The public is hereby informed, that the two auction sales of public lands throughout this district, which, by proclamation of the president of the United States, bearing date 19th day of July, 1838, have been ordered to take place at the Land-office, in New Orleans, shall be held in said city at the place called the Merchants' Exchange, between Custom-house and Canal streets, a few doors from the Post-office.

Each sale will be kept open for two weeks (unless the lands are sooner disposed of), the first sale to commence on Monday, the 3d day of December, 1838, and the second on Monday, the 17th day of same month. The hours of sale will be from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. It is deemed proper to remark that large portions of the lands to be offered are situated immediately on Iberville, Lake Ponchartrain, Calliou, the Mississippi river, and their waters, presenting great advantages as regards facility of communication with a market. A large portion is considered to be first rate cotton land, and the most part is adapted to the growth of the sugar cane.

New-Orleans, 12th November, 1838.

SCHOOLS.

MR. MONCENOT, Professor of Dancing, recently arrived, has the honor to inform the ladies and gentlemen of New Orleans, that he will give private lessons in this delightful art. He will teach the very latest, most graceful style; likewise waltzing.—Mr. M. not having the honor of being known, it deserves of teaching either in a school, or to a number of young persons, for the purpose of proving that by means of his new method he will enable all persons who want all disposed to dance as well as walk with grace and facility in thirty lessons. Those who may be desirous of learning fancy dances, as the Gavotte, Anglaise, Cossack, and all the steps belonging to three dances, together with dancing steps for summer, may acquire them by applying to him.

Price $8 per month—Three lesson per week, twelve tickets at $12. Those who are willing to honour him with their confidence are requested to write directed to his dwelling, 250 Rue St Philip and Dauphin streets, where he will give lessons on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. The mornings from 10 to 12 o'clock are devoted to the Ladies. The afternoons from 4 to 7 are devoted to the Gentlemen. n22-154,3pw

METHOD OF LEARNING TO READ IN 20 LESSONS.—MR. VANNIER, surveyor, former engineer on the Burgundy Canal, author of the unpublished simple method to teach reading French in 20 lessons, proposes to put this admirable method into practice, either by private lessons, or in the public course which takes place every day, from 6 o'clock in the morning to 10 at night, at 156 Chartres street, or at 64 St Ann.

The professor will apply the same abreviated method of instruction, according to the intelligence of pupils, to writing, orthography, arithmetic, geometry, algebra, linear drawing, mensuration, book-keeping, and accounts of all kinds. n27

DANCING ACADEMY.

NEW METHOD.

J. DEVOTI, for the last two years Professor in the Convent of the Sacred Heart, and in the Boarding Paton Rouge Colleges, has the honor to inform the ladies and gentlemen of New Orleans that he has opened his course of lessons at madam Lelay's, no. 90 Royal street, between Conti and Bienville.

He will teach singing of gal, the most modern steps, waltzing, the figures of the newest quadrilles, &c. &c.

Three lessons will be given per week, from 3 to 5 P.M. for the ladies, and at 7 o'clock in the evening for gentlemen.

The price will be $8 per month, payable in advance.

Private lessons will be given at the rate of $12 per month.

He hopes that all who appreciate this branch of a finished education will continue him their patronage.

Every month, in order to ascertain the progress of the young ladies, a ball will be given in presence of their parents, at the school.

Apply, to Mr. A. Ducas, corner St. Louis st. and Exchange alley. nov13

CALLIGRAPHY—Mr. Leon Dutruel, well known in New Orleans for his different works of calligraphy, has the honor of informing those persons desirous of acquiring an elegant commercial hand, that he pledges himself to correct the very worst writer in from 30 to 40 lessons, on the system recently adopted in France by the Royal Council of Public Instruction, and adopted by all the first institutions in Paris.

He likewise teaches round and sober writing, with all the ornaments that accompany the latter.

Lessons in French, or at his house. Exchange passage, between Conti and Bienville streets.

N. B—Mr. Dutruel continues to execute figures of writing on albums, music, poetry, and other pieces of amusement and taste; laws and regulations of the Louisiana Legislature, in one word every thing belonging to the art of writing. n6—1m
