URMSG May Z 14369. Subj is Customs Valuation of Imports from Japan URMSG Z 14369 was fwdd to Bureau of Customs for consideration on 15 May 51. Fol reply was rec from Bureau of Customs on 22 May:

"Ref is made to Cable Nbr Z 14369 from SCAP, Tokyo, Japan, of May 14, 1951, in regard to proposed amendments of the Japanese Commodity Tax Law. Information is requested as to the effect of these proposed changes in the law in connection customs valuation of imports from Japan under the Provisions of Sect 402, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended.

"The substance of the proposed amendments is as follows:

(A) The commodity tax is redefined as a tax on consumers.
(B) Consumers are defined as individuals who buy commodities for purposes other than sale or resale or for processing.
(C) The tax is billed separately on all invoices.
(D) The tax is based on the manufacturers charge (1st distribution stage).
(E) The tax is advanced by the manufacturer.

"The cable contains quotations of the proposed amendments to the Japanese Commodity Tax Law.

"In view of the nature of the tax as explained in the foregoing, such tax would not form a part of 'foreign' value as defined in Sect 402 (C), Tariff Act of 1930, as amended.

"It is understood that the Japanese Commodity Tax Law has no application to goods which are exported from Japan and, therefore, need not be considered in connection with 'export' value as defined in Sect 402 (D), Tariff Act of 1930, as amended." Ref Tokyo UP Dispatch, 12 May, titled, "Occupation Forces in Japan to Lose Free Services", which appeared in the European Stars and Stripes on 13 May. Article indicated that FEC has announced "that free employment of Japanese in non military work by the occupation forces will end in July."

EUCOM Hq is presently engaged in discussions with the Office of the US High Commissioner for Germany proposed "contractual relations" with the Ger Fed Republic to develop a US position on many matters including categories of expenditures to be continued at the cost of occupation (Defense Expenditures), prior to discussion with either the British or French.

Would appreciate if you could furnish EUCOM more detailed info on the instrs you have issued or contemplate issuing, particularly with ref to continued Japanese support of the foll: Recreation centers or hotels; indigenous employees of troop messes; such as kitchen police; off, EM and civ clubs and messes; quarters attendants (maintenance maids); firemen and gardeners for quarters; gasoline filling sta attendants; dependents schools; spec svc activities, such as svc clubs, athletics, libraries, recreation facilities; Troop Info and Educ; Armed Forces Network; rent, utilities and maintenance pers for Post Exchanges; concessional rates for private telephone service and for non duty rail travel; etc.

Does FEC contemplate spending US dollars appropriated for its share of contribution at the official rate of exchange or if not what other arrangement will be utilized? What is the relationship between the dollar-yen official rate and going market rate?

WNFES 1459 Apr 19.

Dept of Justice has reported conversations held recently by reps in Tokyo with FINMIN Ikeda and others on revalidation of certain Jap dollar bonds held by OAP and enterprises in US in which OAP has acquired interests, and which were converted to yen obligations. They have advised that the MINFIN with concurrence FONMIN and Jap attorney general is prepared to request cabinet approval and submission to Diet of bill which wld authorize revalidation of certain categories of fon currency bonds as designated by MINFIN, and that Japs indicated informally ltr from US Attorney General wld be helpful.

Request instead you inform Yoshida and Ikeda US Govt considers that voluntary and expeditious action by Jap Govt to revalidate certain categories fon currency bonds which were converted to yen obligations would reflect favorably on Jap credit and assist in removing obstacles to the resumption of Jap econ activity abroad. In gen those categories would include bonds owned or held in pledge by UN natural persons, by UN juridicial entities, and by UN branches of Jap juridical entities.

You shld add that, except for bonds owned by UN natural persons, where the conversion was presumably an unintentional impairment of their rights, foregoing representation is based upon protection of interests of UN creditors of institutions in question, and that while Attorney Gen under US law is required take all proper steps to realize assets seized by him there has been no gen decision of US policy with respect to prosecution of claims against Jap debtors and claims to property in Jap arising out of vesting of assets located in US.

This new arrangement, if approved by Congress, will mean that about half of those occupation force maintenance costs which are now defrayed by the Japanese Government out of the "termination of war" (TOW) budget will, in United States military appropriations. These maintenance costs include such categories as renewal of buildings inland transportation of freight, port charges, local labor, maintenance of real estate, utilities, coal, communications, and certain other services. The United States would of course continue to pay those costs which it has always paid in occupied areas such as the pay of troops, equipment, material, hospital expenses, etc.

Para 1. Following statement made by the United States Representative at the 214th Meeting of the Far Eastern Commission on 12 April 51 is transmitted for your info:

I desire to inform the other representatives and to enter the fact in the record that the President of the United States had replaced General Douglas MacArthur as Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers and has designated Lt General Matthew Bunker Ridgway as his successor as Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers. As the President indicated in his statement of April 11; 'General MacArthur's place in history as one of our greatest military commanders is fully established. The Nation owes him a debt of gratitude for the distinguished and exceptional service which he has rendered his country in posts of great responsibility.'

"The opinion of the United States Government General MacArthur has discharged the extremely important and difficult responsibilities of his position in a way effectively to further the Allied Objectives in Japan. We shall always remember with gratitude the amazing rapidity with which Japan under the leadership of General MacArthur laid down its arms and turned to ways of peaceful cooperation."

1. Re Para 2 C. In order for offs outside zones of consideration estabd in Para 2 A to qualify for promotion they must meet the min time-in-grade rqmts stated in Para 2 C. Time-in-grade includes AD service, service in the active res of the ORC, and service in the NGUS; and must be completed prior to 1 Jul 51. It should be noted that pds of time-in-grade as reflected by the dates of rank in Para 2 A which determine eligibility are greater than or equal to the min time in grade indicated in Para 2 C.

2. Re Para 3. It is intended that recommendations be submitted only for outstanding offs in connection with Para 2 B and for offs considered particularly well qualified for higher grade who failed of selection for temporary promotion during the fall of 1950. Recommendations are not required for offs eligible for consideration under zones announced in Para 2 A, however, submission of recommendations for these offs is not prohibited. Corn for grain 1,353,106, wheat 217,261, oats 559,676, barley 88,869, rye 4,237 and soybeans 46,114, condition rye and pasture 83 and 80 respectively.

Milk production Jan Mar indlusive 27,177 million pounds eggs, 16,564 million.

Cool and wet weather during Mar slowed progress in farm work and vegetative development over most of main agricultural area, but favorable weather in Apr May have brought about a large measure of recovery. Winter wheat prospects declined sharply during the critical Mar period, especially in the dry central and southern great plains continued dry weather and damage by aphis and cutworms during Mar in central and southern plains resulting in heavy abandonment and reduced yields on surviving acreage. Fall sown grains, meadows and pastures were slow to start growth. Spring seeding had not made usual progress by Apr 1 in most of central part of country. Maj Gen Frank E Lowe, 0170395, USA, Retired, has distinguished himself by exceptionally meritorious service to the Government of the United States and to the United Nations Forces in Korea while performing duties of great responsibility in this command. In recognition of his outstanding achievements and significant contributions to the United Nations Korean Operation, I recommend with sincere gratitude that General Lowe be awarded the nations highest meritorious decoration-The Distinguished Service Medal-for his signal achievements in Korea. Citation as follows:

"General Lowe, USA, Retired, distinguished himself by exceptional meritorious service to the United States Government in a duty of great responsibility as Special Representative in Korea of the President of the United States from 10 August 1950 to 7 April 1951. General Lowe constantly visited all echelons of the United Nations Forces in order to gain complete, accurate and first hand information of all matters relating to personnel, tactics and logistics affecting combat operations. To accomplish his mission General Lowe has driven himself unsparingly. His keen perception, personal contact with combat troops, sound judgement and broad experince have enabled him to acquire a complete grasp of the complex problems affecting the mission of the United Nations Forces. His intense desire to serve and his complete devotion to duty regardless of personal sacrifice, have been so outstanding as to earn for him the highest recognition. This ordinary performance of duty reflects the greatest credit on himself, the government he serves, and is in keeping with the esteemed traditions of the military service."

URMSG CX 59094 and DA 85310. This msg in 8 parts.
Part 1. Assumption inf Part 1 URMSG approved by Department of Defense as basis of submitting supplemental budget estimates for FY 1952 for partial pay as you go. It is assumed your estimates will be based on suitable distribution between services of TOW type occupation costs as well as recent price increases.
Part 2. As soon as estimates finalized, submit 2 summaries by radio as follows. First summary should show total costs. First column should list each existing applicable Army appropriation and subappropriation. In second and subsequent columns, list each general TOW type service involved, such as rental, labor, transportation etc, and show opposite each appropriation equivalent dollar costs applicable. In last column list total for each appropriation and subappropriation. Grand total would equal dollar equivalent of total applicable TOW costs adjusted to reflect price increases. Second summary would contain same columns as first summary except column 1 would be entitled "recommended payment by" and would include 5 line entries for Army, AF, Navy, Japan, and total with dollar equivalent of estimates entered in appropriate columns.
Part 3. 5 copies of supplementary FY 1952 budget estimates should be submitted as soon thereafter as practicable to each service showing only the additional FY 52 requirements for partial pay as you go costs by applicable service apprns and projects. Appropriate narrative justifications should be provided to enable each service to justify fully its requirements to higher authority.

Justifications should present total picture to include equivalent dollar costs to be borne by Japanese, the estimated amounts for quarters allowances to be saved in US apprns compared with the equivalent dollar value of dependents housing furnished by Japanese, other similar offsets to US employees and any other pertinent data deemed of value in providing Bureau of Budget and Congress with concise and clear understanding of relative costs to US and Japan. If TOW apprns are on an expenditure basis versus US responsibility on an obligation basis, it may be necessary to include explanation of method of translating to US obligation basis.

Part 4. Proposals in Parts 2, 3, and 4 or URMSG approved as basis of budgetary submission.

Part 5. Comments in Part 5 URMSG are sound for peace treaty period only. If redeployment of Korean forces will not be concluded until after treaty is signed, no pre-treaty problem of increased forces appears likely however do you consider it advisable to assume increases wholly with US apprns? It appears that if US apprns are used to pay for any increases in US troops in Japan above planned FY 52 strengths for those items that are listed in Part 2 of URMSG, such action might affect treaty negotiations and hamper a smooth transition into post treaty pay as you go plan; further would create difficult problems of audit and administration.

Part 6. Advise this Hq soonest US strengths on which Jap FY 51 TOW apprn based.

Part 7. Reference Parts 6 and 7 URMSG since Japans expenditures under plan would be less than present TOW apprns, would diet modification of budget be necessary?

Part 8. This msg coordinated with Defense, AF, State and Navy.

Transactions involve purchase of Jap goods (for example silk) by Fr intermediary with payment thru Franco Jap bilateral payments account (in which Fr tends be creditor). These goods then sold in US against dols, at below cost if necessary to move them. Dollar proceeds used buy US merchandise which can be sold in soft currency areas (Argentina and other Latin American countries, for example) at high prices with payment thru bilateral payments accounts (i.e. dollar goods sold for soft currencies). Traders able realize enough on transaction to cover loss first sale and make good profit in francs.
"Min Fin finds it difficult refuse authorizations to Fr traders for this type operation when Dutch and others allowed by their Govts engage freely in such transactions and accordingly licensing of opns requested will continue. 1. State dept adviser to US Govt member of governing body informally sounded out members Secretariat and key members ILO re Japan's membership. While desirability Japan's membership recognized, concern expressed re Japanese Govt's ability to assume responsibilities ILO membership. Brit have since expressed view that in order qualify membership Jap must be accorded complete freedom to enable it fulfill obligations under ILO Constitution, including power vote for, ratify and implement international labor conventions and take similar action in case of ILO recommendations; further that ILO would probably require declaration by SCAP similar that given by French Govt in re Vietnam upon latter's admission ILO. French declaration stated France recognized rights and obligations of Vietnam as ILO member, that this included right to ratify international labor conventions freely and in gen to undertake within ILO framework and action Vietnam considered useful in furtherance ILO aims. Brit observe that similar declaration by SCAP would be relinquishment some powers conferred on him by Part II, Para 2, Basic Post-Surrender Policy since it would make Japan autonomous internally and externally within ILO field. While British expressed doubt whether SCAP could make declaration without FEC authorization, they did not appear to feel too strongly on this point. Brit conclude they have no desire obstruct Jap application but stress importance ILO attaches to competence members act independently.

2. At ILO Conference 1950 when Vietnam admitted, UK Workers Delegate, as Chairman Workers Gp, said they believed members must be able independently make and apply decisions without consulting

3. At same conference, report of Selections Committee (considering Vietnam membership application) referred advisory opinion 18 of permanent court of International Justice re admissibility Free City of Danzig to pre-war ILO. Danzig was under protection League of Nations and it's fgn relations conducted by Poland. Court concluded Danzig not eligible saying that ILO Constitution (similar present constitution) did not appear absolve members from compliance with obligations or excuse them from participating in normal organization activities if prior consent another member could not be obtained. Court added that Danzig "could not participate in work of labor orgn until some arrangement had been made ensuring in advance that no objection could be made by Polish Govt to any action which Free City might desire to take as member of that orgn."

4. In connection with Jap membership in ILO, your attn is called to Article 19 (5) which provides obligation to refer ILO Conventions to Jap Diet. While the Dept does not believe that the fundamental control of SCAP over the Occupation can be or should be prejudiced, it believes that a statement by SCAP to the Japanese Govt along the fol lines would assist the Dept in soliciting support for apl of Japan's application for admission to the ILO:

5. "With regard to the possible membership of Japan in the ILO, until a Treaty of Peace has become eff it is the dy of the Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers to exercise his authority for the continued security of the Allied Powers in Japan and the Japanese people. However, the exercise of that authority should not in the interim hamper the Japanese Govt in fulfilling it's obligations to the ILO.

6. "The Supreme Commander recognizes that the Japanese Govt is fully competent to assume and carry out the obligations of membership in the International Labor Orgn, and the Supreme Commander not only has no objection to the assumption of such obligations by the Japanese Govt but also heartily endorses and is fully sympathetic with the aspirations of the Japanese people and Govt to participate in the ILO. This assumption of obligations includes, among other things, voting at ILO Conferences and other mtgs, contributing to the expenses of the orgn, the application of

At present time American press showing considerable interest in controversy raised by charges of Lt Cmdr Otto E Sporrer, Navy Chaplain presently attached Marines at San Diego who wrote unsigned article in recent issue of Fortnight, who has now charged that 400 physically fit soldiers impersonated wounds at time Changjin Reservoir withdrawal so they could be evacuated to Japan. Associated Press story on this latest allegation is as follows:

San Deigo- A Navy Chaplain last night charged that 400 physically fit soldiers in Korea impersonated wounded men so they could be evacuated to Japan.

He added that, on the other hand, Marines hid their wounds from doctors during the retreat from the Chanjin Reservoir last December.

The Roman Catholic Chaplain, Lt Cmdr Otto E Sporrer also acknowledged authorship of a recent magazine article charging incompetency and scandalous comduct among Army officers in Korea.

Cmdr Sporrer denied that his remarks stated by or in the magazine Fortnight, a California publication, had any connection with inter-service rivalry.

"I wrote the article, " he said in a television interview with Harold Keen, local newscaster, "because when I was in Korea and saw the behavior of elements around me I became almost ashamed of my nationality.

"It isn't going to be remedied by calling the people who bring them to the publics attention 'irresponsible'," Maj General

Floyd L Parks, Army Public Information Chief, on March 17 referred to the unsigned magazine article as "irresponsible and ill-considered."

Cmdr Sporrer said the incident involving the soldiers impersonating casualities involved personnel of the 31st Regt of the 7th Army Division.

He said the 11th Marine Regt of the 1st Division, on the 31st's flank, met the same attack that the 31st met. He said the Army regiment fled the attack and left their own dead and wounded behind.

Cmdr Sporrer, now Chaplain at the San Diego Naval Hospital, served with the Marines during their heroic fight out of the Changin Reservoir entrapment.

To refute this allegation Dept of Army had Colonel Samuel L A Marshall, recently returned from 4 months stay in Korea, appear at press briefing to tell his findings as an operating analyst. Marshall told news conference he did not see how it would have been possible for the 400 men of 31st Army Regt to simulate wounds because at the time the fight started from the Reservoir as this and other 7th Div units were under direct Marine Corps Command.

Marshall stated he had spent month interviewing the 1st Marine and 7th Div troops who fought their way from North Korea last fall and stated flatly that when survivors of two Army regiments had joined with the Marines they were given 24 hours rest and then all who were at all able were put into the defense line.

Marshall said Sporrer was in error in saying that 11th Marine Regt met the same initial attack that hit the 31st Regt. He said records clearly show Marine unit moved to different sector before Chinese assault.

Marshall also stated that withdrawal operation was not a flight but effort on part of infantry to fight way back to junction with 1st Marines and that they had been ordered to make such an operation and most of the Regiment including Colonel Commanding had been lost in the effort to carry out the order. Colonel Marshall denied that there was cowardice on the part of the Army troops and strongly comended the way the soldiers handled themselves under extremely difficult conditions.

Informatively there has been no inclination on part of Navy or Marine Corps here to contradict Chaplain Sporrer. CINFO feels that in order to clear up this situation it is imperative that General Smith, commanding the 1st Marine Division, make a public statement as to the truth in the matter and clear the good name of the Army personnel involved: A clear cut statement from General Smith similar to that given by Colonel Marshall (whose report General Smith has in his possession) would be most important factor in eliminating public controversy and refuting allegations of Sporrer.

Will you advise CINFO soonest if such can be accomplished and send priority any statement made by General Smith.
