DECLASSIFIED E.O. 12065 SECTION 3-402/NNDG NO. 775 013

NAGOYA-RYO

The Nagoya-ryo is a boshi-ryo (mothers and childrens home) operated by Nagoya city. The institution was established 1945 originally as a temporary shelter for repatriates. Later, in May 1947 the need for adequate housing for mothers and children become so acute that Nagoya-ryo was converted into a boshi-ryo. Today twenty four mothers with their fifty children are living comfortably here. Some of the women are war widows and some wives of men still in the Soviet. The mothers are all employed and also receive Public Assistance. A well equipped and staffed day nursery is maintained in the building to care for the children while the mothers are at work. The children ages range up to 17 years. Twenty children are of pre-school age. The children were so appreciative of the help which came to them through LARA, food, clothing, and medical supplies that they were inspired to make this offering of there art work.
