EDUCATION.

[illegible] Institute, [illegible] Bienville and Dauphine streets, [illegible] DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL, [illegible] BOYS' DEPARTMENT.

The plan of the above establishment comprises all the branches of a thorough and complete education, the course can, however, be modified, with a view particularly to accommodate individuals, and a special course of commercial studies is therefore devised, in which pupils are admitted according to their acquirements.

M. Jaquin attends personally to Mathematics, or is relied to professors of the highest and chosen reputation, of the Ecole Polytechnique, and of the English, French and Spanish languages are taught by well known and competent Professors, but special attention is bestowed on Mathematics and the English language, on account of their importance.

GIRLS' DEPARTMENT.

A branch of the Institute for young ladies, a class of colleagues with equal advantages with the regular boarders, and chosen for the purpose of giving a home, as it were, to the establishment. That class does not interfere with the others.

The teachers are eminently requested to use their utmost endeavors to impart to pupils those religious sentiments and political principles, the characteristics of well-bred persons and the best guarantee for the future.

Corporal punishments are expressly prohibited in the establishment.

Reading, Penmanship, Catechism, History, Geography, English, French, Spanish, Mathematics, Commercial Studies, Music, Drawing and Needle work.

A lady professor in the establishment takes charge of the girls' classes.

Mr. Jaquin relies for success on the patronage of his friends and the liberal public.

NOTICE.

Mrs DEBOIS having often been applied to for private lessons by Parent Ladies who could not follow the regular course of a French class, on the plan of Messrs. Jaquin and Levi, in Paris, will be opened on the 1st of November next, three times a week, in the establishment, and be divided into a primary and superior course. The pupils of the establishment will, if required, be the first admitted to the class, and will doubtless contribute to the progress of the newcomers by emulating a generous rivalry.

Mothers may attend the course, should they choose to do so. [illegible]

AUDUBON COLLEGE,

Corner Bourgundy and Main streets.

Opening of the Fall Term, on the 1st of November.

The plan of studies comprises the Latin, Greek, Spanish and German Languages, and all the branches of a thorough and complete education, viz: Mathematics, Rhetoric, History, Geography, Book-keeping, Penmanship, &c.

The school of Professors will always correspond to the number of pupils.

Dr. J. M. Duffy, President, is charged with the class of linear drawing applied to buildings, machinery, surveying, with mechanics and perspective, without extra charge for the pupils of College.

TERMS:

Boarders..... $ 20 00 payable in advance, every three months

Jefferson Academy,

83 BOURBON STREET, NEW ORLEANS.

CONDUCTED BY E. LOUIS.

THE plan of the Institution comprises a general and extensive system of education. Pupils are admitted at six or seven years of age, and continue until they are prepared to enter a College, or till they are prepared for their future pursuits in life.

They are distributed into classes according to their talents and acknowledged merit.

The premiums are perhaps the best to be found in the city, with ample space for exercise and recreation, every necessary convenience is combined for administration of learning on a large scale.

The Principal and Professors are of talents, chosen with care. Good order reigns in the establishment, every attention is paid to the moral conduct and improvement of the pupils.
