According to this Memorandum, GS requires lists of nominees for responsible positions in the Public Service which other SCAP Staff Sections are consulted. In case of Attorney-General's Office appointments and those of ESB except key positions, the previous approval of the Staff Sections have become unnecessary.

I wish ask you whether GS. still requires the lists of the nominees concerning whom other staff sections are not consulted, such as those of these two agencies.

Yes!

TOKYO SHIMBUN EDITORIALLY
DENOUNCE "PARLIAMENTARY COUNCILLORS"

(Evening Ed.)

Kyodo

TOKYO, May 19--The Tokyo Shimbun this evening editorially denounced the creation of "Parliamentary Councillors" (approved by the Lower House today) as products of "dirty party politics."

An increase in the cabinet posts, Ministers, Vice Ministers, Parliamentary Vice Ministers and the new Parliamentary Councillors, will be extremely unwise at a time when a large-scale administrative reform and a resultant mass discharge of civil personnel are at hand, the editorial said.

The paper said it could well understand why party politicians were coveting for cabinet posts carrying titles and prerogatives advantageous in elections, particularly in rural areas.

Tokyo Shimbun Ed.--2 (Evening Ed.)

The editorial doubted if the increased number of cabinet-job-holding Diet members would enhance the prestige and power of the legislature over the bureaucracy as put forth by its advocates.

Comment will be superfluous, it said, if the theory advanced by some persons is true that the increase in cabinet posts was considered necessary by Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida as a "bait" for luring otherwise reluctant Diet members into the proposed conservative merger.
