LOMBARD & CO'S BOSTON AND NEW ORLEANS Line of Packet Ships.

THIS new line of ships had been expressly built to run between the above ports, and will be found of suitable draft of water, accommodations for passengers, and every effort will be used to give general satisfaction. The line is composed of the following ships:

CHEROKEE, 415 tons, J. Harding master.
CAROLINE, 400 tons E. Lemist master.
CHARLESTON, 375 tons, D. Eldridge master.
COLUMBIANA, 625 tons, G. Barker master.
SEAMAN, 340 tons, J. Howes master.
BOMBAY, 625 tons, D. Humphrey master.

The above ships are all new, of first class, copper fastened and coppered, commanded by men of great experience, have large accommodations, with a separate ladies' cabin; every attention will be paid to passengers, and the very best of stores provided for them. The packets will be towed up and down the Mississippi, and the strictest punctuality observed in the time of sailing, and should the regular vessels be detained in arriving other ships equally as good will in all cases be substituted. A share of patronage is solicited, and agents pledge themselves to accommodate shippers as much as practicable, to receive and forward goods by said line at the most moderate charges and to advance all expenses on goods shipped if required.

The ships will leave the 1st and 15th of every month. For freight or passage, apply to the agents,

A. T. HUBBARD, CHENERY & CO., at the city of New York, commission merchants offer their services to the public for the disposition and sale of beef, pork, lard and bacon. Their long experience in that business (say 20 years) and for the last 10 years they have given their undivided attention to the sale of provisions and lard on commission, gives them, as they flatter themselves, a decided advantage over many other houses, who only occasionally receive provisions for sale. Liberal advances are made when required on provisions consigned to their address. We beg leave to refer for character and responsibility to Messrs. Taylor and Cotheal, New Orleans.

Johannah Watson, wife of Ambrose Davenport vs Ambrose Davenport.

STATE OF LOUISIANA, Parish Court for the parish and city of New-Orleans, No. 10,263—I hereby certify, that February 8th, 1834, judgment was entered in this Court in the suit of Johannah Watson, wife of A. Davenport, vs. Ambrose Davenport, in words and figures following, to wit: This case being submitted to the Court by the Counsel of the plaintiff, and the Counsel appointed by the Court to represent the absent defendant, the Court considering—1st. That a judgment of separation from bed and board in favour of the plaintiff was signed in this court on the 10th of January, 1836; 2. That it is in evidence that no reconciliation has since taken place between the parties; 3. That by the fourth section of the act of March 10, 1827, relative to divorce, the plaintiff is entitled to a judgment of divorce. It is ordered, adjudged, and decreed that a judgment of divorce be entered in favour of the plaintiff; that the laws of matrimony hitherto existing between the parties, plaintiff and defendant, be dissolved, and that defendant pay the costs.

New-Orleans, Feb. 12, 1838.
(Signed) CHARLES MAURIAN, Judge.
Judgment recorded in Judgment Docket C, p 174.
In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the said Court, at the city of New-Orleans, on this 14th day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, and in the sixty-second year of Independence of the United States.

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD

THE above reward will be paid to any person who will deliver to the undersigned the following designated runaway slaves:

1. Voltaire, a griffe about 25 years of age, five feet in height—no teeth in his upper jaw, he stutters in speaking, is familiar with both French & English. He belonged formerly to the succession of the late Edward Leave, and drove a cart for a number of years in the service of the city. He made his escape once to Mobile with false papers. He was employed several months at the stable of Gallien Preval and lately in selling fire wood.

2. Scipio, a negro about 25 years of age and about 5 feet 4 inches in height—ugly by nature, he has become more so from the effects of the small pox, which he had two years ago; this sickness has left on his nose and the parts of the face adjoining it, considerable marks—his voice is strong and disagreeable—he has a down cast look and appears embarrassed when spoken to. He has been employed for a long time at the livery stable of Mr. Alme.

Captains of vessels and others are hereby notified not to harbor or employ the said negroes or they shall be prosecuted to the utmost extent of the law.
feb 22 3m J. BERMUDEZ.

$10 REWARD.

Absented from the undersigned the negro woman AIMEE aged about 34 years, very slim in body and about 5½ feet high, suspected to keep herself in the lower Faubourg.—The above reward will be paid to whoever will lodge her in one of the municipality jails.
