MARINE NEWS.

Port of New Orleans, August 4, 1860.

CLEARED YESTERDAY.

[illegible]

ARRIVED YESTERDAY.

[illegible]

CONSIGNEES.

[illegible]

COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE [illegible]
FRIDAY EVENING, August [illegible]

The business in our general market has been [illegible] a moderate amount during the past week [illegible] for the leading singles have been [illegible] demand for Cotton has been [illegible] with increased pretensions on the part of holders, owing to the unfavorable [illegible] in our last weekly report. In Tobacco we have noticed more [illegible] than usual of late, and the sales have all [illegible] towards the Western Produce we notice a heavy and [illegible] of Pork, Lard, Bacon and Corn, while Provisions [illegible] Flour, Corn, Oats, Hay, Potatoes, Onions, Whiskey, Bacon, Sugar, Cheese, Tobacco, Cotton, Hides, Tallow, Lard, Beeswax, Feathers, Ginseng, Beans, Peas, Dried Fruit, Peaches, Apples, Lard, Lard Oil, Tallow