the double refined Demarson, and to No. 24 of Marie Farina; Orange flower water, rose water, &c.

Every body knows how much cordials will improve by age; persons desirous of procuring very old Ratafia Noyau, Cassis, Cordial water, do. of Injalba, do. Des Carmes, of the French mountains, &c. will find some here, warranted 15 years old.

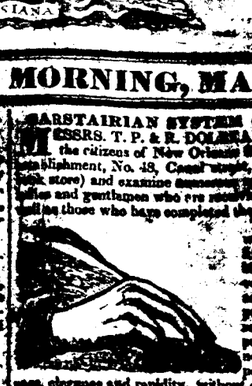
SARSTAIRIAN SYSTEM OF WRITING.

MESSRS. T. P. & R. DOLBEAR, respectfully invites all the citizens of New Orleans to call at their writing establishment, No. 48, Canal street, (over Miss Carroll's fancy store) and examine specimens, executed by ladies and gentlemen who are receiving their instruction, as well as those who have completed their lessons.



The movements of the whole arm, fore arm and fingers, with their combinations, which are given by this system, are adapted to the various purposes of the counting room and parlor, and if properly acquired, will never fail to enable any person to write with ease, elegance and rapidity, without cramping, or paining the hand or wrist—as these systematic movements are founded upon the philosophy of mechanics.

A class of ladies writes daily from 12 to 1, for whom a separate apartment is provided. Gentlemen's apartments open from 9 a. m. to 10 1-2 p. m. Private lessons given at school. Professional gentlemen can be accommodated with a private apartment.

Persons visiting the city for a few days only, can acquire a full course of lessons. Persons attending this institution are not restricted to a given number of lessons, but all anticipated to acquire an elegant hand before they leave, whether it require ten or thirty lessons.

CERTIFICATES.

From his Excellency Governor Eustis

I have examined, with attention, the system of writing taught by Mr. Dolbear, and it is with pleasure that I can certify to its superiority over any other method, with which I am acquainted. Mr. Dolbear having given private lessons in my family, I consider it but justice to add, that I believe him as much worthy of public patronage on account of the correctness and mildness of his character, as on account of the rapid improvement of those who received his lessons.

New Orleans, July 2d, 1832. A. B. ROMAN.

On the invitation of Mr. Dolbear, a Teacher of Penmanship, in our city, upon the Sarstairian system, we have carefully examined specimens of the writings of his pupils, whose ages range from 5 to 50 years, written through an entire course of instruction; and after having done so, it is with the highest satisfaction, that we can testify to their rapid if not unparalleled, progress which they have made.

From the specimens seen, and the examination of the system made, we cannot withhold the expression of a concurrent opinion, that the system is greatly superior to any hitherto taught. If to write legibly, elegantly, rapidly, and in good taste, be an accomplishment, useful or desirable; it is upon the principles of this system that it is to be acquired. We therefore anxiously solicit of the public a liberal patronage in favor of an Instructor, whose qualifications are of the highest order, and whose labors promise to be exceedingly useful to this and other communities.

A. B. Roman, Governor of the State of Louisiana; D. Prieur, Mayor of the City of New Orleans; Rev. C. Maunhaut; Rev. O. L. Nash, A. Gamble, Esq; Rev. G. Winslow; J. W. Egnew, Esq; Wm C. Pope, Esq; D. Murphey, Esq; L. Bringier, Surveyor General.

From an examination of the system, according to which Mr. Dolbear instructs and from personal observation of the proficiency of many of his pupils, I feel the utmost confidence in recommending him as the ablest teacher of the art of penmanship, with whom I have ever met. His deportment, also, is that of a gentleman.

BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL, for young ladies, conducted by Madame Grenet, in Mr. Landreaux's new house, Royal street, corner of St. Philip street. Terms—Boarders, for ten months, $300, day boarders, do. $200, day scholars, do. $100, washing, do. (optional) $20, harp, per quarter, $30, piano, do. $21, singing, do. $21, dancing, do. $21. The course of studies comprises a simultaneous teaching of the French and English languages and literature, writing, drawing, arithmetic, geography, chronology, history, and the different sorts of needle work, lace making, tapestry and fancy works. Beds are found by the pupil as to bring 2 pair of sheets, 1 woollen blanket, 1 white quilt, 12 towels, a silver spoon, fork and goblet, a dessert knife, and a sufficient suit of clothes and linen. School books and writing books are paid for separately. Payments to be made every three months, and in advance, either in cash or in negotiable bills. No deduction for absence. The children are treated with that mildness, so becoming towards the female portion of society, and as Madame Granet carefully avoids striking their young minds with realor imaginary terrors, so she has made a rule never to inflict the least bodily punishment. The improvements and success of the establishment and the remarkable progress the pupils have already made, render it unnecessary to refer to further particulars.
