CAUTION TO PURCHASERS OF POTTER'S VEGETABLE LAXATIVE.

(CIRCULAR.) Philadelphia, Feb. 1, 1832.

SIR,—The spurious medicine, under the name of Potter's Vegetable Cathartic, has recently been introduced in this city, and distributed abroad. The counterfeited bottles are exact imitations of mine, with labels similar to the genuine, the initials of my name being the same as the middle initials of my name, being engraved W. Fenner instead of W. W. Potter.—Regretting that I should be compelled to trouble you with this circular, I pray you, in your intercourse on you, and injury arising to the Public therefrom, as she mislead.

I continue manufacturing the article, the demand for which is increasing daily, as its virtues are becoming more and more known.

Respectfully yours, W. W. POTTER.
