THINGS THAT NEVER HAPPEN

CITY AND STATE NEWS IN BRIEF

Members of the Ship Carpenters and Joiners' Union at a meeting Tuesday night in Algiers, voted to suspend all work at the local ship yards and foundries, and unless the union men and the owners of the various plants can come to some agreement all work will be stopped. There are a large number of ships being repaired in the local harbor.

Walter A. Dilzell was named city electrician by Commissioner Lafaye in his report to the council Tuesday and the appointment was confirmed. It is not to be effective until January 1. Mr. Dilzell is now a member of the City Board of Health and is the contractor who installed the electric fountain at West End.

Picking up a friendly ride home proved fatal Tuesday to Lester Elfer, 6-year-old son of C. M. Elfer, postmaster at St. Rose, La. Lester rode about two blocks on his way home from school on a sand wagon, driven by an Italian, when he fell off. The front wagon wheel passed over the right side of his forehead, crushing it.

Averring that he was struck and seriously injured by a motor truck belonging to the Marks Isaac Company, Rudolf D. Cueto Tuesday sued that corporation for $10,927. Petitioner says he was crossing Canal street, between Bourbon and Dauphine streets, when he was hit by the vehicle.

Mrs. Mary Sulli, 827 Lowerline street, was Tuesday acquitted in the First City Criminal Court on a charge of having murdered her husband, Michael Sulli, at their home August 19 last. Her plea was self-defense. Mrs. Sulli took the stand in her own behalf. She recited how her husband, who ran a small shoemaking shop in the front of their Lowerline street residence, came home August 19 in a drunken conditions and assaulted her.

After having been closed many months the hotel at Dauphine and Iberville streets is to be reopened. A stock company capitalized at $25,000, has been formed by some members of the New Orleans Cotton Exchange and others to operate the hotel under the name of The Planters' Hotel. Arthur W. Simpson, a member of the Cotton Exchange, is president of the new company, and Major A. D. Stewart is to be the manager. The new hotel will be open to the public about November 1.
