NO. 9. STATE PAPER. MONDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 21, 1835. VOL. IX

STATE OF LOUISIANA—Parish Court for the parish and city of New Orleans.—I hereby certify that on June 27th, 1835, judgment was entered in this Court in the suit of Mad. Victor Grosjean vs. her husband in the words and figures following, to wit:—No 8351—Mad. Victor Grosjean vs. her husband.—This case came on this day for trial before the court, by consent of parties.—Morphy & Grailing, Esq. for plaintiff; A. Hoa, Esq. for H. F. Loubliaux, Esq. for defendant.—When after hearing testimony and argument of counsel and reading the document produced by plaintiff, the court being satisfied that the sums and effects claimed by plaintiff are due to her, and that the affairs of defendant are in disorder and may endanger said claims, it is ordered by the court that plaintiff be separated of property from her said husband, and that he be decreed to pay her—1st, the sum of $750, being the price by him received for the slave Marguerite; the sum of $98, received by him from the estate of plaintiff's father, and further that he be decreed to return to her the six promissory notes received by him from the said estate, to wit: three notes of $194 01 2-8 each, and three notes of $194 94 6 each and to pay the costs of this suit.

New Orleans, July 6th 1835.

(Signed) CHARLES MAURIAN, Judge.

Judgment recorded in Judgment Docket C, page 119.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the said court, at the city [L S] of New Orleans, on this 29th day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and in the sixtieth year of the Independence of the United States.

MAYORALTY OF NEW ORLEANS.
City Council—Sitting of Friday, the 4th of Sept. 1835.
AN ORDINANCE FOR THE CONSTRUCTION OF BANQUETTES AND SIDE-WALKS IN THE 7TH WARD.

RESOLVED, that from and after the passage hereof, it shall not be lawful to construct, in that portion of the Seventh Ward embraced by an ordinance for its incorporation, approved the 6th of April, 1831, any other banquettes, counter banquettes or footways, than those of brick and stone, and made in conformity to the ordinance regulating the construction for the square of the city, and that the proprietors of property therein be bound to make the same within a delay of six months from the passage hereof—those neglecting or refusing so to do, shall be subject to a fine upon each lot of thirty feet or less, for every day so neglecting, of ten dollars for the use of the corporation, and to be recovered before any competent tribunal.

That for all that remaining portion of said seventh ward extending back from the river so far as the to include both sides of Magazine street, it shall not be lawful to make any other kind of banquettes than of stone and cypress wood, and the foot pavement of bricks, conforming in every respect, if of stone and brick, to the ordinances now in force regulating their construction in the square of the city, and if of wood to conform in dimensions to those prescribed by the third article of an ordinance, entitled "an ordinance for determining the manner in which banquette, &c., are regulated," approved October the 6th, 1816; and that proprietors of property therein shall be bound to make said banquettes and counter banquettes and foot pavement of brick, or banquettes, and gutters of cypress, and foot pavements of brick, within a delay of ninety days from the passage hereof; then in that case, each delinquent shall be subject to a fine of ten dollars for each and every day of his delinquency; and moreover, the commissary and inspector shall be charged with having said work made at the expense of those failing or neglecting so to do, said fine to be recovered before any competent tribunal for the use of the city.

That for all the remaining portion of the 7th ward not heretofore provided for, it shall be lawful to make banquettes of boat gunnels, and foot pavements of brick, and that proprietors of property situated therein are hereby enjoined to make the same within a delay of four months from the passage hereof, those refusing or neglecting so to do, shall be subject to a fine upon each lot of thirty feet or less, for every day so neglecting or refusing thereafter of ten dollars per day, said fine to be recovered before any competent tribunal for the use of the corporation; moreover the commissary and inspector of the seventh ward will give notice hereof to all those bound to make anew any of the works hereby ordained, either by publication in the corporation gazette or by serving a personal one, moreover, he will be fully authorized to have the several works made at the expense of the owners should they refuse or neglect to have the same made according to the directions within the time prescribed by this ordinance, said works shall be adjudicated by the mayor to the lowest bidder, the corporation subrogating to said purchaser all claims against the property or owner for the expense thereof, and also all her rights to enforce payment thereof, to whom the purchaser will look for his compensation.

Be it further resolved, that in case the proprietors neglecting to construct the side walks and banquettes will prove before the judge, that they have been prevented by continual bad weather, or any other material impediments, then in that case, the fine shall not be decreed against them.

PARISH OF ORLEANS—Court of Probates—The State of Louisiana—To all whom these presents may concern—Greeting

Know ye, that whereas James P. Ferret, a resident of New Orleans, has applied to me W F C Duplessis, Register of Wills, in and for the parish and city of New Orleans, and ex officio clerk of the Court of Probates, in and for the parish and city of New Orleans aforesaid, for a monition or advertisement, in conformity to the act of the Legislature of the State, entitled, "An act for the further assurance of titles to purchasers at judicial sales" Approved on the 10th March 1834, notice is hereby given to all whom it may concern, that by virtue of a judgment rendered by the hon the Court of Probates in and for the parish and city of New Orleans, state of Louisiana, in the case of William Gormley and John F. Miller vs. Jeremiah Berry tutor, &c. of the minor children of Thomas Pair Willard deceased, and judgment signed on the 19th June 1835, the landed property hereinafter described was exposed for sale at auction, by the sheriff of the parish of Orleans, on the 27th day of July, 1835, and that the aforenamed James P. Ferret became the purchaser thereof, he being the last and highest bidder, for the price of eight hundred and ten dollars, payable in cash.

Description of the property as given in the judicial conveyance:—

A certain lot of ground, No 4, in square No 1 in the faubourg Bourgogne, parish of Jefferson, measuring thirty feet front on Félicité street, by one hundred and one feet deep on the line of lot no. 1, and one hundred and eight feet four inches seven lines on the line of lot no. 5, having thirty feet in the rear: lot no. 5, in same square, measuring 30 feet front on Félicité street, by one hundred and eight feet four inches and seven lines deep on the division line of No. 4, and one hundred and seven feet nine inches and six lines on the line of lot No. 6, having thirty feet in the rear, and lot 69, in square No 7, situated in the same faubourg, measuring thirty feet front on Hercule street, by one hundred and twenty feet deep, between parallel lines, bounded on one side by lot No 68, on the other side by lot No 70, and in the rear by lot No 75, the whole English measure, together with the improvements, ways and privileges belonging to each lot respectively.

Wherefore all persons who can set up any right, title or claim in and to the landed property herein described, in consequence of informality in the order, decree or judgment before recited and under which the sale was made, or any irregularity or illegality in the appraisements or advertisements, in time or manner of sale, or for any other cause or defect whatsoever, are hereby cited and admonished to show cause within thirty days from the day this monition is first inserted in the public papers, why the sale so made as aforesaid, should not be confirmed and homologated in accordance with the application of said purchaser.

Witness my hand and the seal of said Court of Probates, this eleventh day of September, A D, 1835.
