Dear Mrs. Barton:

Mr. J.E.Glynn, Chief, Transporation and Communications Division, Office of International Trade has made a request of the Security Officer of the Dept. of Commerce for ALL JANIS reports dealing with transportation, communications and port facilities.

In your memorandum of March 31,1945 to the writer you stated that the Joint Intelligence Study Publishing Board approved this request, which inadvertently had been sent direct to the Board by Mr. Glynn instead of routing it through this office.

We have been advised by Mr. Glynn, whom I saw in person, that these documents will be used to great advantage in view of the nature of the work in his division. He also assured me that they would receive adequate security protection, being kept in locked cabinets behind locked doors.

He is located in room 1868-A, Dept. of Commerce building, 15th and Constitution Ave., and if possible these documents should be delivered direct to him.

Will you please advise us when this delivery is to be made?

Sincerely,

Jerome E. Burke

The Chief of Transportation and Communications Division, Special Services and Intelligence Branch, OIT, Department of Commerce, has filed a request for certain JANIS studies directly with the Joint Intelligence Study Publishing Board. 2. The Joint Intelligence Study Publishing Board has requested, however, that we approve this request. It would be appreciated if you would indicate your approval of this request, both as to the need of the Division for these studies and as to security protection which they will receive.

Major General Robert McG. Littlejohn

Dear General Littlejohn:

In view of the recent liaison arrangements established with your agency, these studies will be available to your agency upon request.

The JANIS studies are normally classified Confidential, but some studies have been downgraded to Restricted. They are detailed monographs written by research personnel of several agencies of the Federal Government. The following list of chapter titles suggests the coverage of these studies.

Chapter 11	Military Geography
Chapter 111	Oceanography
Chapter IV	Coasts and Landing Beaches
Chapter V	Climate and Weather
Chapter V1	Ports and Shipping
Chapter V11	Transportation and Telecommunication
Chapter V111	Cities and Towns
Chapter IX	Resources and Trade

Chapter X111	Gazetteer and Map Appraisal

CONFIDENTIAL

DECLASSIFIED E.O. 11652, Sec 3(E) and 5(D) or (E) NND# 740132

The chapters are bound individually and each is extensively illustrated with photographs and maps. In addition, a separate pouch of large maps is included with most studies.

The Joint Intelligence Study Publishing Board desires to make these studies of maximum use to agencies of the Federal Government within the limitations imposed by military security. It is requested that the above information, together with the attached lists of areas of which studies have been published, be brought to the attention of interested officials within your agency.

When these officials have determined which, if any, of the listed studies are needed in the conduct of their official business, requests for copies of these studies should be addressed to the Security Advisory Board, State-War-Navy Coordinating Committee, through your liaison officer, Mr. O. V. Powell. The requests for copies should state the titles and number of copies desired, reason for requesting these studies, and an assurance that they will receive adequate security protection.

In the event any further information is necessary before submission of any requests for JANIS, it is requested that your agency communicate with the Secretary, Security Advisory Board, Room 711, 515 22nd Street, N. W., Washington 25, D. C., Republic 5600, Extension 3669.

Should the enclosure to this letter be removed, the letter may be downgraded to Restricted.

Dear Mr. Powell:

Reference is made to my letter of May 8, 1947, in which I stated that MI-6 would be forwarded to you at a later date.

You will note that this memorandum deals with the distribution of certain intelligence studies by the Joint Intelligence Study Publishing Board through the medium of the Security Advisory Board. Since the actual announcements were sent to the head of the federal agencies on February 12, 1947, it was of course necessary to make some slight change in the letter which was forwarded to the head of your agency this date. All other instructions contained in MI-6, enclosed, are however still appropriate and are for your guidance should officials in your agency desire these studies.

Dear Mrs. Barton:

Mr. F. B. Lee, Executive Assistant to the Administrator of the Civil Aeronautics Administration has requested that this Office obtain for that Bureau, one copy each of the enumerated JANIS documents on areas of the Far East and Pacific.

We quote from the CAA memorandum:

"The reason for requesting these studies is that the Administration is charged with the responsibility of encouraging and fostering the development of civil aeronautics and air commerce in the United States and abroad and promoting the safety of flight in air commerce. The responsibility with respect to U. S. civil aviation abroad entails a thorough knowledge of the lands and water areas over which, or adjacent to which, U. S. civil aircraft fly. The areas included in the enclosures to your memorandum fall within the above categories.

This memorandum will be your assurance that these publications will receive adequate security protection".

After an examination of this report, it is expected that the CAA will ask for two more complete sets.

If the Board expects to deliver the first set to Mr. Lee direct, you will find him located in Room 5800-B, Department of Commerce Building, 15th and Constitution Avenue, N.W. His telephone number is extension 2076, Commerce.

Subject: Distribution of Joint Army-Navy Intelligence Studies (JANIS)

The accompanying letter from the SWNCC Security Advisory Board, dated February 12, 1947, explains that there is available to the Department a considerable supply of Joint Army-Navy Intelligence Studies (JANIS), and includes some details on their scope and content.

The Department, through the Intelligence Research Organization, has participated in the production of these volumes and as a result has, in the Office of Intelligence Research (OIR), a considerable stock of its own, comprising all volumes issued to date. Because this stock is available within OIR, it is now proposed that officers of the Department communicate their requirements for JANIS to OIR so that we may satisfy Departmental needs first from our stock; if the requirements exceed the stock, OIR will undertake to procure the additional copies needed. Division Chiefs are therefore requested to send to the Director of the Office of Intelligence Research, attention of the Projects Officer, a statement of their needs for copies of the various JANIS. In accordance with the procedure suggested by the Security Advisory Board, each request should include a justification; the Board's desire for an assurance that the studies will receive adequate security protection will be met by a general statement of the Department's security position, and may be disregarded in the individual requests.

Any questions concerning procedure or substance may be referred to Mr. Harold A. Levin, Projects Officer, OIR, EXecutive 6101, ext. 2237.

The Honorable
The Secretary of State
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Secretary:

The Joint Intelligence Study Publishing Board, functioning under the Joint Chiefs of Staff, has published a number of Joint Army-Navy Intelligence Studies (JANIS) on areas of the Far East and Pacific. The publications are normally classified CONFIDENTIAL but some studies have been downgraded to RESTRICTED. The studies are detailed monographs written by research personnel of several agencies of the Federal Government. The following list of chapter titles suggests the coverage of these studies:

Chapter I	Brief (Summary of Entire Study)	Chapter VIII	Cities and Towns
Chapter II	Military Geography	Chapter IX	Resources and Trade
Chapter III	Oceanography	Chapter X	People and Government
Chapter IV	Coasts and Landing Beaches	Chapter XI	Health and Sanitation
Chapter V	Climate and Weather	Chapter XII	Aviation
Chapter VI	Ports and Shipping	Chapter XIII	Gazetteer and Map Appraisal
Chapter VII	Transportation and Telecommunication

The chapters are bound individually and each is extensively illustrated with photographs and maps. In addition, a separate pouch of large maps is included with most studies.

The Joint Intelligence Study Publishing Board desires to make these studies of maximum use to agencies of the Federal Government within the limitations imposed by military security. It is requested that the above information, together with the attached lists of areas of which

When these officials have determined which, if any, of the listed studies are needed in the conduct of their official business, requests for copies of these studies should be addressed to the Security Advisory Board, State-War-Navy Coordinating Committee, through your Security Officer, Mr. Robert L. Bannerman. The request for copies should state the titles and number of copies desired, reason for requesting these studies, and an assurance that they will receive adequate security protection.

In the event any further information is necessary before submission of requests for JANIS, it is requested that your agency communicate with the Secretary, Security Advisory Board, Room 711, 515 22nd Street, N. W., Washington 25, D. C., REpublic 5600, Extension 3669.

I have been informed that no JANIS studies are available which treat wholly of financial aspects of Far Eastern problems. There is, of course, one chapter on financial problems in each of the JANIS studies, prepared for this series by the Federal Reserve Board.

Your Security Officer, Mr. John D. Larson, has requested a complete set of the JANIS studies for the use of the Secretary and his staff. These studies will be sent to him and will be available in his office should you have need for them.

DISTRIBUTION OF JANIS TO CERTAIN AGENCIES OF THE U. S. GOVERNMENT

Note by the Secretary

1. At the request of the Joint Security Control of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the Security Advisory Board has today sent to the head of your agency, and certain other selected agencies, the enclosed announcement of the availability of certain Joint Army-Navy Intelligence studies for government agencies.

2. You will note that the distribution of these studies is to be made through the medium of the Security Advisory Board. The Board has been given the responsibility of determining that the officials who receive JANIS will maintain the classification of the material offered and provide for the security thereof. In order that this assurance may be given, it will be necessary that all requests for JANIS within your agency be funnelled to you as Security Officer.

3. Upon receipt of requests for JANIS from officials within your agency, it is assumed that you will: (1) examine the request to determine that information specified in the penultimate paragraph of our letter to the head of your agency has been supplied; (2) determine to your satisfaction that the requesting officials have a valid interest in the material offered and will provide for the security thereof; and (3) where possible, obtain security clearances on individuals requesting the studies.

4. Once these determinations have been made to your satisfaction, the request should be forwarded to the Secretary, Security Advisory Board, Room 711, 515 22nd Street, N.W., with a statement of your approval or disapproval of the request.

5. It is desired that these studies be of maximum use to civilian agencies, but if proper safeguarding cannot be assured, no distribution of JANIS can be made through the medium of the Security Advisory Board. The Board will appreciate your cooperation in this matter.

6. Should the enclosures to this memorandum be removed, the memorandum may be downgraded to RESTRICTED.

MEMORANDUM FOR State Member, SAB

Navy Member, SAB

Subject: Distribution of JANIS to Certain Nonmilitary Agencies of the U.S. Government

Enclosures:
a. Copy JSC/A8-6
b. Proposed Letter to Heads of Agencies
c. Proposed Memorandum to Security Officers

1. The Joint Security Control has requested that the Security Advisory Board act as the medium through which JANIS can be distributed to certain nonmilitary agencies of the U.S. Government. (Enclosure a). Through conversations with Joint Security Control and the Joint Intelligence Study Publishing Board, I have determined that there will be no objection to any changes in procedure or wording of proposed letter which the Security Advisory Board may desire to make.

2. It is believed that the Security Advisory Board must assure itself that these classified studies will receive proper protection in the requesting agency. Such assurances carry more weight with the Board, of course, when they come from the Security Officer of the agency. On the other hand, the fact that in some instances a Security Officer cannot make a satisfactory overall distribution of specialized material would seem to preclude the initial handling of this project by the Security Officer.

3. As a compromise between these two positions, it is proposed to send a letter to the head of agencies announcing the availability of JANIS and stating that requests of these studies be sent to the Security Advisory Board via the agency's Security Officer.(Enclosure b). At the same time , it is proposed to send a memorandum to the Security Officers concerned, stating the action which has been taken and describing the role they will play in such requests. In this manner the Security Advisory Board will receive the necessary assurances from the Security Officer and at the same time, will be sure the original announcement received the proper distribution.

DECLASSIFIED E.O. 11652, Sec 3(E) and 5(D) or (E) NND# 740132

4. With regard to the proposed list of addressees, (Enclosure c, JSC/A8-6), it is suggested that the following agencies be deleted for reasons of no information regarding their security measures, no advisory jurisdiction over them, and in one instance, because the agency is no longer in existence:

a. Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs
b. Secretary of Foreign -Trade Zones Board
c. Chairman-Permanent Joint Board on Defense
d. Secretary of Securities and Exchange Commission

The following agencies should be added:

a. Office of Alien Property Custodian
b. Export-Import Bank

5. In view of the absence of the War Member of the Board for the next ten days, the Secretary will make an effort to clear as many papers informally, as possible under the circumstances. It would be appreciated if Members would clear this paper informally as soon as possible.

1. At the request of the Joint Intelligence Committee, a draft of a letter, regarding JANIS and designed to be sent to certain U.S. Government agencies, is enclosed (Enclosure A) for promulgation by the Security Advisory Board.

2. Enclosure B is a list of the areas of which studies have been published. If you desire to circulate this list with the basic letter, the letter and the list must be classified CONFIDENTIAL.

3. Enclosure C is a suggested list of addresses. The list may be revised as desirable. It may not be considered advisable for reasons of security or lack of interest to send letters to certain suggested agencies. It may be considered desirable to add other addresses. It is expected that the Security Advisory Board will assure itself that the agencies to whom the letter is sent will agree to preserve the classification of the material offered.

4. The Joint Intelligence Committee desires that communications required in the processing of requests for JANIS from the addresses be exchanged directly between the Security Advisory Board and the Joint Intelligence Study Publishing Board, an agency of the Joint Intelligence Committee responsible for publication of these studies.

SECURITY ADVISORY BOARD

Memorandum for Information No. 6

DISTRIBUTION OF JANIS TO CERTAIN AGENCIES OF U. S. GOVERNMENT

Note by the Secretary

1. At the request of the Joint Security Control of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the Security Advisory Board has today sent to the head of your agency, and certain other selected agencies, the enclosed announcement of the availability of certain Joint Army-Navy Intelligence studies for government agencies.

2. You will note that the distribution of these studies is to be made through the medium of the Security Advisory Board. The Board has been given the responsibility of determining that the officials who receive JANIS will maintain the classification of the material offered. In order that this assurance may be given, it will be necessary that all requests for JANIS within your agency be funnelled to you as Security Officer.

3. Upon receipt of requests for JANIS from officials within your agency, it is assumed that you will: (1) examine the request to determine that information specified in the penultimate paragraph of our letter to the head of your agency has been supplied; (2) determine to your satisfaction that the officials requesting the studies would have a valid interest therein; and (3) where possible, obtain security clearances on individuals requesting the studies. Security clearances will not be considered mandatory but are desirable, whenever they can be obtained by the Security Officer.

4. Once these determinations have been made to your satisfaction, the request should be forwarded to the Secretary, Security Advisory Board, Room 711, 515 22nd Street, N. W., with a statement of your approval or disapproval of the request.

5. It is desired that these studies be of maximum use to civilian agencies, but if proper safeguarding cannot be assured, no distribution of JANIS can be made through the medium of the Security Advisory Board. The Board will appreciate your cooperation in this matter.

Enclosures: (A) Draft of letter to U.S. Government agencies regarding JANIS

(B) List of areas covered by JANIS

(C) Suggested addressees for letter

1. At the request of the Joint Intelligence Committee, a draft of a letter, regarding JANIS and designed to be sent to certain U.S. Government agencies, is enclosed (Enclosure A) for promulgation by the Security Advisory Board.

2. Enclosure B is a list of the areas of which studies have been published. If you desire to circulate this list with the basic letter, the letter and the list must be classified CONFIDENTIAL.

The Joint Intelligence Study Publishing Board, functioning under the Joint Chiefs of Staff, has published a number of Joint Army-Navy Intelligence Studies (JANIS) on areas of the Far East and Pacific. The publications are normally classified confidential but some studies have been ~~reduced~~ to restricted. The studies are detailed monographs written by research personnel of several agencies of the Federal Government. The following list of chapter titles suggests the coverage of these studies.

Chapter I	Brief (Summary of Entire Study)	Chapter VII	Transportation and Telecommunication
Chapter II	Military Georgraphy	Chapter VIII	Cities and Towns
Chapter III	Oceanography	Chapter IX	Resources and Trade
Chapter IV	Coasts and Landing Beaches	Chapter X	People and Government
Chapter V	Climate and Weather	Chapter XI	Health and Sanitation
Chapter VI	Ports and Shipping	Chapter XII	Aviation
		Chapter XIII	Gazetteer and Map Appraisal

The chapters are bound individually and each is extensively illustrated with photographs and maps. In addition, a separate pouch of large maps is included with most studies.

The Joint Intelligence Study Publishing Board desires to make these studies of maximum use to agencies of the Federal Government within the limitations imposed by military security. It is requested that the above information be brought to the attention of research of other ~~agencies~~ within your department. In the event further information on or access to these publications is desired by your department, it is requested that your agency communicate with the undersigned.
