CARROLLTON ACADEMY—The subscribers have the honor to inform the friends of families in Orleans and Jefferson, as well as the adjoining parishes, that, on the second of November next, the above institution will be opened under the superintendence, for the reception of young youth, as boarding pupils or scholars. They pledge themselves that the most redoubled attention shall be devoted to their morals and intellectual improvement.

The local advantages of Carrollton are well known—They have secured the spacious house owned by Mr. Kuhn—the garden and premises are extensive, and the establishment will be conducted upon principles adopted for the object they have in view.

As the institution will be strictly conservative, the principal objection to the age of pupils (twelve years) will be overcome by this arrangement, parents will at once appreciate it.

Prospectuses will be made, as early as possible, for receiving scholars in point of age will apply to scholars. The same rules and regulations will be adopted as heretofore.

The academical year will be divided into two sessions, the winter term commencing on the 5th of January and ending on the 20th of June; and the summer term commencing on the 10th of July and ending on the 20th of December.
