5. Reasons:

Long sized planers to be used for treatment of spindle rail & roller beam of ring spinning frame are set up only two machines in our plant at present.

However in equipment of these two planers, it is most difficult to manufacture 25 ring spinning frame per month which we take aim at production.

Therefore we have a pressing need for increasing eight planers.

We should like to strive for increase of efficiency of manufacturing spinning machines by moving these machines as you see in the list of machines desired to be moved (stated in the 4 item) as these increased planers will be set up in the 6th factory.

Furthermore it is applicated that a drill grinder is set up for repair as drill is damaged very much on account of cutting hard steel.

It was expected already to providing with cranes & hoists when expansion of casting equipment was planned for the purpose of raising production of textile machine after the termination of the war.

However, as our plant was designated to reparation plant in Aug. 1946, we stopped providing with cranes & hoists temporarily to leave as it is.

As a result of our endeavour for the recovery of 4-million cotton spindles, our production progressed satisfactorily.

2. The subject concern has submitted three (3) previous applications forwarded to higher headquarters by this headquarters on 7 Nov 46, 28 Jan 47 and 24 July 47.

3. The Ishikawa Seisakusho KK, 15-13 was established in 1921 for the purpose of manufacturing spinning machines. During the war years the subject plant was partially engaged in the production of parts of navy weapons.

4. Previous applications forwarded by this headquarters on the subject concern were favorably considered for release by this headquarters, and again it is of the opinion of this unit that the subject concern is vital to the future economy of the local area, therefore this unit again recommends that higher headquarters favorably consider the enclosed application.

b. Letter, Ishikawa Military Government Team, to Commanding Officer, Tokai-Hokuriku Military Government Region, 28 January 1947, subject: "Recommendation for Removal from Reparations List" and 4th indorsement, General Headquarters, SCAP, to Commanding General, Eighth Army, AG 387.6 (28 January 47) ESS/IN.

c. Letter, Ishikawa Military Government Team, to Supreme Commander Allied Powers, 24 July 1947, subject: "Application for Reparational Custody and Control", and 2nd indorsment, this headquarters, to Commanding General, Eighth Army, AG 602-BA.

2. The Ishikawa Seisakusho K.K. has, in the past, as indicated in paragraph 1, made three separate applications for removal from the list of plants subject to reparations. The basic communication consists of a fourth petition from the subject company for removal from reparations and is forwarded to your headquarters for necessary action.

3. Information contained in previous communications from this company indicates that the Ishikawa Seisakusho was organized as a textile mill at its present location in the year 1921. The company continued production of textile machinery until 1939 when it undertook manufacture of parts of mines. In 1940, it commenced production of parts of depth charges and by the end of 1941, the plant was primarily given over to the manufacture of munitions.

4. Prior to 1939, the output of the Ishikawa Seisakusho consisted entirely of textile machinery for which purpose, 162 pieces of machinery were used. During the period 1939 to 1941, the concern expanded its equipment to 409 pieces of machinery of which it is stated, 336 pieces were used for commercial production. During the war period, the amount of machinery increased to 460 pieces of which 299 were engaged in production of arms and 163 pieces were used for production of civilian commodities. At the peak of arms production, approximately 69% of all equipment was used for production of war equipment. Manufacture of textile machinery became of minor importance as the war continued, and based on yen value, the importance of textile equipment produced showed a decided decrease.

BASIC: Ltr, Hq Ishikawa Mil Govt Team, subj: "Application for Release from Reparations List", dtd 21 Jan 48.

5. From the above, it is apparent that the original history of the Ishikawa Seisakusho was that of producer of textile machinery. From 1939 through 1941, the company more than doubled the equipment, in the plant, all of which was used for production of war materials. It is believed that the plant experienced major changes both in design and growth that altered the original character of the factory.

5. Purport of this application:

The current objective situation of Japan shows an increasing importance of the role played by fabric machine industry in rebuilding her economy, and so your reconsideration is earnestly requested that an early step be taken to exclude this plant from reparations list.

a. The present economic situation of our country is still confronting a serious crisis, and this means a crisis in her fabric industry as well.

Needless to say, revival of this industry is of vital importance for Japan to go on her way to economic recovery. She must devote strenuous efforts to the promotion of international peaceful industry, that is true, but having a lot of natural resources and territory no longer in her possession, she will be unable to do that independently of other nations.

Although considerate aids from foreign countries are highly desirable, yet this presupposes our production of collaterals for export, the most important of which will certainly be fabric goods, if such factors as foreign demand and characteristics of Japanese industry are considered.

From this point of view, it is regarded as a necessity urgent and important to seek a speedy reconstruction and healthy development of Japanese fabric industry, with SCAP's positive aid solicited.

At this point, I beg to express my highest esteem and gratitude for the "Memorandum Regarding Productive Capacity of Cotton Fabrics" issued formally by SCAP on February 7, 1947, and am keenly feeling that we, fabric machine makers, must redouble our efforts for the industry.

b. Despite the abovementioned position to be held by our post-war fabric industry, its recovery is of course not easy due to the neglect and much damage that it suffered during war years.

To bring about a speedy reconstruction of the industry, it is absolutely necessary to accelerate recovery of the most important of manufacturing factories and to vigorously carry out, despite any difficulties, planned production of the highest possible degree under the present circumstances, and this necessarily causes makers of excellent spinning machinery to do their utmost for replenishing equipment in shortage and for manufacturing new machines.

Thus it comes that this plant, which is famous for its production of spinning machines and is regarded as one of the 5 biggest makers in this branch of industry, is expected to play a great role in establishing legal manufacturing facilities.

c. This plant began producing spinning machines in 1921 and boasts of excellent technique and rich experience in turning out various spinning machines including those for cotton, silk-hemp, etc., and as regards the Quick Traverse Winder for cotton in particular, it must be emphatically stated that this plant has long been recognized throughout the country as the only and best maker thereof and that the reputation that the machines have won is so great that it is now a matter of common sense for all cotton-mill operators to install the Quick Traverse Winder for Cotton produced by this plant at their respective mills.
This plant is really a recognized and unsurpassed authority in this field of production.

d. During wartime, main production was switched over at this plant from spinning machines to parts of navy weapons compulsorily by order of the Government, but with the termination of war, this plant lost no time in resuming its pre-war business of manufacturing spinning machinery and has made successful efforts for the last 2 years to contribute its share in reconstructing principal spinning and weaving companies, thereby demonstrating its speedy reconversion as a factory that has suffered no direct war damage.

Attention must further be drawn to the fact that not a single labor dispute has been caused these years by the trade union of this plant. In spite of the aggravated food situation and the drop in actual value of wages resulting from the soaring inflation, the trade union grasps the true significance of democratization and is cognizant of the importance from the national viewpoint of the industry in which they are engaged, thus showing harmonious relations between labor and capital by making combined efforts to attain the production goal with increased willingness to work and fervant enthusiasm.

e. In the meantime, many spinning and weaving companies have placed orders with this plant in succession, with their production plans based on the capacity and technique of this plant, and this plant is kept busy to execute them.

Recently, incooperation with the Osaka Kiko K.K., it has set the the monthly production goal of Ring Spinning Frame at 5,000 to 10,000 spls. and is endeavouring to attain the object with a fresh determination resulting from the imperative mission entrusted to this plant.

If, therefore, this plant is dismantled, it will surely exert far-reaching effects, causing many companies, such as those mentioned above, to encounter a big obstacle in their reconstruction to the possible detriment of collaterel textile goods production.

f. The trade union of this plant is affiliated with the National Federation of Japan Labor Union, which aspires, as generally known, to tide the nation over the current economic crisis by assuming a positive attitude toward the cry for effecting production revival by the hands of workers in general, and with the operation of the union thoroughly demoeratized, all its members are forging ahead toward industrial reconstruction assiduously, though constantly overshasowed by the question of removal of reparations from this plant.

An eager desire they have while uneasily awaiting your definite decision on this question is that is that this plant be struck off the list of reparations-designated factories.

This problem, if left unsettled any longer, would merely create further uneasiness in their mind and exercise unfavorable effects on their intended industrial rehabilitation.

Supposing this plant should be dismantled for payment of reparations, the workers and their families would be thrown into a miserable plight, with no income to live on, and consequently, social unrest would be intensified and other unfavorable effects would also be inevitable, to the detriment of the nation's economic recovery.

For the reasons enumerated above, it is earnestly requested that an early step be taken to exclude the below-mentioned machinery equipment of this plant from the reparations list, with your consideration given, on the one hand, to its characteristics and excellent technique on which is placed a great hope for the reconstruction of our peacetime industry, and on the other, to the unhappy situation in which the workers are placed.
