Organizing concepts

Attraction

Making the community (and community norms) less hidden, more human, more approachable

In-Context Automatic Help As Things Happen

Encouraging editing generally (not specific task recommendations)

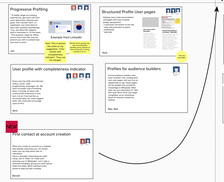
Retargeting / Outreach to Editors who drop off

Engagement

Better Onboarding thru User Profiles



Activity recommendations

Task recommendations/microcontributions

Places to go to get any kind of help (safe spaces to ask)

Better assessment of new content by self or others

Extension

Better Help (generally, not in-context)

Better Instruction/Courses

Learning and support for mentors, curators and patrollers

Improving feedback/communication

Narrower and targeted feedback/comments

Recognition

Community engagement / encouraging solutions by volunteers (goes across the whole new editors lifecycle)

Training for those who interact with new editors (goes in the "Interact" part of Engagement)
