College Preparatory French Grammar..... 1.25

The most practical Grammar yet published.

Le français par la Conversation ..... 1.00

With this book, the conversation in French is made easy and interesting in the class room, and progress is sure and rapid. A few of the prettiest French songs with music have been given at the end of the book.

Conversation des Enfants..... 0.75

Written especially for American children who do not know any French. The young pupils will be made to converse in French from the beginning, and with every lesson will progress little by little, but surely and constantly and without much effort.

First Lessons in French Conversation, Recitation and Reading, with separate Vocabularies for each reading..... 1.00

As the title indicates, this book contains interesting material for Conversation, for Reading and a few carefully selected pieces of poetry for Recitation, making thus three books in one.

French Verbs in a few lessons..... 0.35

Easy, concise and thorough method for learning the French Verbs, regular and irregular.

Blanks for the Conjugation of French Verbs, about 65 blanks in a tablet Per tablet..... 0.30

These blanks, besides saving more than half the time otherwise necessary in writing verbs, cause more uniformity in the class work, and make it easier for the pupil to understand his work.

PREFACE.

It is hoped this work will be found most practical, especially in the class-room, because of its simple, clear and concise arrangement. It is divided into two parts: 1<sup>o</sup> First Exercises; 2<sup>o</sup> Elementary Grammar.

In the First Part, the beginner becomes acquainted with the essentials of French Grammar and, at the same time, with many of the words and expressions of every-day conversation.

The Second Part is a systematic review of the Grammar presented in such order and arrangement as will materially aid the student in clearly remembering the fundamental rules of the language.

The Exercises in both parts are progressive and will supply practice in French composition quite sufficient for any elementary purpose.

The pupil should not be allowed to pass a lesson until it is thoroughly understood. The memorizing of the principal rules and forms of the language is not enough; what is more important is a conscious knowledge of them, a knowledge only acquired through practice, especially by the oral and written translations of exercises.

PREFACE.

For adults or advanced students beginning French oral translations of many of the Exercises will be sufficient, the most difficult only requiring written translations. In this way the Elementary Grammar will be mastered in a comparatively short time and then, without much difficulty, easy French can be intelligently read.

A General Vocabulary is added for the convenience of the student.

INTRODUCTION.

ALPHABET.

The PRONUNCIATION should be learned from a competent teacher as the sounds can only be approximative in writing.

	NAME.	PRONUNC.		NAME.	PRONUNC.
A	ah	ah	O	o	o
B	bey	be	P	pey	pe
C	sey	se	Q	ku	ke
D	dey	de	R	err	re
E	eh	e	S	ess	se
F	eff	fe	T	tey	te
G	jey	ghe	U	u	u
H	ash	—	V	vey	ve
I	ee	ee	X	ix	kse
J	jee	je	Y	ee grec	ee
K	kah	ke	Z	zed	ze
L	ell	le	W	double v	—
M	emm	me	Œ	oeh	e
N	enn	ne

REMARKS.

1. J is sounded like z in azure, or s in pleasure.
2. U is sounded like the German ü. There is no such sound in English.
3. E in the third column is nearly like e in flattery; ee like ee in see.
4. W is pronounced like v in German words, and like the English w in English words.

PRONUNCIATION.

VOWELS.

The vowels are: a, e, i, o, u, y.

a	o	e	i	u	ou	eu
---	---	---	---	---	----	----

Ordinary sound: papa, dodo, bébé, ici, bu, joujou, heureux.

Open sound: dors, père, —, —, —, —, heure.

Nasal sound: enfant, bonbon, —, vin, brun, —, — oi=oA. Ex.: moi, mois, voici, vois, voyez (y=ii).

oin=o-IN. Ex.: moins, loin, foin, coin, point, soin.

e and es at the end of a word are silent, except in monosyllables.

Ex.: Elle ne me voit pas. Je les vois.

e, at the end of a syllable (not of a word) is nearly pronounced like e in err, but not so open, it is ordinarily silent in conversation and in familiar reading. Ex.: Lever, mon petit ami.

e, not at the end of a syllable, is pronounced like é and sometimes like è. Ex.: Vous aimez à chanter; chercher.

ent, ending the third person plural of a verb, is silent. Ex.: Il est content; ils content; il consent, ils consentent.

The vowel-sounds may be long or short. Ex.: ami, âme; sucre, flûte; louable, goûter; petite amie.

CONSONANTS.

They are generally pronounced as marked in the Alphabet.

Notice the following remarks.

C=C before e, i or y.—Ceci, César, Cyrus, Cicéron.

C=K before other letters.*—Calcul, cœur, clair, crédit.

G=J before e, i or y.—Georges, juger, Gilbert.

G=GH before other letters.—Gorge, gloire, Grégoire.

S=Z between two vowels or in a liaison†—Oiseau, mes amis.

T=C in many words ending in tion, tial, tiel, tieux, tient.

L=Y (y in yet, lawyer) in many words.—La famille, le soleil.

* C=G in second and derivatives : seconder, secondement, etc.

† S=Z by exception in Alsace, Israël, transiger, svelte, balsamique, etc.

CH=SH (sh in she).*—Chat, chercher, chocolat.
 GN=NI (ni in union).†—Compagnon, ignorant, seigneur.
 PH=F.—Le philosophe, le prophète, phosphate, phthisie.
 QU=K (u is silent).‡—Quatre, qui, que, qualité, quelqu'un.
 H is not pronounced. It is called silent in some words and aspirate in others. When aspirate, it prevents the elision as well as the linking of the preceding word.—Ex.: L'homme, les hommes; le hameau, les hameaux. Le hasard seul ne fait pas les héros.

LINKING OF WORDS.

The final consonant of a word is generally sounded with the following word, when the latter begins with a vowel or a silent h, and the sense does not allow any stop between them.

In a liaison, s and x are sounded like z, d like t, f like v.

Vous avez des amis. C'est un grand homme. Vous et moi; vous et elle; lui et elle. (The t of et is always silent.)

ORTHOGRAPHIC SIGNS.

- (↗) Accent aigu, acute accent :—été, vérité, parlé.
- (↖) Accent grave, grave accent :—père, mère, à, où.
- (▲) Accent circonflexe, circumflex :—tête, êtes, dû.
- (‘) Apostrophe, apostrophe :—l'enfant, l'homme.
- (ѓ) Cédille, cedilla :—garçon, traçons, traçant, reçu.
- (◦) Tréma, dieresis :—naïf, haïr, aigu, aiguë.
- (-) Trait d'union, hyphen :—avez-vous, a-t-il, dix-huit.
- ( ) Parenthèse, parenthesis.
- («) Guillemets, inverted commas.

PUNCTUATION.

Point (.), virgule (,), point et virgule (;), deux points (:), point d'interrogation (?), point d'exclamation (!), points de suspensions (.....)

* CH=K in échos, chaos, chœur, choléra, orchestre, chrétien, chr.....; in Michel-Ange and other Italian words.

† GN=GHN in stagnant, ignée, diagnostique, le magnat, inexpugnable, etc.

‡ QU=KOU in aquarelle, équateur, équation, quadrupède, etc.
 QU=KU in équation, équestre, quintuple, etc. (=K in équitable, équivalent, etc.).

All French verbs (in the Infinitive) are ending either in er, ir, oir or re.

They are accordingly divided into four conjugations, the models of which are donner, finir, recevoir, vendre.

The stem of a verb is that part of the verb that precedes er, ir, oir, re.

A verb is called regular when it is conjugated like one of the models.

The conjugations will be given in full in PART II.

---

In French there is no auxiliary like do, did in English. Therefore such expressions as do you speak, did you speak must be changed to speak you, have you spoken : parlez-vous, avez-vous parlé.

The English Past tense, I spoke, I saw, is generally changed to the compound tense : I have spoken, I have seen : j'ai parlé, j'ai vu.

51.

Adverbs are compared the same as adjectives; but adverbs being invariable, the superlative is always le plus, le moins (never la).

Be careful and translate better by mieux, when it is an adverb, i. e., when it modifies a verb.

After adverbs of quantity such as combien, beaucoup, trop, peu, assez, plus, moins, etc., also after nouns of quantity and measure, de is used before the following noun or adjective.

The teacher has many pupils. Le maître a beaucoup d'élèves.

He has much patience. Il a beaucoup de patience.

bien (adverb), well	une paire, a pair
mieux, better	une douzaine, a dozen
le mieux, best	un mètre, a meter
tant, so much, so many	un litre, a liter autant, as much, as many	un bouteille, a bottle
la voix, the voice	un verre, a glass l'appétit, appetite	un morceau, a piece
aimer mieux, to like better	un panier, a basket
préférer, to prefer	une livre, a pound

J'aime mieux ceci que cela. I like this better than that.

The demonstrative pronouns agree in gender and number with the noun for which they stand.

This or that is translated by celui when standing for a masculine noun, and by celle when standing for a feminine noun.

These or those is translated by ceux when standing for a masculine noun, and by celles when standing for a feminine noun.

To mark the difference expressed in English by this and that, we use ci (for ici), here, or là, there, after the noun, or after the pronoun celui, celle.

When celui, celle are followed by qui, que, dont, or by de, à, we do not use ci, là.

This or that house.                    Cette maison-ci ou cette maison-là.

This garden or that one.              Ce jardin-ci ou celui-là.

Which books, these or those? Quels livres, ceux-ci ou ceux-là.

Those which are on the table. Ceux qui sont sur la table.

The one followed by which, who, whom or by of, from is translated by celui, celle. Notice that one is not translated after any adjective or pronoun.

PART II.

---

ARTICLE.

	SINGULAR.		PLURAL.
	Masc.	Fem.	Masc.	Fem.
INDEFINITE ARTICLE A, an	= un ,	une ,
DEFINITE ARTICLE The	= le ,	la ,		les .
PARTITIVE ARTICLE Some any	= du ,	de la ,		des .

ELISION.

Before a vowel or silent h use l' for le, la, and de l' for du, de la.

- REMARKS.—1. The article must be repeated before each noun.
2. When the article is understood before a noun in English, it must be expressed in French.

EXAMPLES.

A boy, a girl, a child.	Un garçon, une fille, un enfant.
The boy, the girl, the child.	Le garçon, la fille, l'enfant.
The boys, the girls, the children.	Les garçons, les filles, les enfants.
Some wine, beer and water.	Du vin, de la bière et de l'eau.
Iron is useful.	Le fer est utile.

EXERCISES.

Dieu a créé le ciel et la terre, le soleil, la lune et les étoiles. Le soleil nous éclaire pendant le jour, et la lune paraît pendant la nuit. Voyez-vous des étoiles maintenant? Non, pas maintenant; on voit les étoiles le soir. L'étoile polaire est très brillante. Qu'est-ce que vous voyez sur la table? Je vois un crayon, une plume, de l'encre, des livres et du papier. L'or est précieux, mais le fer est plus utile que l'or.

- What do you see on the table? I see a book and a copy-book, pencils and pens, paper and ink.
- Where is the watch? It is on the table, near the inkstand.
- Have you a good watch? Yes, Madam, I have a good one.
- Where is it? It is in my pocket.
- What did you eat this morning? I ate bread and butter and I drunk milk.
- What did your father drink? My father drank water and coffee.
- The sun lightens us during the day, and the moon during the night.
- Who has created heaven and earth? It is God.
- God has created everything: heaven and earth, the sun, the moon and the stars.
- Gold is a precious metal; iron is very useful.
- I like books very much, but I do not read all books.

EXCEPTIONS.

1. Some, any=de after a negative or before an adjective.
2. Some, any=en when the noun taken in a partitive sense is understood.
3. No Partitive article is used after a verb, adjective or expression followed by de.

REMARK.—After adverbs of quantity, de must be used before the following noun.

EXAMPLES.

I have friends; he has no friends.	J'ai des amis; il n'a pas d'amis.
Here are fine peaches.	Voici de belles pêches.
Do you wish any?	En désirez-vous?
I need patience.	J'ai besoin de patience.
You have much patience.	Vous avez beaucoup de patience.

EXERCISES.

Les quatre éléments sont l'air, la terre, l'eau et le feu. L'aimant attire le fer. Mon oncle a des mines de fer; il n'a pas de mine d'or. Lorsque vous avez beaucoup d'argent, vous avez aussi beaucoup d'amis. Si vous aviez beaucoup d'argent, vous auriez plus de plaisir. Combien de fenêtres y a-t-il dans cette chambre? Il y a quatre fenêtres; il y a assez d'air et de lumière. J'ai de l'air et de la lumière autant que j'en désire. De quoi parlez-vous? Nous parlons d'air et de lumière.

1. Have you enough air and light in this room? Yes, there are enough windows, and the windows are large enough.

PERSONAL PRONOUNS.

Disjunctive Pronouns.

moi, I, me	nous, we, us
toi, thou, thee	vous, you, you
lui, he, him	eux, they, them
elle, she, her	elles, they them
	soi, one self

Pronouns are called disjunctive when used alone or after a preposition. They are called conjunctive when used with the verb without any preposition.

Myself, thyself, etc., are rendered by moi-même, toi-même, lui-même, elle-même, nous-mêmes, vous-même (s), eux-mêmes, elles-mêmes.

EXAMPLES.

This is for me; that is for you.	Ceci est pour moi; cela est pour vous.
Who did that? I did.	Qui a fait cela? Moi (or c'est moi).
I did that myself.	J'ai fait cela moi-même.
You study; he plays always.	Vous, v. étudiez; lui, il joue toujours.
Everybody thinks of himself.	Chacun pense à soi.

EXERCISES.

Qui a dit cela? C'est moi, c'est toi, c'est lui, c'est elle; c'est nous, c'est vous, ce sont eux, ce sont elles. C'est mon frère et mes sœurs; ce sont mes sœurs et mon frère. Est-ce vous? Non, ce n'est pas moi. Est-ce lui? Non, ce n'est pas lui. N'est-ce pas elle? Ce n'est pas elle, c'est sa sœur. Qui sont ces dames? Ce sont nos voisines; nous allons au concert avec elles. Chacun pour soi et Dieu pour tous; c'est le proverbe de l'égoïste. Le prince nous a écrit lui-même.

1. With him or without him; for him or against him.
2. Before me or after me; near you or far from you.
3. At my house (chez moi), at his house, at her house; at our house, at your house, at their house.
4. I am going home, he is going home, she is going home; are you going home?
5. I am not at home after five o'clock; are you at home at half past seven?
6. With you I always succeed, without you I shall not succeed.
7. According to him, you are wrong; according to her, you are right.
8. As to me I think you will succeed in spite of her.

CONJUNCTIVE PRONOUNS.

Subject.

Object.

- 1.—Me, me, to me; te, thee, to thee; nous, us, to us; vous, you, to you; se, himself, herself, themselves, to himself, to herself, to themselves, one's self.
- 2.—Le, him; la, her; les, them.
- 3.—Lui, to him, to her; leur, to them.
- 4.—Y, to it, to that, there.
- 5.—En, of or from it, of or from that, of or from them, from there, some.

PLACE OF CONJUNCTIVE PRONOUNS.

Subject-pronouns are placed before or after the verb as in English.

Object-pronouns are placed immediately before the verb, except in the affirmative Imperative, when they are placed after the verb; then moi, toi are used instead of me, te.

Ne is placed immediately before the object pronouns.

EXAMPLES.

You can; can you? Do you see? V. pouvez; pouvez-vous? Voyez-v.?
You see me; I do not see you. Vous me voyez; je ne vous vois pas.
Do you not see them? Ne les voyez-vous pas?
Did you not see them? Ne les avez-vous pas vus?
Speak to me; do not speak to me. Parlez-moi; ne me parlez pas.

EXERCISE.

1. You are; you are not; are you? 2. Are you not? Can you? Can you not? You cannot. 3. You see me; you speak to me; do you see me? Do you speak to me? 4. He sees him, he sees her, he sees them; he does not see him, he sees her, he does not see them. 5. Do you see him? Do you see her? Do you see them? Does he not see him? 6. He speaks to him; he speaks to her; he speaks to them; does he speak to them? 7. Does he not speak to them? Why did he not speak to them? 8. Why did she not send us her photograph? 9. Because you did not yet send yours to her. 10. Write to her right away and tell her that I am going to send her mine next week.

ORDER OF OBJECT-PRONOUNS.

When a verb has two or three object-pronouns, they are placed before the verb in the following order:

1.	2.	3.	4.	5.
me	le	lui	y	en
te	la	leur
se	les
nous
vous

But, in the affirmative Imperative, le, la, les come first (after the verb).

REMARK.—On account of euphony, y-moi is used instead of moi-y, and m'en instead of moi-en.

EXAMPLES.

I will send you these books to B. Je vous enverrai ces livres à B.

I will send them to you there. Je vous les y enverrai.

Send them to me soon. Envoyez-les-moi bientôt.

Do not send them to him. Ne les lui envoyez pas.

Will you send them to me there? Voulez-vous me les y envoyer?

EXERCISES.

Lui et moi, nous sommes amis; je pensais que vous le saviez. Je vous en prie, ne parlez pas mal de lui. Il viendra nous voir; je le sais, il me l'a dit. Si les enfants désirent aller au parc, menez-les-y; mais s'ils sont fatigués, ne les y menez pas. J'ai une bonne affaire; je vais vous la proposer; si vous y consentez, vous gagnerez beaucoup. Si vous avez de bon vin, envoyez-m'en une douzaine de bouteilles.

1. Will you please show me the way? Come with me. I will show it to you.
2. I have lent him some money; he did not yet give it back to me.
3. If you see him, speak of me to him. I will speak of you to him.
4. Your dog pleases (to) her, will you sell it to her? I do not sell it to anybody.
5. He does not like beer; do not offer any to him.
6. His father is sick; did she write it to you? We expect a letter from him.
7. As soon as you have news, send some to me right away.
8. There are beautiful flowers in your garden; give me some.

Il est, or c'est.

When the pronoun it stands for a noun, it must be turned by he or she and be translated accordingly, as there is no neuter in French. But when it stands for a proposition or can be turned by that, it is translated by ce.

He is, she is or it is=il est, elle est before an adjective (or a noun used adjectively).

He is, she is or it is=c'est before a noun or a pronoun. (The noun is sometimes preceded by an adjective, or sometimes is understood.)

It is=il est when used as an impersonal verb.

REMARK.—Ce sont, they are, it is is used only when directly followed by a plural noun or a pronoun of the third person plural.

EXAMPLES.

Here is a rose, IT is beautiful.	Voici une rose; elle est belle.
IT is a beautiful rose.	C'est une belle rose.
IT is sure you will lose.	Il est certain que vous perdrez.
You will lose, IT is sure.	Vous perdrez, c'est certain.
SHE is sick; SHE is the patient.	Elle est malade; c'est LA malade.
He is a doctor.	Il est docteur; c'est UN docteur.
Who is it? It is I; it is Mary.	Qui est-ce? C'est moi; c'est Marie.

EXERCISES.

Cet oiseau est joli et il chante très bien. Cette rose est très belle et elle sent très bon. Il faut étudier; il faut savoir écouter; il est bon de savoir se taire à propos. Il est temps d'aller chez nous. Il est certain que votre frère réussira; votre frère réussira, c'est certain. Qui sont ces dames? Ce sont nos amies. C'est ma cousine et ses voisines.

1. He is studious; she is studious; they are studious. 2. He is a studious boy; she is a good girl; they are good children.
3. Who is there? It is I; it is Mary; it is your brother and your sister. 4. Who are these boys? They are my cousins.
5. They are my best friends. They are older than I. 6. I am thirteen years old and they are fourteen. 7. My uncle lives in Paris; he is a doctor; he is rich. 8. Who is that gentleman? * The verb-ending for the third person singular is t; but when the last letter of the stem is t or d, the verb-ending t is left out.

Remarks on the Conjugation.

1. In the interrogative conjugation, when the third person of a verb ends with a vowel, a euphonic t is placed between the verb and the pronoun il, elle, or on.

Ai-je? a-t-il? parle-t-elle? parlera-t-il?

2. When in a question the subject is a noun, that noun is generally placed first; then comes the verb followed by the pronoun il or elle representing the noun.

Is your father at home? Votre père est-il chez lui?

3. The interrogative form est-ce que is of frequent use in conversation. It is the only form used in the first person singular, when the regular form would be contrary to euphony.

Est-ce que je parle? or Parlé-je?

Est-ce que je finis? Est-ce que je vends?

Est-ce que votre père est chez lui?

4. In French we have no progressive form such as I am speaking, nor any emphatic form such as I do speak.

I speak, I am speaking, I do speak.      —Je parle.

Are you speaking? Do you speak?      —Parlez-vous?

Will you? Are you willing? Do you want? —Voulez-vous?

5. The Perfect Tense, such as I spoke, is seldom used in French Conversation. We use the compound tense.

I have spoken. J'ai parlé.

ORTHOGRAPHIC CHANGES IN THE LAST SYLLABLE OF THE STEM.

Before a, o.

Verbs in cer take a cedilla under the c (ç) before a or o.

Verbs in ger take an e after the g before a or o.

Tracer, je trace, nous traçons, je traçais, je traçai.

Manger, je mange, nous mangeons, je mangeais.

Before e mute.

1.—E (unaccented) in the last syllable of the stem takes a grave accent.

Lever, je lève, il lève, vous levez, ils lèvent; je lèverai.

In the verbs in eler, eter, some take a grave accent, the others double l or t. The principal ones are given below.

Appeler, j'appelle; jeter, je jette; acheter, j'achète.

2.—É in the last syllable of the stem is changed to è, except in the Future and Conditional. But in verbs in éer, the é does not change.

Céder, je cède, il cède, ils cèdent, que je cède; je céderai.

Créer, je crée, il crée. Agréer, j'agrée, il agrée.

3.—Y is changed to i before a silent e. But in verbs in ayer, the y generally remains unchanged.

Envoyer, j'envoie, il envoie. Nettoyer, il nettoie, il nettoiera.

Conjugate a few of the following verbs.

annoncer	obliger	préférer	acheter (↖)	effrayer
avancer	soulager	célébrer	racheter (↖)	essayer
placer	juger	mener	jetter (tt)	nettoyer

arranger	céder	régner	étinceler (ll)	quereller
engager	compléter	achever	renouveler (ll)	regretter

Write Exercise 7 on page 175.

DIFFERENT SORTS OF VERBS.

AUXILIARY.—Avoir and être are called auxiliary only when they are helping to form a compound tense.

J'ai parlé, j'ai eu, j'ai été, j'ai vu, je suis arrivé.

ACTIVE.—A verb is active or transitive when it has a direct object, expressed or understood.

J'aime mes parents. Servez ce monsieur; servez.

NEUTER.—A verb is neuter or intransitive when it has no direct object.

Je sors ce soir; je vais au concert. Un crayon sert à écrire.

The following neuter verbs always take être in the compound tenses:

aller, to go	arriver, to arrive	naître, to be born
venir, to come	entrer, to enter	éclore, to hatch revenir, to come back	sortir, to go out	mourir, to die
devenir, to become	partir, to leave	décéder, to die
parvenir, to succeed	tomber, to fall	etc., etc.

Je suis allé, il est arrivé, elle est arrivée, elle est venue.

PASSIVE.—A passive verb is simply the verb être conjugated with the Past Participle of a transitive verb.

The Past Participle, when conjugated with être, agrees in gender and number with the noun or pronoun to which it refers.

Il est aimé, elle est aimée, elle a été aimée.

PRONOMINAL.—A verb is pronominal or reflexive when conjugated with je me—, tu te—, il se— or elle se—, nous nous—, vous vous—, ils se— or elles se—.

In the compound tenses, the auxiliary être, (not avoir) is used; and the Past Participle agrees in gender and number with me, te, se, nous, vous, when these pronouns are direct object of the verb.

Je me flatte, tu te flattes. Il s'est flatté, elle s'est flattée.

IMPERSONAL.—A verb is impersonal when it is used only in the third person singular, and the pronoun il, it, does not refer to anything expressed before.

Il pleut, il neige; il est inutile de courir.

IRREGULAR VERBS IN IR, OIR, RE.

The FORMATION OF TENSES is very easy and ought to be learned thoroughly before going any further. If this is neglected, the irregular verbs will be found difficult, while in reality they require only a few lessons.

It has been found of great advantage to have the irregular verbs conjugated in the order of their Principal Parts, as every tense is then placed under the Principal Part from which it is formed.* For example see lire on next page.

If the Principal Parts of a verb (four words only) are known, that verb can be conjugated without a single mistake; because the endings are always the same, and the Principal Parts show what changes, if any, occur in the stem, as:

Lire, 1. je lis, 2. n. lisons ; 3. je lis, 4. lu.

Vêtir, 1. je vêts, 2. n. vêtons ; 3. je vêtis, 4. vêtu

PAST ANTERIOR	j'eus	"	PAST INFINIT.	avoir	"
FUTURE ANTERIOR	j'aurai	"	PRESENT PART.	ayant	"
CONDITIONAL PAST	j'aurais	"

The verb itself (Infinitive) is the stem of the Future and Conditional.
Part 1 shows the stem for the singular of the Present Indicative.
Part 2 shows the stem for the plural of the Present and Imperfect Indicative, and also for the Present Subjunctive and Present Participle.
The persons of the Imperative are the same as in the Present Indicative.
Part 3 shows the stem and the ending (either is or us) of the Preterite.
The stem of the Imperfect Subjunctive is the Preterite itself with double ss.
Part 4 is the Past Participle which forms the compound tenses with avoir or être.

* Qu'il lut. The circumflex accent takes the place of the two ss.

SUBJUNCTIVE.

The Subjunctive mood is used only in subordinate clauses; it expresses something with an idea of uncertainty or doubt.

1. CONJUNCTIONS REQUIRING THE SUBJUNCTIVE.

afin que,	in order that	de crainte que—ne, for fear—lest
pour que,	in order that	à moins que, unless quoique,	though	que, used for si, if
bien que,	though	quelque... que, however
avant que,	before	quel que, whatever, whoever
sans que,	without	qui que, whoever
soit que,	whether	quoi que, whatever

CONJUNCTIONS REQUIRING THE INDICATIVE OR SUBJUNCTIVE.
according to their expressing certainty or doubt.

de manière que,	so that	selon que,	according as
de façon que,	so that	jusqu'à ce que,	until, till
de sorte que,	so that	à condition que,	with the c. that

REMARK.—It is better to use the Infinitive when it can be done without changing the meaning.

Etudiez bien afin que vous sachiez (or afin de savoir) votre leçon.

2. VERBS REQUIRING THE SUBJUNCTIVE.

A verb expressing will or desire, or emotion (joy, sorrow, fear, astonishment, etc.) and followed by que, always requires the following verb in the Subjunctive.

vouloir que,	to will, to want	être content que, to be pleased that
exiger que,	to demand	se réjouir que, to rejoice that défendre que,	to forbid	être fâché que, to be sorry that permettre que,	to permit	regretter que, to regret...
désirer que,	to desire	craindre que—ne, to fear
préférer que,	to prefer	être surpris que, to be surprised

A verb expressing thought or speech, and followed by que, requires the Subjunctive only when negative or interrogative and to imply some doubt.

dire que,	to say that...	penser que,	to think that...
assurer que,	to assure that...	croire que,	to believe that...
affirmer que,	to affirm that...	espérer que,	to hope that... déclarer que,	to declare that...	s'imaginer que,	to imagine that...
prétendre que,	to claim that...	supposer que,	to suppose that...

An IMPERSONAL verb followed by que always requires the Subjunctive, except when expressing certainty or probability.

Subjunctive.

il faut que, it is necessary that il est possible que, it is possible that il vaut mieux que, it is better that est-il vrai que, is it true that

Indicative.

il est certain que, it is certain that il est évident que, it is evident that il est clair que, it is clear that il est vrai que, it is true that

3. SUBJUNCTIVE AFTER A RELATIVE PRONOUN.

The Subjunctive is used in relative sentences beginning with qui, que, dont, lequel, où, when qui, que, etc. refer to a superlative or to le seul, l'unique, le premier, le dernier, or to a negative word like personne, aucun, pas un, nul, etc.

But when the superlative or negative expression is followed by de, or when that relative sentence is only explanatory, the Indicative is used.

EXAMPLES.

Doubt=Subjunctive.

- Écrivez de manière qu'on puisse vous lire.
- Il n'est pas probable qu'il vienne.
Je me réjouis que vous soyiez venu.
Je désire, je veux qu'il vienne.
Croyez-vous que cela soit vrai?
(I rather doubt it.)
- Je cherche une maison qui me plaise.
C'est la plus belle ville que je connaisse.

Certainty=Indicative.

- Vous avez écrit de manière qu'on peut vous lire.
Il est probable qu'il viendra.
J'espère que vous viendrez souvent.
Je pense, je crois qu'il viendra.
Croyez-vous que cela est vrai?
(I rather think so.)
- J'ai trouvé une maison qui me plaira.
C'est la plus belle des villes que je connais.

USE OF THE TENSES OF THE SUBJUNCTIVE.

After the Present and the Future, sometimes after the Past Indefinite, use the Present Subjunctive, simple or compound as the case may be.

After other tenses, use the Imperfect Subjunctive, simple or compound as the case may be.

EXAMPLES.

Je doute, je douterais que vous le fassiez, que vous l'ayez fait.
Je doutais, je doutai, je douterais que vous le fissiez.
Je doutais, je doutai, je douterais que vous l'eussiez fait.

Write Exercises 15 and 16, page 180.

PAST PARTICIPLES.

WHEN THE PAST PARTICIPLE IS USED:

1. With être, or alone, it is variable, and agrees like an adjective.

2. With avoir, it is variable only when its direct object precedes; then it agrees in gender and number with that direct object.

REMARKS.—1. In reflexive verbs, être is used instead of avoir, and the Past Participle is variable only when its direct object precedes.

2. In impersonal verbs, the Past Participle is invariable.

EXAMPLES.

Explain why the Past Participle is variable or invariable.

Il est venu , elle est venue .	He has come, she has come.
Elle est tombée , épuisée.	She has fallen down, exhausted.

REMARKS*on a few adverbs, prepositions and conjunctions.

Oui, si=yes.—In answering a question containing a negative, use si instead of oui.

Avez-vous fini?—Oui, j'ai fini.

N'avez-vous pas encore fini?—Si, j'ai fini; or mais oui.

Plus tôt=sooner.    Plutôt=rather.

Plus davantage=more.—Davantage cannot be used with an object; it is generally placed at the end of a clause.

Il a plus de patience que moi.

Vous étudiez bien; il étudie davantage.

En, in, is the only preposition after which the Present Participle can be used.—No article is used after en.

Dans, in, inside, marks the location more definitely than en.

Dans mon pupitre. — Je suis tombé en courant.

In or to=à with names of cities, towns.

In or to=en with names of countries, provinces, etc.

Je vais à Paris; je suis à Paris.

Je vais en France; je suis en France.

Most names of countries are feminine. If the name of a country is masculine, or plural, or is modified by an adjective, in or to are translated by à or dans with the article.

En Amérique; dans l'Amérique du Nord; aux États-Unis.

Quand=when.    Quant à=as to, as for.

Quand, when, may be used for questions as well as for answers, while lorsque, when, is used only for answers.

Quand viendrez-vous?    Quand (or lorsque) j'aurai fini.

Que, that, is often understood in English, but must be expressed in French.

I think he will come.    Je pense qu'il viendra.

Assez, enough, is also used for rather. It is placed before the adjective, not after it.

This room is large enough.    Cette chambre est assez grande.
She is rather pretty.                  Elle est assez jolie.

I shall stop a few days in Havre, in Rouen and Paris. At what time the train for Paris? Apply to the ticket-office (guichet). Is there any second class? No, it is an express-train. One first class, Paris. Have your baggage checked quickly. You are allowed 30 kilog. (Vous avez droit à 30 kilog.) Ten centimes for the baggage-ticket (bulletin), please. Walk (entrez) in the waiting-room. Travellers for Paris, all aboard (en voiture!). Try to get a corner place. Make haste, the signal is given. Adieu; bon voyage.

At last, here I am in Paris. Quick, a carriage, a cab. By the course, 1 fr. 50 centimes. By the hour, two francs. Driver, to the Grand-Hôtel. How much? Two francs. Do not forget the gratuity (pourboire). To-day I rest, and to-morrow I shall go out. Sir, Rivoli street, if you please. Fourth on your right. Thanks. Attention! Take care! You will get run over (écrasé). Paris has 70,000 houses, and more than two millions inhabitants; eighty public places, twenty-seven bridges which join the two banks of the Seine. You will admire the churches; the palaces, the buildings, the monuments, the promenades, the streets and the boulevards. You can rent for one month an apartment or a room. A student would rather take a furnished room for 50 or 60 francs a month, on the fourth or fifth story. He takes his meals in the restaurant. Breakfast from 1.50 to 3 francs; dinner from 2.50 to 5 francs, with wine. In the Grand-Hôtel, breakfast, 5 francs; dinner with concert, 8 francs; rooms from 5 francs to 40 francs a day. Service and light extra.

“VETERAN.”

Initiatory French Readings. Many objections have been raised to the numerous First French Readers, especially those containing little material really French or silly stories despised by bright children, and so on. Due to demands for a book containing material that would rouse the interest of the student by telling in simple yet attractive manner things that would hold attention, this volume was prepared.

In the first part, viz., the picturesque facts of OUR COUNTRY, the child's groping after an elusive sense is doffed away with, and, encouraged by understanding easily, he is sure to retain, with little trouble, words and phrases with the sense of which he is already familiar.

The second part, viz., THE DISCOVERY OF FRANCE by some young American travellers, is doubly valuable, as it contains training in the language with pleasurable instruction in the subject itself. Interest will not flag and the reading may be as rapid as desired. 12mo, cloth, 155 pages.....75c.

FOR TRANSLATING ENGLISH INTO FRENCH.

Short Selections for Translating English into French, including a few examination papers. Arranged progressively, with explanatory and grammatical notes. 12mo, cloth 137 pages.....75c.

HENNEQUIN, ALFRED, (PH.D.)

A Woman of Sense and A Hair-Powder Plot. Two English plays intended for translating Colloquial English into French, with grammatical, idiomatic and dramatic notes. By Alfred Hennequin, Ph.D., of the New England College of Languages. 12mo, flexible cloth .....40c.

PROGRESSIVE FRENCH DRILL.

- Preliminary French Drill., by a Veteran, 12mo, Cloth, 68 pages .... 50c.
Drill Book.—A.—This book gives the pupils the power to speak from the start, and as it embodies systematically the main principles of the language, it will easily accomplish all the work a grammar is supposed to do—and much more. The vocabulary (English and French) will be found to be quite extensive, and contains most of the words in common use. 12mo, 118 pp., cloth ..... 75c.
B.—"The purpose of this book is to facilitate the mastery of the irregular verbs in all their tenses. The 'drill' is conducted by questions on everyday topics, which are to be answered in French. It is the outgrowth of practical experience in attempts to combine sound grammatical knowledge with actual living conversation, and it is admirably fitted to accomplish this result. —Boston Transcript. 12mo, 82 pp., cloth..... 50c.

PRONUNCIATION.

- French Pronunciation, Rules and Practice for the Use of Americans., 12mo, bds., 50 pages..... 50c.
 This short treatise offered to the students, is constructed above all on the lines of practical use.
 The book may be most advantageously used in connection with the earliest lessons in the language. Yet it is of permanent value to any student, as therein is found an answer to all questions that are usually asked on the subject of pronunciation.
Gender of French Nouns at a Glance. Small Cards 3 x 5 inches... 10c.
 This card, showing at a glance the gender of most of the French Nouns, will prove very valuable to the students when writing, as it will save them trouble and much time lost in looking up in the dictionary.

VERBS.

- French Verbs at a Glance, by Mariot de Beauvoisin. The readiest, simplest, most practical and cheapest treatise on the French verbs, their grammatical construction, regular and idiomatic usage and conjugations. Exceedingly valuable in mastering the difficulties besetting students in French, in regard to the forms and conjugations of the verb. Fifty thousand have been sold in England. 8vo, 61 pages..... 35c.
French Verbs, by Chas. P. DuCroquet. Concise, clear and thorough treatise for learning all French verbs in a few lessons. Cloth, 47 pages..... 35c.
French Verbs. By Professor Schele de Vere, of the University of Virginia. Concise, clear and thorough treatise for learning all French verbs. Cloth, 201 pages ..... $1.00
Blanks for the Conjugation of French Verbs, by Chas. P. DuCroquet. Put up in tablets..... 30c.
 These blanks save more than half the time otherwise necessary in writing or in correcting verbs. They ensure uniformity in the class work and give the learner a clearer understanding of what he is doing.
Drill Book.—B.—"The purpose of this book is to facilitate the mastery of the irregular verbs in all their tenses. The 'Drill' is conducted by questions on everyday topics, which are to be answered in French. It is the outgrowth of practical experience in attempts to combine sound grammatical knowledge with actual living conversation, and it is admirably fitted to accomplish this result.—Boston Transcript. 12mo, cloth, 82 pages .... 50c.

- Le Verbe en Quatre Tableaux Synoptiques. By Prof. K. Marion. Sixth Edition. Price ..... 25c.

This little book, which has already had six editions, and which has been recommended by the Board of Public Instructions of Quebec for use in the public schools of Canada, is highly spoken of by all the French teachers who have used it in their classes. It has the advantage of doing away with the "parrot like" study of the verb and compels the student to think while reciting or conjugating French verbs by presenting the whole system of French verbs in a condensed and comprehensive form by means of tableaux. It is based on the rules of the "Formation of Tenses," which are illustrated by a colored diagram showing the derivation of tenses from the principal parts. All the irregularities to these rules are printed in heavy type so as to strike the eye of the student. The difficulties of the study of French verbs are reduced to a minimum, thus making a saving of one half the time usually devoted to this important study. It is invaluable to teachers and can be used with any French grammar or text book.

GERMAN.

- Kleine Anfänge, Ein buch für kleine Leute. by Fraulein Albertine Kase, of Teachers' College, New York. 8vo, boards, 133 pages, many illustrations ..... 75c.

It is a book for teaching German to little children, and is entirely different from any before published, either at home or abroad. It is not dull, difficult, and so uninteresting as many books now in use. Send for a copy for examination. It will speak for itself.

- Des Kindes Erstes Buch, by Wilhelm Rippe. 12mo. boards, 100 pp..40c.
Since the publication of the very successful first French book "Livre des Enfants," many demands have been received by the publisher for a work of similar character in German. This method is divided into forty lessons, each consisting of a short vocabulary, and appropriate illustration, a reading lesson, and a few sentences to be memorized; and as appendix are given a few simple rhymes suitable for the nursery.

- Der Praktische Deutsche, by U. Jos. Beiley. 12mo. Cloth, 222 pp..$1.00
"Der Praktische Deutsche" is arranged after the plan of Paul Bercy's "Le Français Pratique" but it is by no means a translation of that book. The aim has been to provide the material necessary to enable the learner to converse with Germans in their own language, and to arrange it in such an order that the study will be pleasurable as well as profitable. A vocabulary is at the end of the volume.

- Das Deutsche Litteratur Spiel, by F. S. Zoller ..... 75c.
A German game of authors. The plan is very similar to that of the well-known English game of authors. It consists of 100 cards arranged in sets of four, each set giving the name of an author and three of his or her best known works. It may be played by any number of persons and will be found an excellent recreation for schools and for evening companies.
