The Darling Downs Gazette

AND GENERAL ADVERTISER.

COLONIAL SECRETARY'S OFFICE.

VOL. I.—NO. 1. DRAYTON, THURSDAY, JUNE 10, 1858. PRICE, SIXPENCE.

The "Bull's Head Inn," DRAYTON.

WILLIAM WITHAM takes advantage of the opportunity afforded by the establishment of a local newspaper to return his thanks to the Stockholders, Bushmen, and the Public generally, for their custom during the time he has conducted the above Inn, and begs to assure them, and the passing Traveller that they will still continue to find the same attention to their comfort, combined with GOOD CHEER, which has heretofore acquired for him the approbation of the public at large.

First-rate Wines, Ales, and Spirits, purchased in the best markets, always on hand, ready to be supplied to the guests who may favor them with their patronage.

Good Hay and Corn, with excellent accommodation for Horses, both in the Stabling and in the Paddock.

ADVANCE! DARLING DOWNS.

Drayton, 10th June, 1858.

TO THE

Inhabitants of the Northern Districts.

THE undersigned takes advantage of the earliest opportunity respectfully to inform his friends, old customers, and travellers generally, that in consequence of the lease of premises known as the Bull's Head Inn, at Drayton, terminating in August next, he has made his arrangements for taking possession of the Commercial Hotel, at Toowoomba, where he intends carrying on business shortly after that date.

The premises will be considerably enlarged immediately, and various necessary improvements will be made to render the establishment suitable, in every respect, for the accommodation not only of Private Families and Gentlemen, but for Travellers, and Bushmen, who, he trusts, will find that their comfort and convenience has been studied in every respect.

WILLIAM WITHAM.

Drayton, 9th June, 1858

Drayton Road.
ROSE INN, GATTON.

"Go fetch to me a pint of wine,
And fill it in a silver tassie,
That I may drink, before I go,
A good health to my bonnie lassie."

JOSEPH COOK, in returning his best thanks to those Gentlemen and Travellers who have so liberally patronised him since his commencement in business, begs to inform them that his new house is now open for their reception, and that do pains will be spared to make them comfortable, happy, and contented. A GOOD TABLE will always be met with, together with WINES and SPIRITS of the best quality. Spacious Private Apartments have been set aside for the use of Families and others requiring such accommodation.

Hay and Corn will always be found on hand; polite and obliging Servants met with; and the Paddock is secure, well grassed and watered.

Clare Castle Hotel,
NICHOLAS STREET, IPSWICH.

JOHN CLUNE takes advantage of the establishment of a newspaper for the district of Darling Downs to return his thanks to his friends in that locality, and the public generally, for their patronage during the time he has conducted the business of the above hotel, and solicits a continuance of their favors. Parties visiting Ipswich will always find his house replete with every comfort and convenience, with moderate charges for the best of Wines, Spirits and good cheer, both in the Coffee Room and at the Bar.

Excellent Stabling and good Paddock for Horses. Oaten Hay and Corn always on hand, and of the best quality.

Ipswich, 6th June, 1858.

JOHN M'DONALD,

Toowoomba, June 8th, 1858

To be Sold, by Private Contract,

A COMFORTABLE RESIDENCE, situated at the corner of Margaret Street, Toowoomba, now in the occupation of the Proprietor, Mr. W. Horton—containing dining room, drawing room, and six good bed rooms, the whole comprising a suite of apartments suitable for a genteel family.

Detached is an excellent kitchen, and servants' rooms, the former provided with stone oven and stone chimney, with every requisite for the cuisine.

There are also capital Stables, Coach and Dray House, large Stores, Workshop, and other out Offices, shingled and in perfect order.

The Dwelling House has a spacious verandah, and is shingled and ceiled; there are French lights in front, with cedar panel doors—the whole being fitted in the newest and best style.

There is a first-rate Garden in front, comprising an area of 1½ acres, trenched and well stocked with vegetables and fruit trees, and enclosed with a substantial paling fence.

The attention of the resident gentry is particularly directed to this notice, as such another opportunity of obtaining an excellent residence in one of the most salubrious parts of the Darling Downs, and in the midst of a flourishing locality, seldom met with. The only reason for the house being offered for sale is that the Proprietor will shortly resume business at the Bull's Head Inn, Drayton.

For further particulars apply to the Proprietor, Mr. W. Horton, Toowoomba.
