F. LEFEVRE,
SUCCESSOR TO J. VINCENT,

Would learn to inform the public that, having bought the stores situated on the corner of Royal and Peter streets, he will henceforth devote all his attention to the business of Perfumery, and to the manufacture of Vinegars, to advantageous prices.
M. Lefevre respectfully solicits a continuance of general patronage which has heretofore been bestowed on him, and by the great care and exactitude which he will give to all orders for BALLS, PARTIES, DINNERS,
SUPPERS, WEDDINGS, &c.,
to merit the approbation of all who may favor him with their orders.
He also informs the public, and the ladies particularly, that TO-MORROW, (Tuesday) November 20, he will open a FANCY GOODS STORE, at the corner of Royal and Conti streets.
