COMMERCIAL.

SATURDAY EVENING, March 3, 1855.

The demand for Cotton continues good, and the sales had firm, with sales including about 1,000 bales at a trifle more at an improvement of 1 @ 3/8 on the rates current yesterday to the close of the Auction sales. Yesterday's transaction amounted to 12 to 14 bales. We now quote

[illegible]

We hear of nothing doing in Tobacco.

Sugar has been dull, the every weather tending to restrict business, and only about 300 hogsd. Cuba changed hands at prices. Fair to Fully Fair 6 @ 6¾c.

Of Molasses, some 150 barrels Cuba sold at 28 @ 29c for best proof in prime, 27 @ 28c for common and very choice Cuba.

Rice is not quiet, and we notice sales of only about 200 tierces at from 6 to 6¼ @ 6¾c.

Of Corn, 2,100 sacks Southern sold at 90c, 1,200 prime sold at 92c, 1,000 good at 93 @ 95c, and one or two lots from Alabama at 97c.

Of Pork, 100 bbls were sold in two lots at 21 @ 21 and 21 @ 21 and 72 bbls of mess sold at 22 @ 22 @ 22 @