1. Reference is made to message ZX 20730, General Headquarters, Far East Command dated 20 August 1949, pertaining to the above subject, disseminated by Commanding General, Eighth Army.

2. The inclosed Enlisted Monthly Personnel Roster (DA AGO Form 305) prepared for your unit is returned herewith for compliance with paragraph 4, letter, General Headquarters, Far East Command, file AG 330.32 AG-OA (A), subject, "Verification of Enlisted Personnel Rosters," which accompanied rosters originally forwarded for verification. The aforementioned paragraph 4 is quoted for your guidance:

"4. Provisions of reference 1c provide for the ultimate rendition of the original copy of all machine prepared enlisted personnel rosters by the Strength Accounting Branch to the Department of the Army upon receipt of verified, corrected and authenticated rosters from field units. In order to insure compliance with existing instructions outlined in reference 1b personnel officers of all units (except pipeline type units, i.e., replacement depots, disposition centers, etc.,) will enter on the last page of the roster following the last name or by attaching thereto a listing of all losses of enlisted personnel occuring during the month. The name, serial number, grade, nature of loss and if loss is by reassignment, the organization and APO to which individual was reassigned. When no losses have been reported during the month the statement "NO LOSSES" will be indicated after the last name appearing on the roster."

3. It is desired that the inclosed roster be immediately corrected in compliance with instructions quoted above and returned expeditiously
