COMMERCIAL.

A fair amount of business has been done to the general market during the past week, with the prices ruling pretty much as before. Cotton has not been brought forward, under the influence of the high inferior accounts from Europe, and there have been forward merchantly of the receipts of Sugar and Molasses have generally brought full prices. Flour has gone off rather heavily, while Pork has sold at higher prices, and Groceries continue material alteration. Pork has largely declined, and Lard has shown a drooping tendency, but other articles of Provisions have been fairly maintained. Freights have declined, and Exchange have been in only moderate request.

On Tuesday morning we published the Bryan's advices, with dates from Liverpool to the 20th ult. They represent a further decline of ¼d. for Cotton, with sales of 27,000 bales for the week, and quoted Middling Orleans at 6¾d. The stock in port was stated at 338,000, of which 187,000 were American.

COTTON—Arrived since the 11th instant, 44,320 bales. Cleared in the same time 9415 bales for Liverpool, 13,100 for Havre, 861 for Bremen, 2464 for Amsterdam, 1600 for Ghent, and 15 for Boston. Stock in port, 94,717 bales; making an aggregate in stock of 30,017 bales, and leaving on hand, including all on shipboard and in the presses and porterie not cleared, a count of 124,718 bales.

We closed our last weekly review upon a dull and drooping Cotton market, and on Saturday we noticed little or no improvement, the sales amounting to only 3500 bales at irregular prices, without further quotable change. On Monday, however, factors relaxed their hold to a degree more in accordance with the views of buyers, who came forward with some spirit and took 10,000 bales, at a reduction of ¼@¼c ⅌ lb. On Tuesday the demand was unusually active, and resulted in sales of fully 23,000 bales, at about the range of previous day, but Wednesday, being a holiday for the banks, the business fell off to 7,600 bales, the market being steadier and firmer for the leading grades. On Thursday again the demand was very fair, especially for the middling qualities, which were firm, and the sales embraced 8,500 bales, the lower grades being dull and depressed. To-day some 9000 bales have been sold, making the entire business of the week 61,600 bales. We now quote as follows:

LIVERPOOL CLASSIFICATION—LOUISIANA AND MISSISSIPPI.

EDUCATION.

MISS BERTHA SCHOOL,
AND BOARDING SCHOOL,
FOR YOUNG LADIES,
NO. 1 ST. PETER STREET,
Corner of Rampart and Dauphine streets.

This Institution, one of the best appointed in the city, has proved a wonderful success, and the Proprietor, after the recent vacation, has spared no pains to make it the most attractive and complete in all its arrangements, and more than ever worthy the patronage of the public.

There are but the decorations with dressing cabinets; the spacious galleries all through the house; a splendid organ, and a magnificent piano, have been added, and the Dormitories have been all refitted, and furnished with every comfort and convenience.

Pupils are received at any period, with the privilege of the regular course, and charged only from the date of their admission.

Parents or guardians desirous of placing their children in a thorough and complete school, should visit the Institution, and judge for themselves. There is no secret concerning the high patronage enjoyed, and the success resulting to the pupils.

Every branch of a solid and refined education is taught, including Drawing, Painting, and Embroidery, Instrumental and Vocal Music, Dancing, Calisthenics, and Modern Languages; all accomplished teachers in the city.

It would be superfluous to say anything respecting the unsurpassed facilities for the acquisition of the Modern Parentals Native language. The best testimony that can be given to the public is that the patronage of the Institution has increased by her merit, and mainly in their mother tongue.

Mr. Gerard, the celebrated musician, will superintend the vocal department.

For terms, apply at the Institution, where prospectuses may be obtained.

MISS BERTHA residing at a distance in the different Districts, will be entrusted goods in and from the Institution. oct 27
