And produces no injurious fumes.
No variations of climate affect its strength.
Those who give "Rackarock" a fair trial always adopt it. Can be stored and transported like ordinary merchandise.

MILLAR'S
LIGHT CHARGE BRIGADE.
(After TENNYSON—a long way)

Half a league, half a league,
Half a league onward,
Into this Tailor's Shop
Plunge many hundreds.
"Good clothes," the nations cry,
Whose are the best to buy?
"MILLAR'S most certainly!"
Shout many hundreds.

Tailors' shops to the right of us,
Tailors' shops to the left of us,
Tailors' shops around us,
All, all have blundered.

Armed for real clothing trade,
Here I stand undismayed,
Deserving the people's aid,
For no high charge is made—
So come many hundreds.

None can such good clothes sell,
That is known full well;
From all we "bear the bell"
Say many hundreds.

When shall our glory fade?
Oh, the light charge they made!
"MILLAR'S put all else in shade,"
Shout many hundreds.
