SUBJECT: Advisory and Control Group, NPR Region

TO: Lt. Col. Edward J. Drinkert
Commanding Officer
Camp Cadres
Hokkaido Area
c/o Chief, Hokkaido Civil Affairs Region
APO 309

1. The Second NPR Region Headquarters is to be organized and established at Sapporo, Hokkaido, Japan on or about 1 February 1951, in accordance with instructions to be issued separately.

2. You will organize Advisory and Control Groups of U. S. Army personnel to provide the necessary guidance and control required for the Second NPR Region and Region Headquarters. Table for assignment of the Advisory and Control Groups is indicated in Inclosure 1. You are designated as the Senior Adviser to NPR Region Commander and will coordinate all the activities and duties of the remainder of the Group.

3. Your duties will include the following:

a. To advise the NPR Region Commander in all matters concerning the Second NPR Region and any other NPR units which may be placed under his command.

b. To provide guidance and advice to the staff of the Region Headquarters by use of the Advisory and Control Group.

c. To assist the NPR personnel in assuming operational responsibility as rapidly as it appears possible to do so.

( )CA S(Anx)-0 to Lt Col E.J. Drinkert, CO, Camp Cadres, Hokkaido Area c/o Chief, Hokkaido CAR, APO 309, Subj: "Advisory and Control Group, NPR Region."

d. To supervise and insure that all policies established or directives issued by the Chief, Civil Affairs Section, are promptly complied with and accomplished.

e. Take necessary action to insure that all U.S. Government property used in connection with NPR activities is properly used, maintained, and accounted for at all times.

f. Assume command of all U.S. Army personnel assigned to the Advisory and Control Groups of the NPR Region Headquarters and NPR Camps.

g. Preparation of the required reports to this Section.

h. In so far as practical, duties will be accomplished through advice and assistance to the NPR. Directives will be given to the NPR only if it becomes apparent that the mission cannot be accomplished.

i. Supervision of awarding contracts in accordance with existing directives.

3. Responsibility of Civil Affairs Regions is limited to personnel administrative and logistical support required for U.S. personnel assigned to Advisory and Control Groups.

4. Area of responsibility assigned to the Second NPR Region includes all of Hokkaido and the following Prefectures of Northern Honshu: Amori, Akita, Iwate.
