Chas. E. Marc, Bachelor in Letters, et B. ès Sciences,—Prof. of the French and Spanish Languages and Literature.

Wm. B. Cline, A. B.—Prof. of Latin, Greek, Mathematics, and Nat'l Philosophy.

Hon. Robert Preaux, L. R. D. P.—Prof. of International and Constitutional Law.

A. C. Jacobs,—Professor of Drawing and Painting.

Auguste Bonnet,—Fencing Master.

THIS Institution was opened in 1843, as a High School for Boys, and has long ranked among the best Seminaries in the South. Professor F. Everest, the founder of the school, and late President of the College, having resigned on account of ill-health, the Board of Visitors elected Mr. Cline, late the Professor of [illegible] to fill the vacancy.

The Professors are gentlemen of sound learning and experience, and will be aided by skillful and efficient tutors.

No pains are spared to impart a solid education.

A thorough knowledge of every lesson is required and superficial study discouraged.

Surveying and Botany are taught in the field; Chemistry and Philosophy are illustrated by experiments.

Students are admitted at all stages of advancement; they may pursue either the scientific or the classical course, and degrees will be conferred upon them when they have completed the studies prescribed by the Board of Visitors.

The College buildings are large and airy—the main study being 70 by 30 feet—besides numerous smaller rooms for recitation.

The Gymnasium is on very large and well enclosed play grounds, which afford ample means for air and exercise.

A limited number of Boarders will be received into the President's family.

For other particulars, please address the President, at the College. d18

St. Louis Institute.

223 Dauphin street, between Ursulines and Hospital.

MRS. DERON tenders her thanks for the confidence reposed by parents in her Institute, which she has found in the same prosperous condition and she hereby renews the assurance of her zeal and devotion to the welfare of their children. Mrs. Deron has been enabled, by her residence in Paris, to study the new systems in the education of youth, ladies; she has visited the most renowned Academies and intends to adopt for her establishment a plan based upon what she has seen.

Mrs. DERON wishes that modest and elegant manners be imparted to her pupils whilst receiving a solid instruction based upon morality and religion, in a word, a complete education, which will enable them one day to guide their own children. She hopes that her motives will be appreciated by intelligent mothers, who prefer profound studies to a vain show in a public exhibition. The award of prizes in the St. Louis Institute following a general examination, will then always be a family fete; the progress of the pupils will be admitted.

Music, as well as general instruction (which will not interfere with the latter) will be carefully and constantly attended to. Mrs. Deron has engaged in France, for her establishment, the services of an Italian lady, who is an excellent professor and singer. The course of solfeggio and singing [illegible] TACCANI TASCA, whose splendid voice will always be admired [illegible]. The pupils of the city can be taught by Mrs. Tasca at the Institute.

NOTICE.

Mrs. DERON having often been applied to for private lessons by young ladies who could not follow the regular classes, a French class on the plan of Messrs. Remy and Levi, in Paris, will be opened on the 1st of January next, three times a week, [illegible] establishment, and be divided into a primary and superior course. The pupils of the establishment will, of course, be the first admitted to the same, and will doubtless contribute to the progress of the newcomers by exciting a general emulation.

Mothers may attend the course, should they choose. dec 15

C. BOYER'S INSTITUTION,

No. 148 Canal street, between Dauphin and Burgundy streets.

MR. C. BOYER, founder of this establishment, the oldest in New Orleans, avails himself of this opportunity to make a new appeal to the confidence of parents. This institution is conducted in a large mansion, occupying a fine central position, being well ventilated, and in other respects perfectly salubrious. The range of studies which engage the attention of the pupils, extends over all the branches of learning which are necessary to a useful, polite and finished education; from primary instruction to the more abstruse subjects, which are especially the province of a collegiate course. The elementary studies are attended to with more than ordinary care, considering the decisive influence which they exercise over the other branches of instruction. Discipline, which must not be separated from assiduous study, nor from a good education, is conducted with solicitude. It is calculated according to the age and character of the students, and intended to give them an accurate idea of duty and good behavior.
