REMORADA.

Capt. Sumner, of the ship Sultana, which arrived yesterday from New York, reports having seen, on the 9th instant, a ship ashore on Morello Bank. He was unable to speak her on account of the weather, but judged, after coming near, her hull was painted black, with lower masts and white figure-head. There were many wreckers in sight, most of them from Key West. On the 7 o'clock, P. M. she had two lowers and mizen, and many men were at work. The very heavy at the time, the same day, off Gun Key, was in company with ship Georgiana, Captain Bailey, from New York, bound to this port. On the 8th instant, off Key West, was in company with ship American Union, Captain Hubbard, bound to this port.

EDUCATION.

DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES

Under the direction of

MRS. CHARPAUX,

At the corner of BAYOU and CLAIBORNE streets.

THIS Seminary, which continues dates some twelve years back, has met with a continued patronage, and yet will, with the capacity of those who have charge of it, be conducted to merit the confidence of parents. Mrs. Charpaux will spare no pains to make her Seminary equal to the best institutions of the kind in New Orleans, and is prepared to do this, she has employed the ablest teachers.

Madame Charpaux has purchased a large and airy office on one of the highest points of ground in the city, the better to consult the health of her pupils, she has furnished and elevated, and built on purpose for boarders and sleeping rooms, through which there will be a free and elevated circulation of air from many windows.

Great attention will be paid to the improvement of girls in the French language, Geography, Arithmetic, Spelling, Reading, Writing, Drawing, Music, Dancing, Embroidery, Tapestry, Fancy Work, Deportment and Instruction in the Bible.

The English and French languages, Geography, Arithmetic, and in short all the branches of a polite education, will be taught by the best teachers.

Music having become a most desirable branch of the education of young ladies, Mrs. Charpaux has spared no pains to secure the services of the best Professor of Music, and an assistant, who will devote her whole time to the teaching music.

Madame Charpaux, in order to complete the education of her scholars, has opened a class in which will be taught all the useful and ornamental branches of needlework.
