THE LOUISIANA LAW SCHOOL, which is now permanently located at No. 117 Royal street, between St Louis and Conti streets, will be opened on the 18th of December next, when the lectures commence.

This institution, the only one in the United States where the Civil Law is explained and studied, although recently established, has received so flattering a support from the public, that the undersigned has felt it his duty to spare no pains or expense in rendering it as extensively useful as practicable.

The Course of Studies embraces a general and a special course.

The General Course, which comprehends the outline of the science of jurisprudence, is intended as preparatory to the Special course. It includes, besides an examination of the utility and philosophy of legal studies, an outline of the history of the Roman, Spanish, French and Common law, which is indispensable to enable the students to appreciate the elements of the jurisprudence of Louisiana, also the principles of modern international and of constitutional law, &c.

The Special Course, which is devoted to the study of the actual legislation of Louisiana, and which is intended to prepare the students for admission to the bar, embraces the study of the various authors prescribed by the rule of the Supreme Court of the 28th Nov. 1840, prefixed to the 15th vol. of Louisiana Reports.

Attached to the Law School is an extensive and well selected Law Library, comprising several thousand volumes.

The Hon Henry A Bullard, Judge of the Supreme Court, Christian Roselius, Esq, late Attorney General of the State, and J P Benjamin, Esq, will aid the undersigned in delivering lectures in the institution.

Terms—Fifty dollars for the General, and one hundred dollars for the Special Course—each course is of six months duration. Subscribers to the Special Course are admitted free of charge to the General Course.

Applications to be made to the subscriber, who will promptly furnish any additional information that may be desired. GUSTAVUS SCHMIDT.

New Orleans, Oct 8, 1844.—till 15d

☞ The Cincinnati Gazette, Louisville Journal, Nashville Whig, St Louis Republican, and Lexington Reporter, will please insert the above for one week and send the account to G SCHMIDT.

BY ALEXANDER MOUTON,

Governor of the State of Louisiana.

IN pursuance of law, I, ALEXANDER MOUTON, Governor of the State of Louisiana, do hereby declare and make known, that the following described lands belonging to the State of Louisiana, and which have been located under the Acts of Congress appropriating lands for a Seminary of Learning and for Internal Improvements in said State, will be offered at public sale in the city of New Orleans, on MONDAY, the Ninth day of December, 1844, under the terms and conditions prescribed in the act authorizing their sale, approved on the 28th of March, 1844, which terms and conditions are as follows:

The said lands shall be sold in the same manner and under the same rules and proceedings as the lands belonging to the United States are sold, provided the purchasers may pay for the same in the warrants or debts now due by the State, and provided that said lands shall not be sold for a less sum than three dollars per acre.

For the lands belonging to Internal Improvements, it is further provided by said act, that it shall be lawful for all said lands to be paid for by the purchasers in warrants or debts proper now due, or which may be due at the time of the sale for internal improvements or in specie.
