MARINE NEWS.

COMMERCIAL.

FRIDAY EVENING, Feb. 8, 1856.

Our commercial market presents no material change since our last report. The receipts of cotton have been very light, and the demand for all descriptions has been limited, principally for the trade, at prices ranging from 1/8 to 1/4 c. below the rates of last week. The sales of flour and meal have been very dull, and prices have quite improved, and Extra brands have sold at 5 to 10c. higher rates. Pork and Bacon
