COMMERCIAL.

SATURDAY EVENING, April 8, 1856.

The demand for Cotton has been fair today, but supply was light, only nearly assorted, and the prices have been confined to about 1,000 bales, for very full prices or the quotations to-day. We quote:

LIVERPOOL CLASSIFICATION—LOUISIANA.

Inferior	[illegible]	Middling Fair	[illegible]
Ordinary	[illegible]	Fair	[illegible]
Low Middling	[illegible]	Fair	[illegible]
Middling	[illegible]	Fair	[illegible]

In Tobacco, there has been nothing of any importance done.

Sugar has improved 1/8 for the better qualities, with sales of 1,000 hhds at 7¾@7¾c for fair to fully fine.

Sales of Molasses [illegible] at 2¾@3c for inferior [illegible]

Of Flour, about 1,000 bbls have been sold, principally Ohio, at $8 50@$9 for common to fair family, and $9 75 for fancy. Corn Meal is dull at 67 [illegible] and Corn, in ear, at 65@70c.

Pork and Bacon have been dull, with sales of 200 bbls Prime at $17 50, and 200 bbls Mess at $18 [illegible]

The stock of Corn is light and only about 4,000 bbls Mess changed hands to-day, including 1700 sold at $18 [illegible] and 300 bbls prime at $16 [illegible] and 50 do Mess at $18 per barrel.

Sales of Corn about 700 sacks St. Louis have been made at 65c in bulk.

Sales of Coffee about 500 bags Rio at 7¾c per pound.

Sales of Sugar about 1,000 hhds Cuba at 7¾c per lb.

Sales of Molasses about 300 bbls Cuba at 3¾c per gallon.

Sales of Corn about 700 sacks St. Louis at 65c per bushel.

Sales of Pork about 200 bbls Prime at $17 50, 100 do Prime at $18 [illegible]

Sales of Lard about 100 kegs at 7¾c per lb.

Sales of Bacon about 100 hhds Shoulders at 5¾@6c per lb.

Sales of Flour about 1,000 bbls at $8 [illegible]

Sales of Corn about 1,000 sacks at 65@70c per bushel.

Sales of Corn Meal about 300 bbls at $3 [illegible]

Sales of Rye about 300 bbls at $4 [illegible]

Sales of Corn Meal about 300 bbls at $3 [illegible]

Sales of Corn about 1,000 sacks at 65@70c per bushel.