EDUCATION.

COMMERCIAL INSTITUTION
CONDUCTED BY
M. JEGOU, B. A. and M. A.
DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL,
For both Sexes,
Burgundy street, No. 263, between Dumaine and St. Philip.

BOYS' DEPARTMENT.

The plan of the above establishment comprises all the essentials of a thorough and complete education. The classes are, however, conducted with a view particularly to commerce and the arts; and a gradual system of commercial studies is therefore pursued, to which pupils are admitted according to their acquirements.

M. Jegou attends personally to Mathematics, as also the languages and Belles, and classes are limited to insure the proficiency of pupils. The French, English and Spanish languages are taught by native and competent Professors, but special attention is bestowed on Mathematics and the English language, on account of their importance.

GIRLS' DEPARTMENT.

A knowledge of music being now always almost indispensable to young ladies, a class in collegiate style, between the regular hours and three for an extra exercise, three times a week, in the establishment. That class does not interfere with the others.

The teachers are earnestly requested to use their utmost endeavors to impart to pupils those religious sentiments and polite manners, the characteristics of a refined persons and the best guarantee for the future.

General punishment are expressly prohibited in the establishment.

Boarding, Penmanship, Catechism, History, Geography, English, French, Spanish, Mathematics, Composition, Music, Drawing and Needle work.

A lady residing in the establishment takes charge of the young ladies.

M. Jegou feels confident of success on the patronage of Parents and the friends of education.
