SCHOOLS.

WRITING—Ladies and gentlemen are respectfully informed that Dolbear's writing academy, corner of Canal street and Exchange Place, is in successful operation. It is conducted by Messrs. A & B Everett, and the public are assured that no pains will be spared the present season to maintain the reputation which this institution has enjoyed for the past seven years. The main object is, as hitherto, to impart a business hand, which can be executed with ease and rapidity. For the convenience of such as are engaged during the day, there is a night class at 7 o'clock.

Classes are attended to in any part of the city.

The attention of teachers is called to the fact, that a very liberal deduction in charge is made to classes formed in schools.

Ladies are taught at their residences, or at the academy, as to them may seem desirable. Such as wish to acquire an easy and delicate epistolary hand, which is both a requisite and an accomplishment, are especially invited to call.

METHOD OF LEARNING TO READ IN 20 LESSONS.—MR. VANNIER, surveyor, former engineer on the Burgundy Canal, author of the unpublished abridged method to teach reading French in 20 lessons, proposes to put this admirable method into practice, either by private lessons, or in the public course which takes place every day, from 6 o'clock in the morning to 10 at night, at 150 Chartres street, or at 64 St Ann.

The professor will apply the same elevated method of instruction, according to the intelligence of pupils, to reading, orthography, arithmetic, geometry, algebra, linear drawing, mensuration, book-keeping, and accounts of all kinds.

DANCING ACADEMY.

NEW METHOD.

J. DEVOTI, for the last two years Professor in the Convent of the Sacred Heart, and in the Jefferson and Baton Rouge Colleges, has the honor to inform the ladies and gentlemen of New Orleans that he has opened his course of lessons at madam Lefay's, no 80 Royal street, between Conti and Bienville.

He will teach elegance of attitude, modern steps, waltzing, the figures of the Polonaise, quadrilles, &c. &c.

Three lessons will be given per week—at 4 o'clock P.M. for the ladies, and at 7 o'clock in the evening for gentlemen.

The price will be $8 per month, payable in advance.

Private lessons will be given at the rate of $12 for twelve lessons.

He hopes that all who appreciate this branch of a finished education will continue him their patronage.

Every month, in order to ascertain the progress of the young ladies, a ball will be given in presence of the parents, at the academy.
