MAYORALTY OF NEW-ORLEANS.
City Council—Sitting of Friday the 4th of Sept 1835.
AN ORDINANCE FOR THE CONSTRUCTION OF BANQUETTES AND SIDE-WALKS IN THE 7TH WARD.

RESOLVED, that from and after the passage hereof, it shall not be lawful to construct, in that portion of the Seventh Ward embraced by an ordinance for its incorporation, approved the 8th of April, 1831, any other banquettes, counter banquettes or footways, than those of brick and stone, and made in conformity to the ordinance regulating the construction for the square of the city, and that the proprietors of property therein be bound to make the same within a delay of six months from the passage hereof—those neglecting or refusing so to do, shall be subject to a fine upon each lot of thirty feet or less, for every day so neglecting, of ten dollars for the use of the corporation, and to be recovered before any competent tribunal

That for all that remaining portion of said seventh ward extending back from the river as far as the to include both sides of Magazine street, it shall not be lawful to make any other kind of banquettes than of stone and cypress wood, and the foot pavement of bricks, conforming in every respect, if of stone and brick, to the ordinances now in force regulating their construction in the square of the city, and if of wood to conform in dimensions to those prescribed by the third article of an ordinance, entitled "an ordinance for determining the manner in which banquetts, &c., are regulated," approved October the 6th, 1815; and that proprietors of property therein shall be bound to make said banquettes and counter banquettes and foot pavement of brick, or banquettes and gutters of cypress, and foot pavements of brick, within a delay of ninety days from the passage hereof; then in that case, each delinquent shall be subject to a fine of ten dollars for each and every day of his delinquency; and moreover, the commissary and inspector shall be charged with having said work made at the expense of those failing or neglecting so to do, said fine to be recovered before any competent tribunal for the use of the city.

That for all the remaining portion of the 7th ward not heretofore provided for, it shall be lawful to make banquettes of boat gunnels, and foot pavements of brick, and that proprietors of property situated therein are hereby enjoined to make the same within a delay of four months from the passage hereof, those refusing or neglecting so to do, shall be subject to a fine upon each lot of thirty feet or less, for every day so neglecting or refusing thereafter of ten dollars per day, said fine to be recovered before any competent tribunal for the use of the corporation; moreover the commissary and inspector of the seventh ward will give notice hereof to all those bound to make anew any of the works hereby ordained, either by publication in the corporation gazette or by serving a personal one; moreover, he will be fully authorized to have the several works made at the expense of the owners should they refuse or neglect to have the same made according to the direction or within the time prescribed by this ordinance, said works shall be adjudicated by the mayor to the lowest bidder, the corporation subrogating to said purchaser all claims against the property or owner for the expense thereof, and also all her rights to enforce payment thereof, to whom the purchaser will look for his compensation.

Be it further resolved, that in case the proprietors neglecting to construct the side walks and banquettes will prove before the judge, that they have been prevented by continual bad weather, or any other material impediments, then in that case, the fine shall not be decreed against them.

NOTE.—All bidders are requested to extend the amount of their bids for each article, and exhibit the total amount of each bid. The periods and quantities of each delivery, at those posts where they are not specified, will be—one-fourth 1st June, 1st September, 1st December, 1836, and 1st March 1837. The hogs of which the pork is packed, to be fattened on corn, and each hog to weigh not less than two hundred pounds; and, except where the quality is otherwise designated, will consist of one hog to each barrel, excluding the feet, legs, ears and snout.

Side pieces may be substituted for the hams. The pork is to be carefully packed with Turks' Island salt, and in pieces not exceeding ten pounds each. The pork to be contained in seasoned heart of white oak, or white ash barrels full hooped. The vinegar in iron bound casks; the beans in water tight barrels; and the soap and candles in strong boxes, of convenient size for transportation.

Salt will only be received by measurement of thirty-two quarts to the bushel.

The candles to have cotton wicks.

The provisions for Fort Armstrong, Prairie du Chien, and Saint Peter's, must pass St Louis, for their ultimate destination, by the 15th April 1836. A failure in this particular will be considered a breach of contract, and the Department will be authorized to purchase to supply these posts. The provisions will be inspected at the time and place of delivery; and all expenses are to be paid by contractors, until they are deposited at such store houses as may be designated by the agent of the department.

The commissary general reserves the privilege of increasing or diminishing the quantities, or of dispensing with one or more articles, at any time before entering into contracts; and also of increasing or reducing the quantities of each delivery one third, subsequent to the contract, on giving sixty days' previous notice.

Bidders not heretofore contractors are required to accompany their proposals with evidence of their ability, together with the names of their sureties, whose responsibility must be certified by the district attorney, or by some person well known to the government; otherwise their proposals will not be acted on.

Advances cannot be made in any case; and evidence of inspection and full delivery will be required at this office, before payment can be made, which will be by treasury warrants on banks nearest the point of delivery, or nearest the residence of the contractors, at their option.

Each proposal will be sealed in a separate envelope, and marked "Proposals for furnishing Army Subsistence."

STATE OF LOUISIANA—First Judicial District Court—The State of Louisiana—To all whom these presents shall come—Greeting:

Whereas the President, Directors and Company of the Bank of Darien in Georgia by their agent John Parker having purchased at a sale made by the sheriff of the Parish of St. Bernard, the property and slaves herein after described, have applied to the clerk of this court in whose office the deed of sale was recorded on the 27th day of August A D 1835, for a monition or advertisement in conformity to an Act of the Legislature of the State of Louisiana, entitled "an Act for the further assurance of titles to purchasers at judicial sales;" approved the tenth day of March 1834.

Now, therefore, know ye, and all persons interested herein, are hereby cited and admonished in the name of the State of Louisiana, and of the First Judicial District Court, who can set up any right, title or claim in and to the property herein after described, in consequence of any informality in the order, decree or judgement of the court under which the sale was made, or any irregularity or illegality in the appraisements and advertisements, in time, or manner of sale, or for any other defect whatsoever; to show cause, within thirty days from the day this Monition is first inserted in the public papers, why the sale so made should not be confirmed and homologated.

The said property was sold by the sheriff of the parish aforesaid on the seventh day of August A D 1835, by virtue of an order of this court, rendered on the 25th day of April A D 1835, in a suit entitled the Bank of Darien vs. Stephen R. Proctor, No. 12352 of a docket of this court, at which sale the said President, Directors & Co, of the Bank of Darien by their agent John Parker became the purchaser for the price of $71,000 for the plantation and the sum of $28,000 for the slaves, making together the sum of $99,000,

Description of property as given in the Judicial Conveyance, viz:

All that Tract or Parcel of LAND situated in the parish of St. Bernard, Terre aux Bœufs settlement, behind the plantation now occupied or owned by Augustin Reggio, at about three leagues and a half from the river Mississippi, in the interior of said Terre aux Bœufs settlement the said tract of land lying on both sides of the Bayou Yoclocky commonly called Belozy which runs east into lake Borgne, measuring forty two arpents in length or front on each side of the said Bayou, by a depth of ten arpents; also on each side thereof, and containing eight thousand and forty superficial arpents, and being the lower or eastern moiety of a land originally granted under the Spanish Government to Pierre Denis de la Ronde for sixteen hundred superficial arpents, bounded West by lands of the said Reggio, and on the East by the tract hereinafter described.

All that Tract of Land lying east of the last aforesaid moiety situated in the said parish of St Bernard, and running on each side of the said Bayou Yoclocky originally granted to Pierre Thomas, a blackman, for eighty arpents in length or front and ten arpents in depth on each side of said
