COMMENT

PRESS: PRESS PURGEE PROMISES TO CONTINUF WRITING

"Having been designated as a purgee from the publication world, I have been forced to resign from my position as head of the JITSUGYO NO SEKAI (Business World), TEITO NICHI NICHI SHUPPAN SHA (Capital Daily Publishing House), and TEITO NICHI NICHI SHIMBUN (Capital Daily News)..... As I am quite free to write, except on political matters, I will certainly contribute articles on various subjects to every issue of this magazine. SEKAI BUKKYO (World Buddhism) and SHINSHU NO SEKAI (World of Shin Sect) are not affected at all, and I will continue my nation-wide lecture tours..... It is a fact that I have obdurately adhered to the principles of MITA SHOGYOKAI, the predecessor of JITSUGYO NO SEKAI. Because of my strict observance of this principle, I have often been misunderstood and persecuted. I dare say that if the tenets of JITSUGYO NO SEKAI or of NOYORI gained wide acceptance in the Press world, we would not see such a sad state of affairs as we see today.

"I hereby publicly declare, and take full responsibility for my statement, that the future of Japan will be extremely bright if the publishing world will follow the path we have been taking until now...

"This magazine ought to have limited its contents to essays and reviews on economic and industrial topics, as indicated by the title, but out of ambition to benefit the nation and the community, as well as to promote business, arguments and editorials on political questions were frequently presented. Especially from our viewpoint of safeguarding the national polity, articles discussing the Imperial Household were published against the wishes of our readers, who sought only their own interests and getting ahead in the world, Consequently, our circulation has never ranked near the top.

NOTICE: Distribution of the information contained in this document obtained from private communication will be confined solely to those officials military and / or civilian who are specifically authorized to receive such information.

"We realized that we could obtain more profit by increasing our circulation rather than depending on advertisements and contributions, but if we had expanded our circle of readers, we would have had to follow the trends of society, disregarding the fundamental mission of the publication.....

"After the outbreak of the Pacific War, it was we who clamored for an aerial attack on the American mainland. We were not daunted by any thought of unhappy consequences, as long as it was for the sake of the righteous expansion of the nation and the justifiable happiness of the people. We have continued to act at the sacrifice of our life. That is to say, our spirit has always been democratic.....

"We are determined to carry on with great spirit, without changing our past attitude in the least. We are profoundly consoled by our belief in the eternal life and our faith in Buddha."

"Lecture Tour of Shuichi NOYORI

"Ex-President of JITSUGYO NO SEKAI, Mr. Shuichi NOYORI, lectured for 2½ hours at Hibiya Hall, Tokyo, 15 October, 1945 on the subject of the construction of New Japan and Buddhism. He lectured in Osaka in May this year, in 15 places in Oita Prefecture, 4 places in Amakusa, Kumamoto Prefecture, 4 places in Toyama Prefecture, and in Toyohashi and Amagasaki.

"Leaving Tokyo 19 July, he is making a lecture tour, speaking at ten places in Hokkaido and a few places in the Tohoku area. He will be touring the country for the rest of the year giving lectures.

Examiner's Note: The writer, purged ex-president of JITSUGYO NO SEKAI, Shuichi NOYORI, wrote a book entitled KYOSANTO NO IU TENNO ZAIBATSU TO WA NANZOYA (What is the Emperor Zaibatsu, Decried by the Communist Party?), which was scheduled to be published in May '47. This book was suppressed by censorship on the ground that its tenor was ultra-nationalistic and stressed absolute, unconditional worship of the Emperor. (C/S JP/TOK/PPB/ 10039).
