In the long gaping of the lungs, and through debility, the weak and resultant hectic, which indicates the INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has been found the most valuable, and in cases of Nervous and Scrofulous and Inflammatory CONSUMPTION, and in METEOROLOUS TUBERCULOSIS, the medicine has for more than the good effect of the sound and healthy Mercurial preparations of Iodine without any their well known limitations.

In ABORTION, it has been found to be medicinally the best of all the remedy and remedies in the world.

In ERUPTIONS, both chronic and inflammatory, it is better, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well in the case of Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Pimples, Boils, Ringworm, Scurvy, &c.
