Enforcement of Fare in Kyoto City sequent to Fare Revision of General Bus Motor Carrier Business

With respect to the above subject which had been submitted to the Transportation Council for deliberation, the following report was received therefrom:

No. 242

December 18, 1951

Subject: Enforcement of fare in Kyoto City sequent to fare revision of general bus motor carrier business

To : YAMAZAKI Takeshi, Minister of Transportation

From : KIMURA Takanori, Chairman of Transportation Council

Report

With regard to the subject referred to this Council by Ji-Ryo No. 1588 dated Dec. 5, 1951, a hearing was held in the conference room of the Transportation Council on Dec. 24 to hear statements of persons concerned. And after having made due deliberation on co-ordination of transportation with other transportation facilities, the following report is hereby given:

Text

As for the enforcement of fare in Kyoto City sequent to fare revision of general bus motor carrier business, it is judged proper to take steps as follows:

1. It shall be a uniform system fare of 15 yen within the sphere connecting the existing stops of Kyoto municipal bus motor carrier business such as Kami-Kamo, Mizoroike, Keage, Inari, Toji-Nammon, Ktsura-ohashi, Ukyokuyakusho-Mae and Utano, and 15 yen for the sections between Inari and Hacchonawate, Ukyokuyakusho-Mae and Utano, Utano and Takao, respectively regarded as a section.
2. In case where the municipal bus of Kyoto City is feared to cause a remarkable influence upon managements of other transportation facilities by establishment of the uniform system fare, an adequate administrative step shall be taken for coordination of transportation.
3. It shall be required to be particularly attentive as to satisfy the transportation demand of passengers in establishment and change of car operation system, and when a shuttle car operation is made on the way in accordance with the necessity of transportation, such steps shall be taken as not cause inconveniences for passengers, upon issuing relay tickets.
