1. The petition of Kyo Hun Koku for the release from Hario of his two sons, Kyo Ki Yu, 14 years of age and Kyo Fu Yu, 6 years old is forwarded as inclosure 1.

2. The parents are both registered in Tokyo as legal residents of Japan. The older son was born in Japan and the younger in Korea where the mother went to avoid the air raids.

3. It appears that the parents are able to support their children in Japan and they have no one to depend upon in Korea.

4. Recommend that petitioner's request be granted.

Subject: Petition asking release for my two sons Kyo Ei Yu, 14 years old, and Kyo Fu Yu, 6 years old

Dear Sir:

I cordially wish your special and kind consideration for our circumstances, especially for the above two boys who are confined in Hakiwo Detention House on the charge of illegal entry.

I am the president of Fukuda Rubber Industrial Company in Tokyo and I have been staying in Japan for about 16 years.

The above two boys are my sons sir. And our story goes as follows.

I came to Japan in 1933 and my wife in 1936.

We had been living in Kobe since we got married and Ei Yu was born. In 1940, we went, with our ration cards except mine, to Seoul where the branch office was.

My ration card was in Kobe.

For the time being, we were making trips from and to Korea all the time.

But in 1943, I had to send my wife to Seoul for the reason of my wife's pregnancy. The air raid was one of the reasons for that too. Fu Yu was born there. I couldn't stay with her at that time because I was bound by my business. Such a thing was really natural in the war time. And we had never heard of each other since we parted. That's because the communications and males were almost isolated at that time. We had been worrying deeply about each other.

In October 1945, my wife, leaving our sons in Saishu Island where their aunt was came to Japan for the purpose of finding me or gathering my ashes. We met in Beppu in 1946. We went up to Tokyo, but we lost the chance to get our sons back. I was notified about my sons the other day. I came down to Kyushu Hurriedly. But as I don't see my sons yet, I don't know exactly who brought my sons to Japan.

Just I guess the riot which communists ran in Saishu Island made them increasingly wish to meet their parents in Japan. A lot of people were killed there at that time.

I am afraid they will be starved to death if they are sent back to Korea. Because they have no money and no relative in Pusan. And regular service between Saishu Island and Pusan sailes only once a month. And it is impossible for people except soldiers to take that regular boat. I wish to go with them if they go to Korea. I was told that 6 years old kid, Fu Yu, was very weak and he looks like 4years kid.

I shall be very glad and thankful if you could considerate for my two sons and release them. I cordially wish your kindness again.
