IN DEDICATION

To three men, each of whom has given over a quarter of a century of service to Montana State is this book dedicated.

Dr. W. P. Clark came to MSU in 1921 as assistant professor of foreign languages, teaching French and Latin. Later he served as chairman of the classical language department, and after 1946 was Dean of the Graduate school. He also taught in Konsos, Texas, New York, and at William and Mary. Dean Clark spent ten months at the University of Mont Peller in France and received his Ph.D. from the University of Chicago. He has written for classical journals and now writing for educational magazines, he has enough writing and editing to keep him busy for some time.

Relinquishing his position as Choirmon of the modern language department in September, 1952, Dr. B. E. Thomas retired after completing 29 years on the faculty of MSU. In 1901 when the first group of American teachers went to the Philippines, Dr. Thomas was one of the 800 to make the trip. He remained on the Islands until 1910. Before beginning his work of the Butte School of Mines, he received his Ph.D. from the University of Wisconsin in 1935. At MSU Dr. Thomas become chairman of the modern language department and for some time headed the International Education committee and also the committee in charge of Foreign Students on Campus.

After spending his entire career at this University, J. B. Speer retired from the faculty in July, 1952. Though he finished in law at the University of Michigan, MSU is also Mr. Speer's alma mater. A very active student here, he was editor of the Sentinel in 1908 and served as Kalmin business manager. Mr. Speer took his first position as a member of the faculty at MSU when in 1908 he became secretary to the President and to the Registrar. He held this post until 1912 and later returning to MSU in 1917, he continued as secretary. In 1920 Mr. Speer was advanced to the position of Registrar and Business Manager and in 1945 he became controller for the University, a position he held until last year.

PEOPLE AT MSU

HERBERT J. WUNDERLICH Dean of Students and Professor of Education received his Doctor's degree this last year from Stanford University. He holds a B.A. from the University of Idaho and an M.A. from Harvard University.

MAURINE CLOW, Associate Dean of Students and Professor of Psychology and Philosophy received her B.A. from Stanford University in 1934, her M.A. in 1936 and her Ph.D. in 1946. LEO SMITH, Registrar, takes care of admissions, both freshman and transfers, registration, records and graduation. He holds a B.S. from Whitman and an M.A. from the University of Vashington which he received in 1934.

E. KIRK BADGELY took over as Controller of the University last summer. During the regular school year he served as auditor and helped with the student budget. He received a B.A. from MSU in 1924.

E. A. ATKINSON, Director of summer school, is also chairman of the Department of Psychology and Philosophy. The University of Denver gave him a B.A. in 1920 and in 1922 he received an M.A. from MSU.

ANDREW C. COGSWELL is the Director of Division of Public Service. He received his B.A. from MSU in 1927 and an M.A. from the University of Minnesoto in 1943.

KATHLEEN R. CAMPBELL, head of the Montana State University Library has a B.S. from the University of Denver and also an M.S. which she received in 1939.

CYRILE C. VAN DUSER, manager of the Student Union and coordinator of all activities which take place inside the Student Union received a B.A. from Montana State University in 1927.

KERMIT E. SEVERSON is the director of the University Counseling Center. Open throughout the year the services of the Counseling Center are available to any student desiring help in selecting an educational or vocational field suited to his oblitities.

S. KENDRICK CLARKE, takes care of housing students, finance and accounting as Manager of the Resident Halls.

DR. M. P. WRIGHT is Director of the Health Service. He directs the examining of all entering students and attends to the general physical welfare of all students who come to the Health Center.

ROBERT W. BREEN, Director of Family Housing. The Family Housing Units constitute temporary facilities available to married students and their families.

PAUL CHUMRAU, Director of the Placement Bureau, which assists graduates who need jobs. Two other functions of this office are teacher placement and undergraduate employment.

MSU KEEPS PACE WITH CHANGING WORLD

If some change is normally inevitable, ther it was a way of life on MSU's compus. The view that greeted a student's eyes each marning was different than the one he had seen the day before. Pits were started and enlarged, then filled with wood and concrete; metal beams were roised, then covered from soft with the covered from soft with the covered from soft with pricks and aloss.

Through all this students carried on overful in much the same manner as they were accustomed but it is requerable to believe that they were affected. For students there is first the big vacant feeting of homesickness and dissolutionment as we lose our old monners and prejudices. With more learning comes a solid foundation of awareness and tolerance. Finally we acquire the trimmings and polish of educated people. At any rate everyone knows that through these little days our fathomable one) is carning to Montana state University and her students.

SUMMER

Shortly after 1952 graduates said good-bye and undergrads finished spring finals, students and teachers alike returned to MSU for a summer of study, conferences, workshops, and fun.

MSU Writers' Conference brought many well-known authors to the campus between July 30 and August 8. Headlining them were Van Wyck Brooks, Pulitzer Prize winner, David Davidson, Hilde Able, and Dale White, magazine non-fiction writer. Dorothy Johnson, formerly of the Woman's magazine, now news editor for the Whitefish Pilot was another celebrated conference member who spoke on magazine fiction writing.

Norman A. Fox, featured speaker, fectured on Joseph Kinsey Howard, author of Montano, High Wide, and Handsome. Dr Leslie A. Fiedler, who attended the conference after spending a year in Rome, was amazed year in Rome, was amazed to find the booming popularity of Johnnie Ray's songs and the sensationalisms of Micky Spillane. He was avercome, ofter a year obroad, by the health and wealth American people reflected. With everything from our comics to the best novels. "We've Americanized Europe," They carry the true picture of America to Europe where we are much misinterpreted. Tourists, military men, and officials give an entirely different opinion of America than the novelist. Dr. Fiedler returned to Rome to complete another year of teaching and study under the Fulbright scholarship.

Between the two weeks of Writer's Conference, the staff and registrants travelled to Virginia City for a colorful week-end at the home of the Vigilantes.

The Roundup of Regional Arts gave both amateur and professional talent a chance to display itself in paintings, ceramics, metal work, and jewelry.

Writer Van Wyck Brooks autographs his novel, The Flowering of New England for Natolie Norby, Missoula Pow-Wow student, At right is Henry Larom, director of the writers' Conference and Sonia Smith, high school student,

During summer session in July, three Hollywood citizens visited the MSU campus. Robert Wagner, star of "What Price Glory," Danna Reed, star of "Saturday's Hero," and David Diamond, independent producer and cinema veteron were on a good-will tour from Hollywood. They answered questions presented to them by townspeople and University students about the movie industry.

Warm August weather brought a receptive audience to hear the 78-piece band composed of Music Camp students under the direction of University Band Director Justin Grey. The other section of Music camp that performed for the public was a 52-voice choir led by Lloyd Oakland.

Professor Olaf A. Bue demonstrates the art of tape recording to a few of the 100 high school students who attended the journalism Pow-Wow held between July 27 and August 2. These high school seniors will be responsible for their respective school newspapers and yearbooks for the school year 1952-53. In addition to publishing the Camp Crier and the Summer Session Sun, under the direction of Prof. E. B. Dugan, Pow-Wow members enjoyed many recreational activities such as sports, dances, and picnics with Music comp students.

These elected members from the summer's Music Compets form a dance band led by Paul Abel, instructor of music. Here they join in a lilting arrangement of "Tenderly." From July 27 to August 8 one-hundred and five high school music students from all over the state worked under the direction of Professor Stanley M. Teel. Election Year Raises

FALL QUARTER FEVER

We won! We won! Carrying out the MSU tradition of ringing the bell in Main Hall after an athletic victory, freshmen tug and pull on the clapper rope to let 'er ring. Participants and by-standers are: (below)

Norma Hafferman, Donna Goodmansen, Marlys Augenstein, Carmelita Cox and Marilyn Hunton; (above) Carol Grandy, Hafferman, Augenstein, a.n.d. N.o.r.m.a.n Nelson. According to tradition, only freshmen may perform this task.

ORIENTATION WEEK HECTIC AS EVER

LIKE CAMPAIGN LEAFLETS caught in a Hellgate wind, 610 freshmen hurried around the campus to complete tests and to attend meetings and parties. They tried hard to adjust and with only a few spare moments left each day in which to feel homesick, it was easier to adjust.

counselee party. Pictured are: Ruby Lindstrom, Sue Monn, Ruth Neptune, Carla Wetzsteon, Joan Brooks, Pat Koob, Myrna Dolven, Alice Stack, Pat Turrell, LaRene Kisling, Sylva Pedersen, Dorlene Dahlman, Rowena Day, Dian Giulio, Phyllis Kind, Winnie Dinn, Gert Stene, Verna Johns, Sharon Dalling, Jeanette Kehne and Jerry St. Onge.

RUSH ENLIVENED Orientation week even more. Fraternities pledged 134 men with the Phi Delts taking the lead with 34 men and Sigma Nu was second with 26 men. Sororities claimed 126 women in their first rush with Alpha Phi taking 36 and Delta Gamma pledging 26.

The freshmen seemed a little uncooperative at first when the painting of the M was left unfinished. With another try and some more lime, however, they finally persuaded the upper-classmen to pronounce the job satisfactory. Temporary class officers were elected. Jim Abbott become president; Bobette Reader vice president; and Nancy Schilling, secretary-treasurer. Later Abbott became Central board delegate. In their primary elections, 91 more freshmen voted this year than last.

For the first time freshmen were requested to fill out activity interest cards to determine in which clubs and organizations they might be most happy. Some of the more energetic freshmen started yet another activity group—the Grizzly Growlers. Headed by Armond Pepe, the Pep Club worked closely with Traditions board. During Orientation week, frosh men were required to take physical examinations (below) for the ROTC program.

HOMECOMING

EVENTFUL DAY ENTERTAINS ALUMS

ABOUT 800. ALUMNI returned to the compus for the 34th annual Homecoming. Saturday they took in a family reunion breakfast, the Homecoming parade, a barbecue and the MSU-BYU football game. The classes of 1902 and 1927 were honored. After the game (BYU 28, MSU 7) receptions, open houses and an informal dance ended the festivities. Because so little time was available to prepare for Homecoming, fraternities did not put up house decorations. Instead they helped the sorrorities build the floats. Delta Delta Delta and Sigma Alpha Epsilon won the trophy for the best float which represented a pair of dice. No trophy was given for the best school float this year because not enough schools entered. Queen Kay of Rapid City, S. D., was crowned during the half time. One of the floats, decorated by Kappa Kappa Gamma and Phi Sigma Kappa (above) depicts the honored classes. Riders are: gueen candidate, Barbara Pence; 1952, Ellie Anderson; 1927 (unidentified) and 1902, Barbara Berg. Queen Kay Hudson, (left) New hall candidate, smiles radiantly after receiving the Homecoming crown and flowers. She competed for the title with Barbara Pence, Kappa Kappa Gammo; Gentria Cummings, Sigma Kappa; Carlene Dragstedt, Delta Gamma; Donna Wynacht, Delta Delta Delta; Cathy Wonder, Synadelphic; Marilyn Foster, Kappa Alpha Theta; Janet Howard, Alpha Phi; and Phyllis Webber, North hall.

TOPPED BY SADIE HAWKINS

A HIGHLIGHT in the fall social whirl was the Sadie Hawkins dance. Publicity shots and new stories written in Dogpatch venacular attracted wide-spread attention. Rosemary Akers (right) posed with Frank Norberg to help sell tickets. A bubble blowing contest (helpsy), entertained the crowd during intermission.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON before the Homecoming game, freshmen gathered cardboard and wood for the bonfire that night. A parade led by the Spurs, band, and Bear Paws, followed by the team riding in convertibles and snake dancing students, gathered around the bonfire for a pep rally (right) led by Yell King, Gene Hoyt.

BEVERLY HENNE (right) gave awards on Dad's day to F J. Hardenburgh, 67, as the oldest dad and to S. C. Smithwick of Eugene, Oreaon as the dad who traveled the farthest. As the dads arrived on campus Friday evening, they saw a unique conda-line pep rally. Saturday morning, Spurs led the dads on tours of the campus. Saturday afternoon, the Grizzlies played the Bobcats and won 35 to 12. That evening the Moon hoods played for a dance in the Gold room.

THE ATMOSPHERE was permeated with election news and official and unofficial campaigns. When like's train stopped at the N.P. depot, hundreds of townspeople and students turned out to greet him and to hear his quiet Sunday evening speech. He avoided politics that night. On compus two groups, the Young Republicans, and the Young Democrats sprang up and discussions in classes often drifted to the election news or became more heated than usual.

FALL HIGHLIGHTS

STAGING THE FIRST convo of the year, MSU's humor society, Kams and Dregs, kept an audience entertained for an hour with music and skits. Some of the high spots of the program were a wedding with Pat Koob singing "I Came to Your Wedding," the silent madrigal singers, the Sigma Nu quartet singing "Old Shep," and a political rally (above) sponsoring "Deccom" for President of the United States. Kams and Dregs are: lleft to right) Gene Hoyt, Pinky McCallie, Don Enebo, Neal McCardy, Jerry, Mitchell, Pete Densmore, Doug "Deccom" Anderson, Kay Hudson, Pat Fraher, George Boifeuillet, Pat Koob, Lew Perwell, Gordon Travis, Gib Leibinger, and Danny Lambros. The organization pulled a few mare stunts during fall and winter but by spring it seemed to be fading away.

DR. MURIEL R. LORAN stands beside a $10,000 Klett electrophoresis (left) in the pharmacy laboratory. With this machine she worked in animal tumor research. Grants totaling more than $16,000 have been made to Dr. Loran, an assistant professor in pharmacy, for her work. The grants came from the Damon Runyon Memorial fund and the American Concer society.

WINTER BROUGHT REALIZATION OF PLANS

AFTER TWO MONTHS of student debate and voting, Governor Hugo Aronson turned the earth on March 12 for the fifth building on campus-the Field House. The building would cover an area of 300 feet by 200 feet with a clear space of 200 feet by 160 feet. Large enough to hold six of the Moth-Physics building, it would accommodate as many as 6,000 persons for basketball games and 3,000 for concerts or shows. The building was not meant to be used only for athletic purposes but was designed for social and entertainment purposes. ROTC departments, the athletic department, the Public Service division, and the Alumni offices would also be housed in this building. Pledging their Student Union tion from the Student Activity fee for the next 30 years in order to get lower interest rates, students voted 637 to 169 for the Field House. Before ground was broken, however, students went through another hassle with the administration about merging a new Student Union with the Field House. After considerable debate and surveys, the concensus of opinion was definitely against the move.

Winter Weekends Wore Well

WITH THE BIG PARTIES

BANK NITE SHARK, Peder Hoiness (above) grinned gleefully as stocks went up and down and naxious stock holders kept the money circulating. On the gambling side of the board are Don Wall, Jim Norris, an unidentified, Danny Mullady and Jerry Smith.

THE MUSIC SCHOOL'S lush and plush Nite Club formal featured toe dancer Jackie Woodahl (left) and about five other acts. Six hundred students danced to the music of the Moon Moods while flower airls sold gardenias and sitters munched pretzels. Proceeds from the Saturday night affair went into the coffers of the student aid fund of the Music School foundation. The program was produced and directed by John Lester of the Music school faculty.

SINGING WAITERS, freshmen boys' quartet, (right) Den Schessler, Lewis Knox, Tom Nelson, and Bob Spiwak, held a long note at the Nite Club dance. The quartet, minus string ties and aprons, also filled the air with melody at the Music school's convocation.

SPONSORED BY ARNOLD AIR SOCIETY, Scabbard and Blade, Pershing Riffes and Sponsor Corps, the Military ball was the scene for dancing, tapping new members and a silent drill by the Pershing Rifles. Calonel Ercil Porter congratulated a new member and his date (right) while Dick Joy prepares to announce another name. Bill Dankers was in charge of the Pershing Rifle drill.

NEVER CEASING to entertain all tastes, the music school students and faculty gave recitals. Professor Eugene Andrie, orchestra conductor, (right) went through a tough practice session in the auditorium before his recital. He was accompanied by his wife.

NOT PENNIES from heaven but confetti from the ceiling of the Men's gym—the scene of the annual Forester's Ball. About 900 students watched the paper flutter amid the odor of evergreen boughs. This year's affair was held one evening instead of the usual two because the student body was smaller.

RECOVERED BY THE FORESTERS from the garage of a law student, old symbolic "Bertha" is jubilantly returned to his proper place in the Forestry school. Helping to redeem this outrage are Jim Pfusch, Dave Kauffman, Neil Peterson, Bill McNutt and Bart McNamee. Foresters claim "Bertha" is the largest moose head in these parts.

Biggest Winter Function

FORESTER'S BALL WELL ATTENDED

"MAN, CAN I USE THIS!" says bearded Art Holzweissig as he accepts an electric razor from Rolf Harmsen at the Forester's Ball. The razor is given as a first prize for the best bush of hair cultivated over a three month period preceding the Ball.

POUNDING THE RICKEY-TICK piano is George Stone who "Jet loose" with the old time stuff in the Forester's "bar." Singing along are Jim Pfusch and Dovne Tank.

SOMETHING DIFFERENT in the way of a party, the annual Newman club Mardi Gras afforded games, dancing and a chance for ingenuity on the part of the living groups. The ever popular Theta sponge throw (left) puts Shirley Sphene in an uncomfortable position.

THE KAPPA FREAK SHOW (below, left) afforded some unusual sights. Joan Grundstrom, tatooed lady and Janice Weatherston, bearded lady, were popular with the spectators.

CROWNED as Mardi Gras queen and king were Berta Huebl, Koppa Alpha Theta, and Bill Stang, Sigma Chi. Looking on were Grace Donisthorpe, Synadelphic candidate, and Van Olson, Phi Sigma Koppa candidate.

ROYALEERS, square dance club Iright1, practiced weekly for exhibitions in Missoula, Butte and other towns. In winter quarter they presented the Miss Photogenic contest and dance. Joann Haftle, Kappa Kappa Gamma freshman, was awarded the traditional silver cup and rose corsage by Bob Josken, Royaleer president. Royaleers pictured are: Betty Russell, Ethel Henderson, Bob Josken, Peggy Ask, Ralph Backa, Carl Wohlgenant, Fred Weeppel, Frank Kirschten, Larry Hoft, and Joan Harbolt.

AQUAMAIDS PRESENTED one of the best pageants they had ever staged according to perennial audiences. About 25 women swimmers did the numbers to the music of Morton Gould's orchestra. Wall decorations carried out the theme of Gould's music. Coached by Mexican foreign student, Magda Brueggenann, Olympic swimmer, the Aquamaids learned many new routines. In the number, "Singing in the Rain," (below) Phyllis Kind, Mary Calvert, Gerene Wilson and Ann Stephenson pose before entering the water.

MUSIC AND ENTERTAINMENT and a dish called Neptune's Noodles brought many a wandering collegian to the Bear Paw operated Fish Bowl. Bear Paws waited tables wearing broad costume sashes in keeping with the modern under sea pointings and draped net. Harry Roletto did the murals. Lucille Nichols, Ralph Rundle, Bob Senner, Jeanne Couture and John Beam spend a leisure moment at the night dub.

ABER DAY BECOMES USEFUL

After coming under faculty fire, participants gave Aber day a new lease on life this year. Good planning by chairman, Bob Graves and work committee head, Dick Shadoan, kept the events moving smoothly, while Marynell Curtis staged a bang-up variety show with frat and sorority aid.

Planting grass was a job tackled by four Sigma Chis (above). While Don Nyquist and Tom Nelson rake soil over the seed, Bill McMaster drives a stake from which to hand rope markers. Bill Campbell looks on Curbs near the Student Union were painted (right) by Phi Delts, (left to right) Wayne Roseth, Don Talcott, Bob Malmstad, and Ian Davidson.

BUT STILL FUN

In the afternoon rough and tumble Aber day contests were traditionally in order. Some of the boys made a pass at the five dollar bill atop the greased pole. In the initial scramble—white shirts were still white—Dick McDonald (right) led by a length on the climb. After a ten-minute free-for-all, Quentin Marino reached the money with the support of two pols.

"Justice" was also dealt to five defendants at High Court
"Deacon" Anderson was sentenced to the water trough for belonging to a "questionable organization," Kams and Dregs.
Bev Henne was released on the same charge. The trough also claimed Dan Lombros and Bob Newlin for (1) bringing the Snake River boys to the campus, and (2) plotting to take away the athlete's "financial" support. Kamelia Dregmont was charged with making "false" claims and was sentenced to wear a pair of flood lamps around her neck.

The court was slow in starting due to interception of the five judges during their trek from the Law school to the "bench" by a group of foresters. Gene Tidball, High Court boss, was complimented on the higher caliber of humor displayed at the court.

It wouldn't be Aber day without pie eating contests. In the men's competition (below) Don Orlich (behind the Iemon meringue) took top honors. The two lost in the berry creations are unidentified but they are being coached by M clubber, Bob Hudson and several small boys.

In the more eventful women's contest, marked by a full-face custord hit on an M club member, Bette Rae Wolfe and Katherine Hetler were announced as winners.

AFTER LUNCH (right) nearly every student went to the first Aber day variety show. The auditorium was packed and very few left till the two-hour show was over. Twelve acts kept the house laughing and applauding. Best two of the acts were the Delta Gamma-Sigma Nu production, "My Gun Wan't Even Work" which was a satire on Mickey Spillane's works with Bob Lazich starring as Mike Hammer, and the Corbin-New hall skit depirting different Coke store scenes.

The grand finale laid 'em in the aisles with George Hummell playing a duck call as one of the "Rake Sniver" boys. Twelve faculty members in can-can costumes spiritedly wound up the show.

More of the lawn raking was completed by coeds (below) this year while the men planted lawns and did repair work. Facing the camera are Carolin Porter, Georgia George, Kay Hudson and Marlene Cresein.

Chow time found everyone ready and waiting.

With the men working elsewhere, coeds finished the raking in short order.

TRACK MEET INTERMISSION, NO LETUP FOR COLLEGIANS

UNIVERSITY STUDENTS were kept busy during Interescholastic week by either entertaining the high school students, refereeing their competitions or accommodating them with information.

An SOS (left) put collegians in the spirit of Track Meet on Thursday evening. Friday began the competition of students from 104 Montana High schools in events ranging from track and field contests to golf, tennis, speech, drama and newspaper work. Meanwhile, the fraternities, sororities and dorms put the finishing touches on their displays, not only to compete for the prize, but to explain by audio-visual aids why MSU is best. Alpha Phis (below) expanded their Wizard of Oz theme to include MSU.

SIGMA NU TOOK first place in the fraternity house decorations and Sigma Koppa first place in the sorority house decorations. At the track field Spurs awarded medals to winning trackmen and officially gave their spurs to the freshmen members they had topped early that morning.

Track Meet provided thrills even to the most hardened spectator when die-hard energetic, teen-agers fought for points and medals (above). On Friday and Saturday evenings the Bear Paws sold refreshments in their Fish Bowl to high school students who came to the Gold room dance. THE MARCHING BAND members (below) pressed their uniforms to be reviewed by the high schoolers and to lead the parade of athletes. Earlier in the week the symphonic band gave a concert on the corner of Front and Higgins to boost Interscholastic ticket sales. At the same time the M club, Spurs, Bear Paws, Kams and Dregs, American Legion, Air Force Cadets, Band Spansor corps, J-school, speech, drama, and tennis and golf team members met at the N.P. depot to assemble for a parade with decorated cars ranging from 1900 models to 1953 models. The parade was led by Mayor Starr and Karen Whittet.

SPRING MEANT OUTDOOR ACTIVITIES

FORESTERS made trips throughout the West to study forest and range management. Those who went were Clyde Blake, Bernard Coster, Bill Covey, Max Dolato, Neil Edstrom, Charles Gansel, Bob Hayes, Allen Hearst, John Heckman, Arne Jacobsen, Don Jensen, Carl Johnson, Jim Johnson, Ray Karr, Dave Kauffman, Bob Kemler, Charles Knutson, Ralph Leader. Dick Marks, Don Lantz,

FIRST BIBLER BOUNCE PROVIDES EXTRA FUN

Bev Henne names Bibler characters.

ASMSU PROMOTION anglers whose pulses and minds quickened with the hint of sprina fished around for an idea to liven up the season. With the Bibler Bounce as an excuse for a dance and a little unprecedented voting, they hooked the Great Falls eir base band to provide dance music and a convo. A large crowd took advantage of the opportunity for fun. Kappa Kappa Gamma, Ellie Anderson was elected Frieda; Jules Karlin, professor of history, was elected Prof Snarf and Jerry Murphy was elected Worthal.

The band "gives" (above) with the sweet and sentimental. Beverly Henne, (below) Traditions board chairman, calls Frieda, Snarf and Worthal to the bandstand at intermission time.

Payoff for a hard year of study and drilling are the awards given at the last review.

SPRING ENDS IN

ABOUT 95 STUDENTS received honors at the last ROTC review. Bill Rife (left) received an autstanding infantry cadet medal and a handshake from Colonel Porter. During spring quarter, colorful reviews with the ROTC students, the ROTC band and the Sponsor corp were staged each Monday from 5 to 6 p.m.

Like so many rounds of dinners and parties (below) given for graduating seniors by underclassmen, the kids who hang around the main floor of the Union (for one reason or norther) gave a dinner, planned and prepared by Walter O'Donnell, for the seniors who hang around the Union (for one reason or another). They are: Pat Thomas, Harry Burnell, Norm Anderson, Don Cameron, Helen Lenhart, Cyrile Van Duser, Jerry Murphy, Beverly Johnson, Elmer Lloyd, Mary Nicol, Harold Nicol, Bob Dundas, Sandra Hamilton, Shirley Guettler, Danny Lambros, Creta Stucky, Muriel Griffin and Hurley Wilson.

Seniors live high during senior week; underclassmen foot the bill.

FESTIVITIES

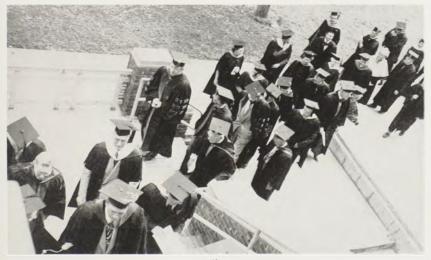

ONE OF THE FEW purely sentimental traditions of MSU is the lantern parade for senior women. Underclassmen (right) arrived early to unfold their lanterns and to be sure their candles would burn. Among them are: Rosemary Cosens, Joyce Pikkula, Cynthia Bryson, MaryAnn Kocar, Carlene Dragstedt, Janet Thomson, Kathleen Booth, Donna Murroy, Patricia Koob, Janet Tierney and Alice Mowatt.

Truly impressive are the professors and deans in their black robes and strikingly colored hoods. Like brightly plumed birds, they carry themselves with assurance and a trace of vanity. It's enough to make a plain-colored graduate envisors.

Underclassmen prepare for lantern parade.

Faculty members were colorful on Graduation day.

UNIVERSITY GRADUATES 327 ON PLEASANT, COOL DAY

MSU contributed 327 of the nation's 300,000 college graduates in spring 1953 and granted 20 master's degrees. Commencement exercises were more enjoyable this year than last because the day was pleasantly cool with a thin overcast. The procession (above) began at Main hall, came around the oval to the entrance of the oval and then down the walk on the west side of the new humanities building to the Student Union building.

The Bishop of the Diccese of Helena, Joseph M. Gilmore, gave the Baccalaureate address. A speaker wasn't scheduled for commencement because it would make the ceremony too long. Biggest moment (right) came when family and friends were greeted, pictures were taken, bars were pinned, kisses given and hands shook. Looking forward to some free time and rest at home, a job, marriage, travel or the army beyond that; it's a happy moment to live through

Stan Kenton's "Inovations"

NAME BANDS FREQUENT IN '52 -- '53

Henry Busse

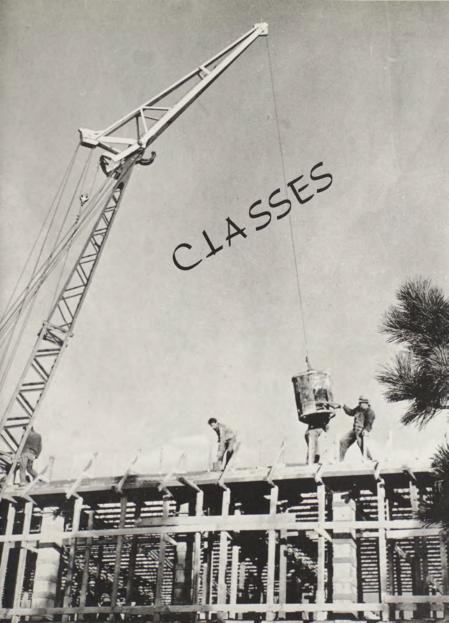

Stan Kenton with his "Inovations" (above) was the first name band in '53. Giving a concert and then a dance, a half hour of which was broadcast over NBC, the 20piece Kenton band attracted a full house.

Henry Busse (left) first band in fall '52 allowed ASMSU to break even in its investment. His 16 pieces were pronounced most danceable by name-band regulars. The "Band of Renown" (below) played to a full house November 25 at a concertdance engagement. What was made on the Brown band and the other bands was lost on an engagement with Johnny Reitz. Those who went said he was good and his floor show was fine but he wasn't well enough known.

Horace Heidt oppeared in May with his cast of 40 including the Heidtsteppers, the Musical Knights, Johnny Standley, Ralph Sigwald, etc. Of the three local contestants, Jeanne Couture received first place for her singing; Jack Miller, saxaphonist, second place; and Eleanor Fox and Lewis Knox third place for their vocal duet.

CLASS OFFICERS

THE CLASS OFFICERS met a number of times during the year to discuss campus problems and gain a better understanding of them. The official name of the officers collectively was the Student Ideas for University Betterment committee, but it was known by its nickname, Gripe board. The class officers carried out the individual class projects and kept track of the new student activity interest cards. Back: Chairman Tom Sherlock. Bob Griffin, Doug Anderson, and George Paul. FOREIGN STUDENTS

While MSU strives to keep Montana students in Montana, many people from all over the world carry on their studies through scholarships and independently on MSU campus. Pictured above are ten of these students who participated in MSU's educational program during 1952-23,

Joseph, from Breze, Yugoslavia also attended school in Great Falls. A pharmacy graduate this year, he was a member of Kappa Edward, the only married student of the ten, came to MSU from Tuguegaro, Philippine Islands. He graduated from here in modern languages and is now becoming a U. S. citizen.

Enrique helped his father manage a cattle ranch in Cordoba, Argentina, before he came to Montana. Majoring in forestry, he will take his newly-learned methods and ideas back to South America.

Doreen, an English major from Athens, Greece, will be remembered for her outstanding stories published in Venture,

Liv, a chemistry major from Oslo, Norway, was also a member of the MSU women's ski team,

Maria, Lima, Peru, majored in business administration. Her bright smile at the cash register greeted coke store patrons

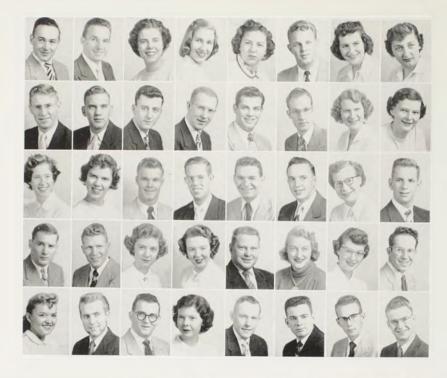

Kathleen from Antigua, British West Indies, majored in pre-med. Her ambition is to become a doctor, and return to her Colette from Dyon, France, served a quorter os an assistant teacher in the modern language department. She received a scholarship to further this work at UCLA next year after receiving both her B.A. and M.A. from MSU.

Claudie, another French girl from Niece, was an English mojor at MSU. She received a scholarship from Cleveland, Ohio, which Magda, Mexico City, Mexico, is completing her degree by correspondence. Although majoring in business administration, she assisted in the physical education department. Magda, an Olympic swimmer, was both star and co-director of the 1953.

WINDED FROM RUNNING around the football field rather than the distant proposed building site, the Alpine Kom and Dreg legion overran Dr. Carl McFarland's Main Hall office during a hush-hush Central board meeting concerning the Field House-Student Union merger. KAY HUBSON broke the laughter with. "The Matterborn was never like this!" DOUG "DEACON" ANDERSON followed with, "I never thought it would take us a week." DANNY LAMBROS fouled his lines with uncontrolled laughter, but the day was saved by Bill Jones who questioned, "Where have you been?" DOUB BIGHLE completed the corefully planned dialogue with, "We've just been to the proposed site of the new Field House-Student Union." The heretics, accompanied by a planted photographer, Seldon Beck, departed.

DANNY LAMBROS

DON CAMERON

ASMSU POLITICIANS

ASMSU PRESIDENT DANNY LAMBROS AND BUSINESS MANAGER DON CAMERON led the student body through a controversy-filled year and left their offices with increased experience. Big issues of the year were the Field House proposal and election when student activity funds were obligated to the extent of $25,000 for the next thirty years. Danny's bargaining over the phone resulted in dances and concerts with Stan Kenton, Les Brown, Henry Busse, and the Snake River Boys. The official capacities of the two arbitrators included presence and participation at Central board, Athletic board, and Social Standards committee. Don was chairman of Budget and Finance which oversaw the apportionment of student funds.

Danny and Don agreed with Central board in encouraging the spending of money to increase student interest and participation in activities rather than having the money go back into the general fund. Don and Danny treked to a conference of student leaders in Utch and thus began a deluge of student trips to other confabs. The officers were always eager to discuss student body problems with interested students and helped make the gaudy ASMSU office a busy corner. The two also expressed their opinions in columns in the Kaimin. Both are members of Sigma Nu social fraternity, Silent Sentinel, and Alpha Kappa Psi. Danny is a law student and member of Phi Delta Phi, Kams and Dregs, and Student Christian association. Sample Luckies were given out by Don, who is a member of the Debate team, Tau Kappa Alpha, Royaleers, and Wesley foundation.

HAZEL-EYED MARY JOAN TASCHER faithfully took the minutes of Central board and as ASMSU Secretary did her part in helping make the policies and decisions for the year of student activity. Mary Joan was awarded a number of scholarships and will be doing graduate work at Bryn Mawr college in Pennsylvania.

ACTIVE JAMIE BRENNAN, vice-president of ASMSU, planned the social calendar with the help of the social calendar with the help of the social calendar with living groups. She is post president of Spurs and Panhellenic and former Sweetheart of Sigma Chi. Jamie and Bob Stenbeck plan family life after graduation.

ASMSU PUBLIC SERVANTS

OUTSIDE ENTERTAINMENT COMMITTEE CO-

operated with the Community Concert association and brought Vivian Della Chrissa, Igor Gorin, the Gershwin Concert Orchestra, and the Langine Symphonette to the campus Back; Bill Jones, co-chairman Harry Burnell, Maurice Lokensgard, and John Boyd. Middle: Ceclaio Ullman, Bevrly Herman, Myrna Dolven, Laura Shrock, and Jane Vollentine. Forat: Pat O'Connor, co-chairman Ann Fowler, Georgia George, and Donalee Wheelbarger.

CONVOCATIONS COMMITTEE obtained speakers and scheduled the year's convo entertainment which included the Kams and Dregs convo before the MSU-MSC game, a Sinfonia program, and the annual Foresters' fiscos. Srending: John Lester, Cyrile Van Duser, Dr. Luther Richman, Robert Struckman, Henry Laram, and Edmund Freeman, Seated: Paul Hansen, Dorothy Ross, Virginia Hays, chairman Gene Tüball, and Bernard Mogstad.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE planned the social calendar for the year and fried keeping all the groups happy and content with their function dates. Members include Bob Burke, Carla Wetzsteon, Maurice Lokensgord, chairman Jamie Brennan, and Mary Larcombe, not pictured.

M BOOK COMMITTEE edited the M Book, "Your Key to the Campus," which included hips for frosh, a roster of student officials, traditions of MSU, phone numbers and addresses of living groups, and university administration. The committee consisted of Skulason Moe, Joon Bachman, and Jim Ford. Not pictured were Maxine Hightower and chairman Wolly Hoffman TRADITIONS BOARD, one of the busiest committees on compus, started the year by selecting new cheer leaders. The group planned SOS's, sponsored the painting of the M. aided in the orientation of freshmen, Homecoming, Dads' Day, and Aber Day, had the first Bibler Bounce, and initiated the Robert Sibley award.

ATHLETIC BOARD discussed the possible elimination of jockets, sweaters, and M Club blankets. They planned the budget and become involved in controversy about the M Club section at basketball games. The board sponsored the ski team for the first time and increased the traveling basketball squad from ten to twelve. They dealt with $115,000 and tried to spread if over six sports. Standing: Boh Abbott, Bob Fraser, Don Cameron, and Kirk Badgley. Seated: Mary Joan Tascher, chairman Dan Lambros, Harry Adams. Not pictured, Bill McMasters.

BUDGET AND FINANCE COMMITTEE

kept in mind activity fees, campus population, percentages of distribution of activities, while parceling out the remaining general fund. Planning the 1953-54 financial schedule took much of their time. The committeemen were slightly freer with the purse strings of the general fund than in the past and were eager to give money to deserving student groups and causes. Standing: Tom Van-Meter, Kirk Badgley, chairman Don Cameron, and Byran Robb. Seated: Postricia Walker and Shirley DeForth. Not prictured. Herbert Wunderlich.

PUBLICATIONS BOARD held the power over ASMSU publications: Kamini, Sentinel, and the newly launched Venture magazine. They appointed the wheels and caps of the publications and helped keep frem efficient. Standing: Joan Brooks, Jerry, Murphy, Doug Anderson, Lew Keim, and Helen Lehnert Seated: Cyttle Van Duser, choirmon Betty Smith, Edward Dugan, and Herbert Wunderlich.

NEW STUDENT UNION COMMITTEE, a part of Student Union Executive board, was reborn this year and investigated various student union plans. The members met with faculty leaders and discussed needed and desired facilities. They helped veto the Field House-Student Union merger and showed independence in studying plans and proposed locations. In order to make more practical plans the committee polled public opinion. Standing: Boyd Baldwin, Ann Woods, chairman Peder Hoiness, Georgia George, Doug Anderson, Barbara Sheffels, and Dave Leuthold. Seated: Janice Weatherston, Dorothy Reeves, Mary Mattson, Donna Border, and Ruth Buzzetti.

PUBLICITY TRAVEL COMMITTEE was one of the units charged with the responsibility of increasing the flow of information from the University to high school students and other Montana citizens. Hand in hand with Andy Cogswell and the Public Service Division the group allotted money to diplomats at large who travel and meet potential recruits. Campus musicians added greatly to the mileage and the future enrollment. Standing: Keith Terrell, chairman Doug Beighle, and Jack Streeter. Seated: Donna Bar and Virginia Hays. Not pictured: Andy Cogswell, former chairman Dave Leuthold. Naomi Sherlock, Tom Sherlock, and Leo Smith.

SOCIAL STANDARDS COMMITTEE met infrequently during the year to discuss compus and student morals, and to look into individual cases. The number of meetings was an indication of a well-behaved student body. Standing: Chairman Dr. Gordon Browder, Herbert Wunderlich, and Dr. John Stewart. Sected: Carol Crouch, Ann Platt, Agnes Stoodley, Maurine Clow, and Mollie Iler. Not pictured: Dan Lambros and Don Cameron.

PRESIDENT MOLLIE ILER handled the problems of AWS with dentle hands and kept things rolling smoothly. Mollie went to the Western Regional convention in Berkeley, California and the four state meet in Pullman, Washington, As a result of the trips four new committees, were instituted.

VEEP JARY NELSEN was in charge of the Judicial board which wrote a new up-to-date set of rules. Jary headed the rules revisions committee for the campus handbook and worked on the AWS constitution.

SECRETARY MARILYN KINTNER posted notices of those to whom compuses were granted and stock minutes or the meetings. Carlo Wetzsteon and Ruby Lindstrom helped out during fall quarter after which Marilyn finished the job.

TREASURER MARILYN FOSTER kept track of the bills and their payment. Thanks to budget-conscious Marilyn, AWS didn't run in the red. As president for next year she will continue to be active in AWS.

ASSOCIATED WOMEN STUDENTS

ASSOCIATED WOMEN STU-DENTS worked with Miss Clow. Associate Dean of Students. in formulating and enforcing rules for women students. The activities for the year included a retreat at Montana Power park, tea for the Missoula mothers, sharing in the tea for freshmen women, the Lantern parade honoring senior ly, the handbook "Carol Coed" by Dinny Nelligan, the biglittle sister program planned by Mary Joan Tascher, and a booth at the Mardi Gras. There were many long discussions over the giving of campuses, and a hassle over the future of the Miss Montana program. The the pageant lost out. Back: Janet Olson, Pat O'Connor, Ruby Lindstrom, Betty Elmore, and Davis Watson. Middle: Angie Oberto, Janet McKenzie, Rowena Day, and Lois Jean Baker. Front: Mollie Her, Jary Nelsen, Marilyn Kintner, and Marilyn Faster. Not pictured: Marie Mastorovich, Millie Mendel, Carla Wetzsteon, and advisor Maurine Clow.

MISS MONTANA COMMITTEE began planning the pageant and did much work in selection and training of candidates, choosing of judges, publicity, and overall management. The program was discontinued in the midst of work and plans due to its impracticability and finances. The time spent was valued for the experience and stimulated interest in the program.

Beck: Armond Pepe, Doug Beighle, Dick Hansen, Doug Anderson, and George Borfeuillet. Middle: Mrs. Robert Breen, Goy Vannoy, Jamie Yule, Darlene Speck, and Pat Strope. Front: Ilen Egger, Gwen Gholson, chairman JoAnn Grundstrom, Lynn Jelinek, and Beverly Terpening.

MISS MONTANA CANDIDATES were trained under the direction of Mrs. Robert Breen and Gay Vannoy. The girls were nominated by students and faculty members on the basis of talent, personality, and beauty. Even though the pageant was not held the candidates benefited from the training in department, poise, and presentation. Other girls also took part in the training sessions. Candidates were, back: Margery Crockett, Donna Murray, Shirley DeForth, JoMae Chase, Jeanne Couture, Rowena Day, and Donna Nooney. Front: Billy McFarland, Anna Jane Caldwell, Leana Facincani, Berta Huebl, Verna Johns, Elizabeth Bluechel, and Pat O'Hare.

ANDY COGSWELL, head of the division, adminstrates the news service, alumni office, and netivities such as the home study and adult education services, and the correspondence school tram his office in the basement of the Low building.

BERT HANSEN, community consultant, works directly with Montanans on various community projects. Much of his time is spent editing scripts and directing summer pageants throughout the state.

MARY MARGARET COURTNEY, secretary in the home study and adult education office, is the "middle man" between correspondent and the extension student and his instructor and is also "dispatcher" for the University car pool.

BILL SPAHR is involved in a never ending round of tope recordings and transcriptions of the audible talents of the University. They are distributed to many parts of the state and nation and aid in good will and increased enrollment.

HELEN WARDEN, alumni records secretary, keeps records of all alumni, collects their dues, writes much of the news in the alumni news bulletin, and allocates commencement tickets.

EARL MARTELL, director of news and publications service, and TOM ROBERTS, news assistant, write and relicase all news of University and student activities, and write and edit virtually all University non-student publications. The two also obtain photos of compus news events and scenery for publication.

THE STUDENT UNION EXTERIOR with its bright umbrella-shaded tables took on new color fall quarter. The meeting piace of students and faculty, the student union was obuzz with activity and people either rushing from meeting to meeting, purchasing in the Book store, relaxing in the Coke store, lounging in the lounge, playing in the game room, or transacting in the business office. The evenings were well filled with club meetings, marching, dencing, and office work. The Student Union Executive board lorded over the functions of the Union, mulled over the Field House problem, and initiated action for next year's council which will have an elected student president and working committees.

BOOK STORE and Coke store are owned and operated by the Associated Students and are housed on the lower floor of the Student Union. The store supplies the students with text books, supplies, novelties, notions, confections, and athletic supplies. Five students and five full-time people are employed by the store. Back: Gene Carlson, Tom Ritter, Steve Hucko, and Mark Hammerness. Frent: Betty Lou Nelson, Helen Aune, and Joy Needham. Not pictured: Shirley Hardy, Ellsworth Jones, Don Olson, and Morris McCollum.

COKE STORE face lifting with pictures of student personalities and murals helped increase its popularity. This picture shows the noon shift. Nearly forty students work here during the fourteen hour day. The tables are well filled during free class time, between classes, and during convox. The staff consists of manager Jack Cuthbert, Harold Maus, Don Halverson, Leon Conner, Marllyn Nichol, Jerry Donnelly, Ralph Backa, Kathryn Lindseth, Mrs. Verna Rice, Diana Penwell, Mrs. Sena Hausted, Mrs. Mae Brown, and Jim Tutwiler.

STORE BOARD is the elected governing body of the Associated Students' Store which includes the fountain, cafeteria and book store. Store board plans the budgets of the store and discusses policies during the luncheon meetings. Stradings Jack Cuthbert, Paul Bischoff, Park Densmore, J. W. Severy, and Marris McCollum. Seated: Jack Thomas, Helen Aune, Joy Needham, and Bob Artz.

STUDENT UNION EXECUTIVE BOARD managed the many sub-committees working in various phases of the building and student activity operation. Members of the committee made a trip to Pullman, Washington, to review plans for a new Union. Back: Barbara Pence, Dick Biggerstoff, Norman Anderson, Peder Hoiness, chairman Anton Hollinger, and LouMarilyn Vierhus, Front: Vincent Wilson, Cyrile Van Duser, Edward Dugan, Maurine Clow, and Herbert Wunderlich. Not pictured: Kirk Badgley.

NIGHT CLERKS helped make it possible for students to work, dance, march, and enjoy themselves in the Union. They looked after the crowds and helped check coats for dances and public functions. The clerks are Bob Burr, Hurley Wilson, Emmet Hoynes, and Bill Brock-ley, not pictured.

BUSINESS OFFICE staff kept track of all the money that went through the 137 organizations, five fraternities, and two sororities which have their accounts there. Streams of students received help with their business troubles. One of the purposes of the office is to help new organization officers in planning their financial matters. The picture shows Chuck Teague, fraternity bookkeeper; Mary Nicol, supervisor, cashier, bookkeeper, and student advisor; Kirk Badgley, student comptroller; Shirley Guettler, sorority and assistant bookkeeper; Joy Hope, typist; and Bob Dundas, head bookkeeper; Joy Hope, typist; and Bob Dundas, head bookkeeper;

In Special Recognition

Of all the students interested in the growth of the University, perhaps the one who has done the most to turther that growth is photographer, Ted Hewett. Relatively little could be achieved in having a fine university such as ours, if that university did not communicate its worth to the autside world. In this area of publication, Ted, with the reportorial ability of Bill Jones produced a 20-minute, sound-color movie. Except for his materials and an extra real of the movie for himself, he completed a project, without any reimburssement, which will influence the building of Montana State University for years to come.

THE MONTANA KAIMIN

KAIMIN kept the students and faculty well versed in their activities. The staff and reporting class had their fingers in every compus pie and knew all the inside dope so that they soon felt like majors in the departments they reported. After four days a week of reporting, editing, and copyreading the busy staffers often sought nightcops after putting the paper to bed.

LEW KELM. editor, with his staff covered the Field House and Student Union campaigns expertly. His best editorials dealt with the Duke Ellinaton dance and the proposed legislative bill to combine presidents of all the state higher education components in Montana. Lew drew fire in the letters to the editor column and was equally femous for his replies. Receders found many becutiful exemples of horizontal make-up throughout the issues of the student publication. Lew, a Signa Nu and Silent Sentinel, was also a member of Signa Delta Chi, Upon exit of the editor "Party, Inc." completely atrophied.

JOY EAST, business manager, tried to keep the Kaimin on sound financial tracks. She tolerated a smell advertising staff and bravely faced the threat of outgo on less income. Much of her time was spent with Winnie Dinn, advisor Ed Dugan, and pressroom foreman Claud Lord increasing receipts and cutting down costs. The immigrant from Idaho alternated between the life of a financier and that of a public relationist. Jay was a member of Mortar Board, Theta Sigma Phi and the Coke store.

EDWARD DUGAN, Kaimin advisor, reached the eighth postwar year still intact along with his wartme Navy jokes. Dugan served as moderator between the "Great Uniwashed" and the Kaimin staff. He sometimes wished that the advertising staff would produce as well as his female cat. Besides his feline interests he specifiedly noons at Montana forum, meets with the Student Union Executive Board, carefully participates in Publications board, and is the mainstay of the journalism bowling team.

BILL JONES, copy editor, associate, and overseer of copyreaders, spored no time and work in covering the special events such as the Field House and S.U. merger and frequent Central board disputes. Bill spent much time reporting and writing his column, "Humoresque," as well as the script for the film, "This is Your University."

FRANK NORBERG, sports editor and associate, graduated at the end of fall quarter and soon after became editor of the Wolf Point weekly. In his column, "This Week," he interpreted the sports field and gove much play to football. A boxer himself, Frank covered with special attention the boxing events.

ALLAN ROSE, news editor, associate, and holder of the time record for the "poper-to-bed-in-double-quick-time" honor resigned at the end of inter quarter to take a position with the Aramy. He was replaced by Ray Moholt.

BETTY SMITH, feature editor and associate, oversaw the society section and was responsible for the abundance of columns. A Tri Delt, she is a former junior sponsor, wrote "The Coed," was editor of the Theta Sig issue and the "Lewistown Daily News."

TED HEWETT, photographer, also took many pictures for the News Service. Another member of "Party, Inc.," Ted, an active independent, took the movie, "This Is Your University," as well as getting more than several journalists through photography class.

JACK ZYGMOND, sports editor and associate, replaced Frank Norberg winter quarter. His brisk writing added color to the sports page. He was also top basketball and soft-ball player in the intramural league.

CARLA WETZSTEON, assistant news editor and associate beginning fall quarter, specialized in forestry, society, and Ted Hewett. Carla spent the year Spurring and filled in as AWS secretary.

RAY MOHOLT, news editor and associate, took over from Allan Rose winter quarter and was in charge of reporters and special events. He was kept busy as editor of the Press club, "Incinerator," and president of that organization.

PAT EYER, circulation manager, replaced a long line of inefficient types and thrived on the early hours of snow and cold. Pat campaigned for an English bike to save footsteps in carrying and dropping Kaimins.

THE FRESHMEN KAIMIN in its beginning stages on the copy death with Mary DeJarnette in the slot and Earl Dutton on the rim. Material from the four-storied copy sifter goes to the copyreaders who put a head on the stories and send them down to the printer. It's as simple as that.

EDITOR HELEN LENHART, herself an independent sort, let the associates be independent in their ideas and deadlines. Spending much of her time in the darkroom and as the potron of "Venture," Helen found Time to have her violin lessons and her daily fiddling. With an unprecedented filing system she kept he distill guessing as to where the missing pictures and copy were to be found. Not one to be worried by things gone askew, the placid editor faced cold reality, and with a small group of loyal staff members wound up the book.

BUSINESS MANAGER PEDER HOINESS watched over the Sentinel budget with a sharp evil eye. "Do you have a requisition" Peder rade herd on Sentinel nickels until he found greener pastures as 1954 ASMSU Business Manager. A Sigma Chi and future married man, Peder got in training for budget mindedness. 1952 Sentinels become a medium of exchange due to their scarcity, but the crew-cutted one kept them vaulted tighter than Fort Knox.

ADVERTISING MANAGER BILL CAMPBELL took, over the job of looking after the ad chasers. A Signio Chij, Bill assigned the bringing in of the much needed revenue to the freshmen ad staff. Ad sales lagged all year, until he personally put on a spirited compargn and pulled in the necessary ads to fill up the section and the pieary bank.

year ahead of time.

PAT THOMAS Sentinel's most consistent associate, led the staff in the race for deadlines. Between organ lessons, Aquamaids, and Alpha Phi, Pat managed to apply for the Sentinel's business manager post and took over the responsibility early. During the last part of the year Pot Insished up the work of the year Pot Insished up the well as her own organization section.

BEV HENNE, associate, also Traditions board chairman, Kams and Dregs High Potentate, Central board delegate, and KAT, had her chief interest in Dick Dybe, Best Control of the Greek, senior, and queens section. Chosen outstanding senior woman by Theta Sigma Phi, Bev Leaves all this for housewife life.

JERRY MURPHY, associate, was in charge of the sports section and had part responsibility for the seniors. Through the senior section of the senior section of the senior section of the senior section of the senior section with the ladies lingared on to the end, although he begon resting on his laures.

SELDON BECK, chief photographer, acquired the nickname, "Seldumb," and came to the rescue with technical knowledge . . . also smoke bombs and radio transmitters as Sentinel's Edison. Always up to something, Seldon worked ungodly hours in the darkroom getting out the final products of negatives. One of the office fixtures and new associates, he never failed being the focal point of the wroth of the editors and administration.

MARGERY FOOT, the only person at MSU who understands the system of indexing, carried off the grueling task with efficiency and dispatch. While she worked she was never too busy to observe and be amused by the antics of the staff.

MURIEL GRIFFIN, a complete and condensed Sentinel staff herself, did everyone else's work and contributed to the cheer and high spirits of the staff. She baked cakes for birthday parties and kept members supplied with goodles. Muriel will take over as an associate next year to become one of the rare female sports editors.

TED HEWETT, photographer, shot for the News Service and the Kaimin and loaned a najority of pictures to the Sentinel. Ted always saw the campus with the eye of a shutter-bug and Carla Wetzsteon acted as the birdie.

THE ADVERTISING STAFF under the direction of Bill Campbell and with the immovable shadow of Peder Hoiness, started fall quarter with a bang in the selling of ads to local establishments and home town merchants. Left to right they are Joann Haftle, Jere Lee Rivenes, Lois LeDuc, Don Wall, Alice Smith, Ron Munger, Audrey Richardson, and Mary Ellen Erickson; in front are Bill Campbell, George Bovingdon, and Jim Norris; and not pictured is Don Olson.

CHUCK COOPER contributed to the usable file of abstract photographic art which appears in the book. He also filmed the faculty and sports events.

INEZ MYERS, stickler for detail, aided in the initial fall quarter duties. She turned out impressive letters to the engraving, printing, and cover companies.

DEL MULKEY stepped into the office during the last part of the year and wrote activity copy in an informal appealing style. Del also did artwork for "Venture."

CYRILE VAN DU-SER, Sentinel advisor, dropped in from her office around the corner to see how the book was coming along end to help out with her photographic knowledge, equipment, and advice when it was needed.

KAY HUDSON reintroduced the activity pictures and stories for her dorm section. Another one of the '54 associates, Koy, during her fourth quarter in attendance become ASMSU Vice-president, a post which ordinarily requires at least seven.

LARRY GAUGHAN worked on the fraternity and sorority section while he was hiding out from his fraternity brothers who have a custom of tying to trees those who have have hung their pins. He and Shirley DeForth, both active on compus, did considerable grade curve sharpening.

CRETA STUCKY wrote copy for the drama section as well as stories for national magazines. One of next year's associates, Creta believed in "a finger in every pie," and had her share of campus activities.

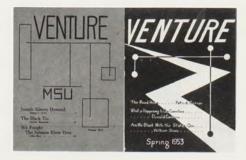

BUSY TYPING out the index on one of the two new machines are Margery Foot and Rito Steinbrink. Joan Croghan (not pictured), one of the hardest working freshmen, also put in many hours in the corner office in the Student Union building. Happily planning the '54 book are future Business Manager Pat Thomas and Editor Deacon Anderson.

VENTURE

THE NEW ALL-SCHOOL MAGAZINE attempted to give students on outlet for their creative abilities in the fields of writing and drawing. Allan Rose, one of the students receiving rewards for writing, was the recipient of the Joyce Memorial prize for his crticle on fire fighting in the winter issue. Doreen Magazian, Fulbright student from Greece, received the second Joyce Memorial prize for her story, "Fog," in the spring issue. Delbert Mulkey received a Venture award for his line drawings. Advisor Henry Larom sparked Publication board into making money available and establishing a Venture staff. Helen Lenhart, as a senior journalism project, took responsibility of getting the first issue out and continued editing during spring. Appearing in snappy abstract covers, Venture printed articles and stories from students representing the English department, to the Physical Education and Pharmacy departments. Artists too represented departments from Business Administration to Wildlife. Back: Advisor Henry Larom, co-art editors Dick Crist and Art Jette, makeup editor Helen Lenhart, editorial board member Bill Jones, and artist Del Mulkey. FORESTRY KAIMIN

THE STAFF OF THE YEARBOOK of the Forestry school put in a busy year in their Forestry building office. Included in the yearly are articles of a technical and semi-technical nature written by forestry students, accounts of the year's forester activities, and a list of students and their addresses. The 58-page book is distributed in the fall to forestry students, alumni, and others interested in the field of forestry.

DR. STANLEY HAMILTON replaced Mr. LeRoy Hinze who was working on his doctor's degree at the University of Illi-nois this year. Dr. Hamilton directed the summer session little theater and the three major MSU productions, "Mardocles and the Lion," "Death of a Salesman," and "Light Up the Sky," He received his Ph.D. from the University of Utoh and came here from Santa Barbara college. He received his B.A. and M.A. degrees from the University of lowa and was director of Play Shop at Purdue University. During the war Dr. Hamilton was the entertainment director of China, Burma, and India theaters and while there went on seven tours of Asia with his company.

DAVID WEISS designed the sets ranging from a Roman coliseum to a New York pent house apartment for the three Masquer productions this year. He also took a major role as Ferrovius, a Christian of tremendous strength and a quick temper, in the play, "Androcles and the Lion." Weiss who received his M.A. from the University of Wisconsin, specializes in lighting and design. Before coming to MSU last year, he worked with professional summer stock and with a road show for a season.

ANDROCLES AND THE LION

"ANDROCLES AND THE LION" portrayed the story of Christian martyrdom in the times of ancient Rome Androcles (Jack Shapira), a hen-pecked husband, befriends a lion (Tom Sherlock) in the forest who later protects Androcles from his wife (Pat Koob) and from death in the Roman Coliseum. The group of Christians along with Androcles who face martyrdom represent several kinds of people from the whimpering Spintho (Gordon Rognlien) who wants to die and gets himself thrown all over the stage, to the gigantic Ferrovius (Dave Weiss) who doesn't know his own strength and though he wants to be gentle, yet thrills in overpowering the gladiators. Lavina (the female lead played by Marge Lovberg), a Christian who falls in love with the Roman captain (Frank Arness), provided the romantic interest in the play. Like most humans, the Christians did not fully understand the cause for which they were willing to die. But all ends happily when Androcles meets the lion and they dance through the final scene.

Playing a very human part in a fable play and an obviously unrealistic one, Jack Shapira received special praises. Well deserved, too, were the praises given to Tom Sherlock.

OF A SALESMAN

"HAVE YOU SEEN HERB CARSON?" was on the lips of every theater-going student during winter quarter. Herb brought to the stage of MSU one of the most human portrayals seen in his characterization of Willy Loman in "Death of a Salesman" Herb and Skip Rognlien (above left), Willy's boss, talk of Willy's growing failure as a salesman. Marjorie Lovberg (above right) who "puts him to the buyers" derides Willy in his hotel room in Boston. This scene poses one of the main problems in Willys life when his oldest son, Biff, finds that he has been unfaithful to his wife. Willy's relatives and friends (bottom) attend Willy's funeral (left to right) Willy's youngest son, Happy, played by Jack Shapira; his wife, played by Pat Koob; his oldest son, Biff, played by Tom Sherlock, Willy's best friend, Charlie, played by Tom Kilpatrick; and Charlie's successful son, played by Alan Goddard.

WILLY (HERB CARSON) and his wife (Pat Koob) watch with horror and concern as Willy's wealthy brother, Ben, played by Neil Edstrum, shows Biff (Tom Sherlock) and Happy (Jack Shapira) how to fight in the jungle.

TOM SHERLOCK, Herb Carson and Jack Shopiro talk over old times and discuss ways of getting ahead in this world. Credit goes to the stagecraft people and to those who worked on lighting for the show.

Two "girl friends" (Lois Le-Duc and Donna Murray) who join Biff and Happy at Willy's dinner wonder about Willy and his reactions when Biff tells Willy that he didn't sell his idea to set himself up in the sporting goods business.

The audience cheered with the cast when the reviews of the play were successful. Gordon Travis completely fixed the scene with his eternal, "I could cry." Left to right: Hayes, Lovberg, Shapira, Travis and Stephens.

"We could have cried," we laughed so hard during "Light Up the Sky." Helen Hayes did an outstanding job with her swinging strut and her loud and rather uncouth language. Jack Shapira, Pat Koob and Marjorie Lovberg in their third play of the year portrayed their parts with their usual ease and tolent. Chers in the cast were Ron Richards, Gordon Travis, Harold Hansen, DiAnne Stephens, Jack Howell, and Tom Needham.

LIGHT UP THE SKY

Right: The Shrinkers are in town—and in and out of the apartment, to add their drunken comedy to an already lively scene. In this scene author, Harold Hansen, doesn't seem too ready to accept their cheerful spirits.

UNIVERSITY SYMPHONIC BAND includes: flutes, Judith Harden and Jaonne Giesick; bobes, John Marvin, Delares George and Shirley Lenhart; English horn, John Marvin; Clarines, Monroe DeJamete, Harold Harvey, Jane Volentine Arline Werle, LaMar Farvilly, Joel Stary, Marieanne Carroll, Stella Boucher, James Carrell, Thomas Thomas, Marie Duff, Katherine Crackett, Alice Smith, Ann Hadge and Javeye Howanosh, alto clarinet, Cecelia Ulliman; bass clarinet, Richard Eichholz, and Patricia Gray; basseoms, Den Hardisty and Shirley DeForth; saxophones, Gerene Wilson, Judith Patton, Wilms Jean Dowson, Mariene Hayt, and Dan Jamieson; cornets, Sam Davis, James Hansen, Dan Landreville, Richard Ely, Roland Grotte, Jack Lind, Carl Rimby and Dan Jivine; trumpets, Wayne Linnell, Jack Newman, Tom Nelson and William Dehon; French horns, Marlene McKinley, Ronald Bacon, Eleanor Schmidt, Lou Ella Knudsen, Audrey Richardson, and Beverly Lahn; baritones, Ray Halubka, Clair Hallock, Quentin Marino and Nadine Genger; trombones, Jack McFarland, Lee Musburger, Eard Wofard and Inez Wyers; basses, Earl Wolton, Donald Schessler, Ed Colby and William Dickinson; percussion, Harold Gillet, George Tipp, Bobbie Atkinson and Ruth Buzzetti.

BANDS FLOURISH

AS THE STUDY OF MUSIC becomes more important to MSU, the four University bands flourished. The concert band (above) gave several concerts throughout the year playing compositions ranging from Bach and Wagner to modernists like Frank Skinner and the University's own Poul Abel and Monroe DeJarnette. The concert band made several trips around the state, one along with the orchestro and the Jubileers to the Butte music festival. The Marching band faithfully performed for parades and half-time entertainment and two small Pep bands alternated at basketball games.

The Varity Chember band continued, obscure to non-musicians, as an experimental organization for students of music. This band performed new compositions while giving students practice in conducting. ROTC drills aided in precision by the performance of the ROTC band, made colorful spring evening entertainment for "civiliens." Eight outstanding band members were selected to attend the Northwest Interscholastic band in Bellingham, Washington. They were Monroe DeJametre, Harold Harvey, Judith Harden, Richard Eichholz, James Hansen, Lee Musburger, Jack McFarland and Richard Ely. Justin Gray (right) ets up half-time performances for the Marching band. A recipient of degrees from the University of Michigan and Eastman School of Music, Mr. Gray, Inimself a proficient clarinetist, is well known on a guest conductor in Idaho, Washington and Montana. In spring 1953 he was elected chairmon of the district organization of college band directors.

UNIVERSITY AYENUE spectators watched Indian dancer-twirlers leading the Homecoming parade. Cancan dances, tumbling and twirling combinations, and new tan buckskin costumes supplemented regular twirling routines. Boton twirlers this year were Nancy Schilling, Georgiana Coppedge, and Shirley Spehn, double batons; Mae Behner, a Theta, and Helen Ring, tumble-twirlers; and Muriel Griffin, DG, Georgia George, KAT, and Rowena Day, Alpha Phi, single batons.

SPECTACULAR TWIRLING EXHIBITIONS by leaders Jack Howell (right) and Elean Palk thrilled football and parade audiences throughout fall quarter. Elleen, a Theta from Williston, N. D., was an Aquamaid, Co-ed Colonel, and a member of Publications board, transfer form Washington, has twirled for 14 years. The appearance of this Sigma Chi gave the girls something to watch beside the band formations between game halves.

DON HARDISTY, drum major from Butte, led the band through their difficult numbers and formations exceedingly well (except for the time he lost them at one end of the field). In one capacity or another this talented music major participated in the majority of musical events. A member of Phi Mu Alpha, his most memorable performance was in their annual assembly. He played a female movile-stor in a bathing suit.

DRESSED in their white buckskin Indian costumes, the three double boton twirlers led the Parade of Athletes for the 1953 Interscholastic Meet.

NANCY, a DG from Missoula was one of the finalists for Sweetheart of Sigma Chi, a leader in Grizzly Growlers, and will be a Spur and Sophomore veep next GEORGIANA, a KAT from Polson, spent most of her time polishing Ron Faust's SAE pin. Aquamaid and Sponsor Corps activities took up the remainder of her time.

SHIRLEY, a Theta from Missoula was usually seen in the company of "George." Dancing was the sideline hobby for this smilling 5'2" PE major who is also a member of Sponsor Corps.

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA includes: first violins, Betty Rumph DeJarnette, Virginia Balkovetz, Mora MacKinnon, Dian Giulio, Dorothy Blegen, Lois Gram, Adeloide Thornton, and Irving Boekelheide; second violins, Stella Chelli, Pamela Breehbill, Kather Derdinale, Jean Stephens, Andrew Browman, Beverly Lohn and Robert MacDonald; violas, Pauline Oberg, Larry Martinec, Helen Wunderlich, and Lloyd Oakland; cellos, Carol Critelli, James Carrell, Gladys Lewis, Lawrence Coloff and Alice Carkeek; basses, Judson Maynard and Robert Sutton; flutes, Judith Harden and David Line; oboes, John Marvin and Delores George, English horn, John Marvin; clarinets, Monroe DeJarnette, Harold Harvey and Joel Story; bassoons, Donald Hardisty and Justin Gray; horns, Marjorie Holden, Eleanor Schmidt, Lou Ella Knudsen and Paul Abel; trumpets, Sam Davis, Don Landreville, and Richard Ely; Irombones, Jack McFarland, Leo Musburger and Donald Schessler; tympani and percussion, Harold Gillet and Richard Ely; pingo, Virginia Rowe.

ORCHESTRA PERFORMS FOR DEDICATION

As far as pure cultural development is concerned, the symphony orchestra probably contributes the most at MSU. Besides giving a compus concert each quarter os well as out-of-town concerts, the orchestra occomponide the choral groups in the Christmas program and in convocations. Coming to their glory in the dedication services, the orchestra performed the specially composed, "Proud Music of the Storm," by Lowndes Maury, a native of Butte and a graduate of MSU. They also performed other difficult modern music by current composers including Monce Delarnette, Robert Sutton and Paul Abel. This concert was taped for CBS network broadcasting. Students in the orchestra as well as other music majors and music foculty presented weekly recitals. Soloists for this group included violinists. Betty DeJarnette and Virginia Bolkovetz and clarinetist, Monroe DeJarnette. A group of 20 selected to tour is known as the Symphonette.

Eugene Andrie, conductor, often toured as adjudicator and solo violinist. He has received degrees from Western Michigan College of Education and the University of Washington. As a member of the University trio, Mr. Andrie performed with cellist Robert Sutton and pionist Rudolph Wendt. In one program they presented a piece using quarter tones.

A CAPPELLA RETAINS FAME

Nationally known a coppella choir again presented a half-hour Christmas program over the CBS radio network. They sang numbers by such chronologically-diverse composes as Palestrina, Bach, Gregory Murray, Randal Thompson and Benjamin Britten. A composition by faculty member, Paul Abel, "Dies Sanctificatus," was offered in this program too. Although highly selective, the a coppella choir is made up of majors from virtually every school and department on compus.

Eleven soloists were featured in the Christmas program. They were sopranos, Donna Nooney, Donna Murray, Marlere McKinley and Marajean Bridenstine; altos, Patricia Fraher and Ruth. Palmer; tenors, Robert Hoyem, Charles Stone and Gardon Travis; bartiones, James Cole and Lowell Burgett. In mid-March the choir presented a benefit program along with the Jubileers and freshmen groups.

The choir was invited as a result of the favorable response to broadcasts throughout the Northwest to the Northwest Music Educators conference in Bellingham, Washington, Members of the choir are: E. Bravos, M. Bridenstine, A. Buls, L. Burgett, A. Caldwell, J. Codure, C. Golle, C. Collins, L. Coloft, J. Codure, S. Critell, K. Crockett, M. Crockett, S. Davis, J. Durado, R. Fletcher, E. Focher, W. Folden, E. Fox, P. Fraher, B. Golasso, N. Genger, J. Giesick, J. Hageman, R. Halubka, D. Hardisty, B. Herman, J. Haward, R. Hoyem, R. Kaiser, L. Knox, A. Kovatch, G. Leibinger, S. Leibinger, S. Leftler, G. Lewis, M. Lovberg, M. McKinley, M. MacKinnon, J. Madden, M. Maloney, J. Marvin, H. Marks, D. Murray, T. B. Rucker, H. Saunders, D. M. Cheng, R. Palmer, J. Patton, P. Rohnke, B. Rucker, H. Saunders, D. M. Cheng, R. Palmer, J. Patton, P. Rohnke, G. Travis, J. Valentine, V. VaniHarne, L. Warn and A. Werle.

Director Lloyd Oakland also directs the Jubileers and oversees the direction of the Freshmen Women's sextet and the Freshmen Men's quartet. He has received degrees from Cornell college in Mt. Vernon, lowa and Northwestern University.

Well traveled and highly praised, the Jubilears presented 14 programs at ten Montana cities including a performance sponsored by the March of Dimes at the Livingston Civic center. They were broadcast as far away as Nuremberg, Germany. Besides singing such diverse numbers as "O Eyes of My Beloved" by di Lasso to cowboy ballads with guitar accompaniment, the Jubilears also song four of Gilbert Leibinger's compositions, "Gotta Get Me a Man," "Hey! Hey! You're Playing With Fire" "I'm in Love With an Anael," and "Won't You Be My Volentine." The Jubilears are: book, Gary Reese, Gordon Travis, Charles Stone, Robert Hoyem, Clifford Collins, Wayne Folden, James Cole and Amold Huppert; front, Berta Huebl, Donna Nooney, Jeanne Couture, Marajean Bridenstine, Ruth Palmer, Patricia Fraber, Jane Goethke, Billy Ann McFarland, Marjorie Lovberg, and Donna Murray. Gilbert Leibinger at the plano and Lloyd Oskland directing.

JUBILEERS, SEXTET GROW IN POPULARITY

Popular entertainers are these six talented freshmen who song at civic organization meetings in and out of Missoula. They were featured on the Benefit Choral program and at the Music School Nite Club dance. They are: standing, Joan Giesick and Betty. Rucker; seated, Annamae Kovatch and Jill Hageman; on flor, Eleanor Fox and Virginia VanHorne. They are directed by James Cole.

OPERA WORKSHOP KEEPS IN TRIM

THE OPERA workshop group, warming up to a full-scale production next year, traveled about the state presenting excerpts of operas. During dedication week they presented the "Sailing of Nancy Bell," "The Telephone," and excerpts from "Showboat" Some of the outstanding numbers from "Showboat" were "Make Believe," sung by Jeanne Couture and Robert Hoyem; "Life Upon the Wicked Stage," a comedy number performed by Marlene McKinley and the women's sextet, and Jim Cole's version of "Old Man River."

Workshop members are: Back, Ray Halubka, Charles Stone, Lewis Knox, Robert Hoyem, Jeanne Couture, James Cole, Thomas Nelson, Donald Schessler and Wayne Folden; middle, Patricia Fraher, Ruth Palmer, Robert Spiwak, Berta Huebl and Patricia O'Hare; front, Betty Rucker, Joanne Giesick, Annamae Kavatch, Donna Murray, Eleanor Fox, Virginia VanHorne, and Jill Hageman.

VIOLINIST MORA MacKINNON, pianist Pauline Oberg and cellist Gladys Lewis performed classical and semi-classical music at recitals. Occasionally groups like this one and the string quartet entertain or provide background music at teas and at other gatherings.

String Groups Received Little Publicity

BUT PROVIDED MUCH ENJOYMENT

THREE SENIORS and a sophomore make up the music school quartet which played at recitals and other functions. The two violinists, Betty Rumph DeJarmette and Virginia Balkovetz both acted as concert mistresses at the various orchestra concerts. Stella Critelli acted as principal for the second violins in the orchestra and sophomore, Carol Critelli as principal for the cello section. They are: (left to right) Virginia Balkovetz, violin; Betty DeJarmette, violin; Carol Critelli, cello; and Stella Critelli, viola.

UTAH STATE 7-MONTANA 0

Under the illuminating lights of Darnblazer field, the first Skyline Conference contest of the 1952 football season was played between Utoh State and the University of Montana. Although school's start was scheduled a week later, many MSU students attended the game to see the Grizzlies actually better Utoh State in total yards 173-166 and in first downs 10-8 only to lose in the all important points' department 0-7. While the first half was dominated by Montana, the second was played on more even terms except for the Utoh State march in the third period that was culminated by Del Ray Campbell's touchdown. The line play of Jim Murray and the punting of Bud Bellis greatly improved the Montana cause as they did throughout the season.

WYOMING 14-MONTANA 0

The University of Wyoming was Montana's next obstacle. The Grizzlies traveled east to Laramie to (in the words of Greeley) "go west", but the Cowpokes hadn't the right meaning of this phrase as proved in the treatment of their guests. This game proved the main inadequacy of Montana; the impotence of its offense. Although strict Grizzly (ine play stopped Wyoming's two great bocks, Spaulding and Geldien, two pass plays covered the necessary distance. The fumble played a destined part in the Grizzlies' thrust.

These two game losses that could have been decided either way were bitter disappointments to Montana, and the difficult task of re-building morale fell heavily on the shoulders of Cooch Chinske. Regardless of the losses the Grizzlies were far from thought of as being the conference "push-overs.",

FOOTBALL

BRIGHAM YOUNG 28-MONTANA 7

Amidst Homecoming celebrities and celebrations, the Grizzlies entertained Brigham Young University for both teams' third conference game. Spectators were treated to a close, though somewhat disappointing game for the first three quarters. The Grizzlies swatted the Cougers around like house cats but just couldn't muster enough to cross the final white stripe. Montana outrushed the boys from Provo by 2-1, but unfortunately the score was a reverse of this. Aside from all the pitfalls, the sun wasn't the only bright spot on this day of Homecoming—Hall Gompf scored Montana's first touchdown of the senson with a little more than four minutes left in the game.

Feelings in the "Mile High" city of Denver must have been low after the revenging Grizzlies somewhat atoned for their embarrossing loss of the previous year to the Pioneers. Montana wasted no time in driving to their first touchdown as Dean Brott scored on a pass. Denver tied the score at 7-7 in the fourth conto. At this point Don Gerlinger entered to kick a 28-yard field goal which proved to add the winning points. Minutes later Bob Dantic broke loose for 20 yards and the game's final touchdown. Specialist Gerlinger again converted.

OREGON 14-MONTANA 14

The Grizzlies flew to Eugene to play the University of Oregan Webfeet in one of the season's most exciting games. Big Bo Laird scored the game's first trauchdown to put Montana in the lead; but Show, Oregan's great passer, threw two scoring passes to put the Webfeet out in front 14-7. Late in the last quarter Dick Heath threw Montana's only completed pass of the afternoon to Dean Brett for the tying touchdown. Seconds later Don Gerlinger missed an attempted field goal. Captain Hal Maus and Jim Murray showed well for Montana along with the superb punting of Bellis.

MONTANA STATE 12-MONTANA 35

From over the mountains came the Bobcats eager to engage the Grizzly Bear in their annual encounter. At game's opening the eager Bobcats scored first bload capinst a seemingly overconfident Grizzly squad. By the finale the Bobcats were subdued per se, by Murdo Campbell who threw two touchdown passes to Ed Anderson and Fred Mirchoff, and ran 33 yards for another score. Dean Brott advanced his senson's scoring total by driving for the Grizzly's first points. While Bob Antonick played the part of Gibralter in the middle of the line, linebacker Murray ran an interception into scoring territory.

COLORADO A & M 41-MONTANA 0

Two Colorado Aggies, Don Burroughs and Alex Burl, were fleet with the pigskin to outpass and outrun the Silvertips in a clash at Fort Collins. Brott and Dantic wan the majority of the 56 yards gained by the Grizzlies.

IDAHO 27-MONTANA 0

Montana's hopes for spalling the Vandals Homecoming exercises were nilos Idaho autfought and outplayed the Grizzlies. The squad from the potate state could do no wrong as they took advantage of blocked kicks and fumbles to score four touchdowns while keeping the Grizzlies pointless.

SAN JOSE STATE 39-MONTANA 20

Faced with the nearly impossible task of erasing a 39-0 half-time deficit at the Spartan's home in San Jose, the Grizzlies fought to three touchdowns in the second half, holding the sons of Sparto scoreless. San Jose, sporting the best offense in the nation, had their hands full in the second division as Dantic scored, followed by Brott's two touchdowns.

NEW MEXICO 12-MONTANA 6

Albuquerque was the site of one of the better defensive conference games of the year when two teams met that were not exactly noted for dozzling offense. Montano, playing a definitely underdag role due to the Lobos 3-0 conquest of the Colorado Aggies, was again plagued by "breaks", the major one being a blocked punt. Fred Mirchoff scored from the five-yard line to be one of the few conference players to do such a feat against the Lobos this year. The dopesters did miss one prophecy, however, that of a possible kicking duel between conversionists, Mike Prokopiak of New Mexico and the Grizzlies' Dan Gerlinger. Prokopiak missed his first of the season and Gerlinger's lone attempt was his only miss in the conference.

THUS, Montana ended the season with a record of two wins, one tie, and seven losses. Statistic totals were much closer, however, as the Grizzlies earned 121 first downs to their opponents 140 and were outshed by a mere 1707 yards to 1671. Bud Bellis, Grizzly punter, led the conference with a 40.7 yard average while Bo Laird and Bob Dantic played sixth and ninth, respectively, in rushing offense. Gene Carlson and Murdo Campbell earned conference honors as they were eighth and ninth in punt returning. Campbell also placed eighth in the passing department. Dean Brott was the top Grizzly scorer with 30 points to garner a seventh place ranking in the conference.

COMMENCING THE SEASCN with a squad of unknown ability, Coach George Dahlberg tutored the 1953 Grizzly basketball team through a hard but successful year of Skyline Eight basketball competition. Because the 1954 games will mark the opening of the new Field House, this proved to be the last season in which Montana "fives" played in the old Men's Gym. Almost as a passing gesture, the old Men's Gym provided a loyal homeground for the Silvertips to whittle opposing Titans down to a pliable size. On their home court the Montanans beat Utah, Utah State (winner of the Madison Square Garden Invitational tournament which features such teams as LaSalle and N.Y.U.I., Washington State, Brigham Young, Denver, New Mexico, Colorado AGM, and Montana State. They lost only one game to the Cowpokes of Wyoming.

The Grizzlies performed at a high degree of efficiency clus determination in establishing a season's record of four-teen wins and eleven losses while ecrning fourth place rank in the Skyline Conference with six wins, and eight losses. Such individual stars as high scoring Chuck Davis (Most Valuable Player), Jack Luckman (co-sharer of Best Defensive Player Award), Dale Johnson, Jack Coppedge, and Jim Mc-Naney are lost through graduation.

SKIING

One of the most enthusiastic sport groups on campus, the Ski team set out to prove their worth in representing the University in several contests which featured top-flight skiers. While compating in the Derwer Invitational, the Ski squad earned seventh place honors; and at the Northern Division Invitational at Kimberly, British Columbia, the team ranked sixth among some of the nations best skiers. In a duel meet with our country cousins from Bazeman, MSU was defeated by the slim margin of 394 to 387, 1953 marks a year of progress for the Montana Ski Team.

MINOR SPORTS

Jack Daniels, Captain; Bob Moore, Coach John Zeger, Antone Hollinger and Fred Carl.

Under the leadership of Coach John Zeger, the Montana Swimming team competed in two triangular meets and the Skyline Conference meet. Using mainly a three man squad consisting of Captain Jack Daniels, Bob Moore and Fred Carl, the Silvertip Swim squad gained a fourth place at the Conference meet by occumulating five third places plus a first in the 100-yard backstroke by Daniels. Others occounting for points were Moore in the 50-yard free style and Carl in the 100 and 220-yard free style.

M CLUB BOXING TOURNAMENT

Dedicated to Billy Merritt, former MSU student who was killed in Korea, the M Club staged its annual boxing tournament for a capacity crowd. Eager fight fans came in anticipation of exciting bouts. Nearly all were satisfied since most of the boxers were evenly-matched, spirited, and clean fighters. Most pugilists on the card were from the University, some from Missoula High, and several from the Ronan boxing contingent. Phi Delta Theta took the team trophy and George Tarrant won the Merritt Memorial Award as the tournament outstanding boxer.

Predicted to lose their first meet to Brigham Young by several points, the Grizzly trackmen over-ran all expectancies to easily win 73-58. This victory presented a glimpse of things to come as the underdog Montana speedsters continued throughout the sasson to overthrow predictions.

Coach Harry Adams did his usual fine job of extending individuals' remote possibilities into actual point-winning performances. Evidence of his work showed in the running of Don Brant (edged out in a photo finish by Burl of Colorado AGM at the Conference meet at 9.5 seconds), the hurdling of Dick Lindsoy, the javelin throwing of freshman Hal Utsond, and the high jumping of freshman, Ray Dunn. These more or less "unexpected" point-winners with the reliable services of Lean Connor, Mick Luckman, Marv Reynolds, and Bob Beach produced a first place in the Western Division of the Skyline and a third place at the Conference meet.

BASEBALL

GENERAL MILBURN PILOTED the Montana baseball nine to a tie for second place in the western division of Skyline play. In gaining a seven win-five loss record in Skyline competition, the Grizzlies split their series with Utah and Brigham Young and won three of four from Utah State. The Silvertips took all games outside of Conference play except for a twelve-inning five to five tie with the Bonner Lumberjacks. Renewing an old baseball rivalry with the Bobcats from Bozeman brought about the usual result a four-game sweep.

Pitcher and Co-Captain Gene Carlson signed a professional contract with the New York Yankees and farmed out with Baise of the Pioneer League.

SOUTH HALL

Made up largely of Independent upperclassmen who have migrated from rigorous Jumbo, but with a liberal sprinkling of freshmen, South hall manages to be a bit more sedate than its neighbors. Aside from their winter splurge with Jumbo, they encouraged more combined social functions, particularly with New and North halls.

Like their brother and sister freshmen, South hall neophytes attended the round of meetings during Orientation week.

Frosh women running over with vitality and the enthusiasm to conquer, (just what varied with the individual I made their mark on the campus. This year's crop was as active as any, So socially minded that they needed two social chairmen, one for large functions and one for small functions, they inaugurated the "Peppermint Prince" and elected Bob Peden as their first hunk of confection. They also lured fraternity row into exchange dinners in addition to the usual round of pajama parties, birthday parties and spring picnics. Famous for their nightly dilemma of "deadlock on the doorstep," they had a busy year to speed them off toward college sophistication.

Dr. and Mrs. McFarland and Dr. Clow, always attentive to freshmen, attended orientation week programs too.

As the activity center for Independent upperclass woman, and a sprinkling of Frosh, Neth Queen, Kay Hudson campus offairs again this year. Beginning the year right, they once more displayed the queen, Kay Hudson this year, and her trophy at their Homecoming reception. Later they were also successful in their bid for Mordi Gras queen, when Betra Hubel received the crown. Their "honorary" membership boasted Spurs, Mary Calvert and Garla Wetzsteon, and Mortar Board member, Stella Critelli. Dorm president Beryl Handford doubled up her activities by serving as Woman's M Club president as well, and activity girl Marynell Curtis undertook the chairmanship of a very successful Aber Day Variety Show. In the social very, the year was full of teas and coffee hours, pj parties and brinday parties, a Christmas "Snow Ball with Corbin Hall, an Eester Bonnel Parade, and a trap to Sleeping Child for a day in the "fold swimmin hole."

Activity wise, the Alpha Phi's captured five places in Spur, with PAT O'HARE serving as president of that organization. Other Spurs were PHYLLIS KIND, SHIR-LEY DEFORTH, MICKEY McKINLEY and JANET HOW-ARD. As vice-president of ASMSU, JAMIE BRENNAN climaxed her active college career. Through winning the Northwest debate tournament, CATHY DOHERTY made her way to Hawaii, and another debate tourney. MAXINE BELLIS served as president of Panhellenic council, GLORIA TINSETH successfully co-chairmanned the WSSF drive, BOBETTE REEDER was elected freshman vice-president, and the Alpha Phi's boast of seven Aquamaids. Pledge ANNAMAE KOVATCH became the Moonlight Girl of Phi Sigma Kappa, Activity minded WINIFRED DINN and PEG TOFTE both served as North Hall junior sponsors; Winny also was initiated into Theta Sigma Phi and Peg served as WAA treasurer. PAT THOMAS conscientiously spent much of her time as an associate editor on the 1953 Sentinel. Mu Phi, International Relations Club, band and twirlers, and Student Religious Council found Alpha Phi's in their ranks.

Campus big wheel MOLLIE ILER successfully maneuvered both the Alpha Phi's and the Associated Women Students throughout the year.

The DG's combined talents with the Sigma Nu's to win the trophy for the best act in the Aber Day variety show. The DG's came through to take the trophies for scholarship, the Booster parade and Sonafest. The sophomores chose two DG's to lead them through the year: they were IOAN BACHMAN, vice-president, and ARLENE WERLE, savretary. ANN FOWLER efficiently ran the outside entertainment committee, while JOAN BROOKS took over as an associate editor of the Kaimin. DG proudly boasted of nine Spurs during the year, two of which belonged to ALD. DAVIS WATSON served as AWS secretary, as well as community service chairman for SCA. PAT KOOB, CAROL MURRAY, MARGE LOVBERG and DONNA MURRAY were initiated into Masquers, while Pat also became a member of Masquers Royale. Marge and Donna were also in Jubileers. MYRNA DOLVEN, CAROL COUGHLAN, and ANNE FOWLER breezed through the year as North Hall sponsors.

GWEN FLIGHTNER, versatile president of DG, was a business administration major, who hopes for a future with the army in Japan.

Down on Gerald avenue at the Theta abode, the girls capitalized on their many abilities to breeze through another successful year. A variety of campus affairs claimed the time of many. EILEEN POLK enthusiastically served as co-ed colonel of ROTC, and president of Aquamaids. BEV HENNE, who was associate editor of the Sentinel, Central Board delegate and Traditions Board chairman, was honored at Matrix Table as "Outstanding Senior Girl." Graduate scholarships galore were offered the popular ASMSU secretary. MARY JOAN TASCHER. A house of royalty, KAY HUDSON was Homecoming Queen, and BERTA HUEBL, Mardi Gras queen. ROSEMARY ANDERSON, a Kappa Tau, was chosen president of Mortar Board, and MARILYN FOSTER became president of AWS. MARILYN KINTNER capably served as vice-president of AWS. Saucy MARILYN NICHOL was elected by her classmates as senior vice-president. However, the sisters took their minds off campus activities long enough to plan some highly successful social affairs.

This Kappa senior class, the largest on campus, was active in many phases of campus life.

The Kappas skillfully divided their time among campus activities, awards, and fun hours. As a group the Kappas won the swimming trophy, and shared second place honors with the Thetas on their Homecoming float. A Spur and Aquamaid, GERENE WILSON also served as secretary of the junior class. Another secretary was NAN HUBBARD of WAA, who also was elected vice-president of AWS. Pledge MARY HELEN PEMBERTON took many freshman honors by becoming freshman treasurer and president of North Hall. Sigma Phi Epsilon honored BARBARA BERG by choosing her "Queen of Hearts," and JO HAFTLE became Miss Photogenic. Included in the membership of Kappa Tau and Mortar Board was enthusiastic MARLENE CARRIG. JO GRUNDSTROM successfully maneuvered the Miss Montana program until the franchise was dropped this spring.

JARY NELSEN, who held the gavel for PEMM Club, also was a North Hall junior sponsor and AWS vice-president. Both PAT WALKER and REBA TURNQUIST were chosen for Mortar Board. JANE VALEN-TINE, who marked among her activities vice-president of Mu Phi, was selected as "Outstanding Junior Girl" by Matrix Table. The Panhellenic presidency was capably taken over by Kam SUE MANN. ROXANA WARREN and REBA TURNQUIST both maintained the high scholarship demanded for membership in Kappa Tau. Roxana was also president of Radio Guild. Both BEVERLY PRAETZ and AUDREY LINSCHEID were admitted to the ranks of Masquers, with Audrey also being a Masquer Royale. ALPHA TAU OMEGA

Alpha Tau Omega president, WAYNE HANSON guided the Taus to another successful year.

ATO's could be found in almost any phase of campus activity. Many a friendly argument was waged in this house between the Young Republicans and Young Democrats.

No paddle, and the second annual Help Week program highlighted the achievements of the boys from 1414 Maurice avenue. The Seventh Annual dinner dance, the best function each year, highlighted, along with two firesides, the social end of tall quarter. Winter quarter the Prohibition Daze party, with all the brothers and their dates rigged in gay 20's costumes, stole the show socially. Spring quarter found the Taus off to the Toolies for functions, picnics and exchange dinners. Organizationally speaking, the ATO's spread themselves thin, having members in Kappa Tau, Student Christian association. Sinfonia, rifle, track and ski teams, as well as the National Pharmaceutical association. BILL RIFE, who was for the second year an outstanding track man on the Grizzly squad, managed to carry his Maltese cross to the finish line, breaking records in the mile and two mile. HAL UTSOND is considered by many to be the prospect to take Bill's place. Hal chucked the javeline 192 feet 1 inch to take top honors in Skyline meets.

After taking first place in the clothing drive, the Phi Delts gave themselves and bystanders a show.

A great time was a great time whenever more than two Phi Sigs got together. Loud laughter could always be heard coming from the Phi Sig corner.

PHI SIGMA KAPPA

The fun-loving Phi Sigs will long remember this past year as a very successful one in every way. Even though Uncle Sam and members of the opposite sex struck a telling blow on house membership, it was, to say the least, a memorable year. To show they didn't feel completely contemptible toward the "jocks" and their activities, the Phi Sigs claimed FLOYD SMITH of the Grizzlies record breaking relay team, and TOM RITTER, the "fish-boy" on the swimming team. Socially, the Phi Sigs outdid themselves. The Coronation Ball, the Barn Dance, the PJ party, weekend picnic on Flathead. and the famous Coffee Dan were a few of the "greater" Phi Sig functions. Large sized wheels were TOM SHERLOCK. senior president, and DALE FORBES and JACK BELLAND, graduating with honors in law and education respectively. The Phi Sigs found time to complete plans for their new home. scheduled for construction this summer. Location? Who would think of leaving 1011 Gerald? Man, they're surrounded by three sororities.

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON

Sigma Alpha Epsilon strove to participate and excel in the scholastic. cultural, philanthropic and social aspects of campus life. Its success in scholarship was shown by its ranking first among fraternities four quarters in a row. Another first came in the homecoming float which they shared with the Tri Delts. Two intramural trophies for football and goli were added to the SAE mantle. Among SAE's notable in activities were DON GERLINGER, PEK president, JACK COPPEDGE and DAVE LEUTHOLD of Central Board, PETE DENSMORE, tennis captain, and JIM MURRAY, "outstanding senior football player." The Sig Alph's came through the Aber Day elections with three out of four class presidents. DON ERICKSON, BOB GRIFFIN, and GEORGE PAUL served as freshman, sophomore, and junior previse respectively. Publicity-travel chairman, three Bear Paws, PARK DENSMORE of store board and iwenty varsity lettermen were claimed by the SAE's.

SIGMA CHI

Campus men of Sigma Chi were HUGH DEMERS, president of Bear Paw, and PEDER HOINESS, who successfully managed two important positions, chairman of the New Student Union committee, and business manager of the Sentinel. DONALD CLARK succeeds BOB GRAVES as the new M Club president. DICK SHADOAN, one of the most efficient and busiest men on campus, served as president of Silent Sentinel, Kappa Tau, and was on Traditions Board. DEACON ANDERSON, IRC prexy, finished as Sentinel business manager and was a '53 Sentinel associate editor. The Sigs claimed the campus kings this year. "STINGER" STONG was voted King of Mardi Gras, and BOB PEDEN became North Hall's first Peppermint Prince. Proud of their twins, LEE and BOB WILLIAMS, who won many Skyline golfing honors, are the Sigs, as they are of their many athletes, both varsity and intramural. Memories of many fine parties filled the minds of members, who best remembered such events as the Sweetheart Ball and the newly founded Sigma Chi weekend at Seeley.

The White Star boys on Gerald avenue added versatility on campus and a booming social season to this school year. Central Board predominated with Sigma Nu's BOB NEWLIN. BILL JONES. WARD SHANAHAN and JIM ABBOTT. At the helm of student government, and leading the CB meetings were ASMSU president DAN LAMBROS, and business manager DON CAMERON. The Kaimin was again edited by a Sigma Nu. LEW KEIM, who was capably aided by associates BILL IONES and RAY MOHOLT. Sigma Nu also claimed five Silent Sentinels, and ten Bear Paws, plus a mighty crew of varsity lettermen. Loud cheers resounded down Gerald Avenue from the Snake house when the brothers learned of their first place in the song fest. Cadet Colonel BOB ABBOTT gave the orders for ROTC, while brother DICK DALLAS took over the Stan Kenton appearance on campus. GIB LEIBINGER, the music master of the campus, is also a noted Sigma Nu. Putting their best foot forward in the social whirl, the Sigma Nu's outdid themselves at their annual Pigge dinner dance. Another successful party was their winter quarter gangster dance.

Armond Pepe and Jinx VanHome pose for Crime Photographers Inc. at the annual Sigma Nu gangster party. A smorgasbord dinner and dance completed the underworld theme.

Under the cold stare of big brothers DUD DEAN and CHUCK TEAGUE, the SPE proletariat plodded through another pleasant year with adequate diversion provided by such affairs as the dinner dance, the Queen of Hearts Ball, and the fabulous Bowery Ball, all planned by social chairman DICK DEWALT. Local sports pages praised DON HAL-VERSON, Grizzly half-miler. MATT MATTSON gave the orders as Cadet Colonel for Air ROTC. Yell king GENE HOYT served fall quarter as Imperial Potentate of Kams and Dregs. BOB HOYEM took an active part in all University music circles, and JAMES CARRELL, JAMES DURADO, and PAUL ROHNKE participated in chorus and Sinfonia, band and orchestra. President of the Lutheran Student Association was SPE RAY WOEPPEL.

The brothers combined forces to produce the smoke jumping exhibition as an Interscholastic house decoration, going all out to make their exhibit letterperfect.

THETA CHI

Theta Chi president JOHN IM-SANDE also served as president of Interfraternity Council, both jobs of which he carried out in his usual capable way.

Hammers, saws, and paint brushes went flying as the Theta Chi's moved into their newly remodeled University avenue abode. Interior and exterior alike of the house were again remodeled temporarily by the brothers for the annual Hobo Arts ball. one of the campus's most successful functions. Winter quarter Theta Chi's don their formal clothes, shoes and all. and grandly produce their Red and White ball. Back to their levis in the spring, the boys gave a Circle Bar-X Roundup party. Individuals who were well known on campus were PAUL BEAN, Newman Club president and general chairman of Mardi Gras, BILL SHREEVE, president of PEK. Traditions board member NEAL McCURDY, who also was in Pershing Rifles, and ROLF HARMSEN, who won the Forester's beard contest.

KNOW MONTANA

Education In the Early-Day Mining Camps

Four years after the first school in the Montana territory was opened at Bannack and three years after the first regular public school was started in Virginia City, pioneer teachers in 1867 were providing their students with an education through what today is the eighth grade.

However, any student who completed that training—through the eighth grade —was considered to have a high school education.

Pupils starting in school were assigned to the eighth grade and graduated from the first grade—just the reverse of the present system.

Upon graduation from the first grade, students were required to take examinations to obtain a certificate. Tests were given in the home and the cost of the diploma was set at $6. All problems in the test had to be accurately answered before the applicant qualified for the certificate.

Because early-day schools did not have a common textbook of any kind, study in each varied. The commissioner of education—that was the title of the superintendents—however, tried from the start to establish regular courses of study. It was not until 1881 that a uniform textbook law was placed on the statute books by the legislature, and not until 1889 that a uniform course of study was made mandatory.

A list of those who attended the early-day schools and who later became prominent in public life in Montana were Austin Gormley, Cascade attorney at one time; Dr. LeRoy Southmatid of Great Falls; Judge Lew L. Calloway, State supreme court, and Judge Lee Word, former associate justice of the high state court.

MONTANA PAY BOLL PRODUCTS

We're both selling the same thing-SERVICE

Pardon us if we seem to be presumptous , . . but we are both selling service. Montana State University is selling education as a service and we are selling energy. Both are essential

You at the University have been at your sales job longer, more than α half century, but we've been operating more than 40 years, so feel able to make α few observations on service.

If we may say so, we think the University is doing a better sales job than it used to . . .

You're bringing your services to the people in their own communities to a greater extent. As a result cities and towns a long way from Missoula have learned to appreciate what you're doing and what your problems are by seeing and hearing University groups and individuals. We've been doing that from the beginning, as it's the nature of our business. We believe the people appreciate what we're doing, too. We're serving them.

Congratulations to the 1953 graduates of MSU. Why not cast your lot with Montana from now on?

Fish Bowl night clubbers were Dr. McFarland and his wife one evening. They shared a table with Tom Needham and Joan Brooks.

SOME EXTRA PAGES SOME EXTRA PICTURES

"Our loss is your gain," IBob and Ray, 1953 A.D.I in a sense anyway. A few less ads provided us with a few unexpected pages back here and since we know you don't exchange outagraphs, the space is filled with some informal pictures.

Mardi Gras king and queen candidates (1eft) were: back, P. J. Casey, PDT; Joan Durkin, DG; Matt Mattson, SPE; Alice Pledge, DDD, Bill Stong, SX; and Grace Donisthorpe, Synaclephic. Middle: Helen Peterson, North; Van Olsen, PSK; Darothy Lo-Zarus, KKG; Woody Liebe, ATO; Joan Stokon, KAT; and Arnie Huppert, SN. Front: Lucy Butcher, SK; Chuck Plowman, South, Beaverly Tecco, AP; Nick Wood, TX; ad Berta Huebl; New.

The Virginia City players attracted a large crowd (above) with their comedy-melodrama, "Rustle Your Bustle," and with the "Bale of Hay Variety Show" which featured skits and dances in a Gay Nineties cobaret.

SIDELIGHTS

One of MSU'S newer organizations, Bacteriology club redecorated the bacteriology department in the Natural Science building. The club painted desks, cupboards, and laboratory tables in the media room, the main classroom, the advanced room and office of the department. This club was organized as an outgrowth of a bacteriology seminar that met at the Rocky Mountain laboratory each week in Hamilton. The purpose of the club is to promote interest among bacteriology majors in the department and to attract high school graduates. Members of the club are majors who have completed two quarters of bacteriology or the equivalent. They are (below) back: Pat Schammel, Carol Cough-Ian Victor Vilk, Francis Powers, Ed Coleman. Front: Dick Raymond, Jerry St. Onge, Gwen Dickson, and John Jutila.

In the fall Women's M club tapped six members at the annual Santa party. They were Marion Nelson, Sue Kuehn, Jary Nelsen, Mavis Corin, Bev York and Maxine Hightower. The Women's Athletic association entertained about 100 people, including President and Mrs. McFarland, Kirk Badgley, Dr. Maurine Clow, Danny Lambros and Mollie Her. Honorary M pins were given to Mr. Badgley, Danny, Mrs. McFarland and Mrs. Peggy Ask. At the buffet table (above) are Pat Wordal, Peg Toffe, Donna Bar, Reba Turnquist, and WAA president, Beryl Handford.
