COMMERCIAL.

Wednesday Evening, June 15, 1859.

The demand for Cotton has been fair, but the stock on sale is very light, and the transactions have been confined to a few small lots, which we hear of elsewhere. Prices are very firm.

LIVERPOOL CLEARANCES—LOUISIANA AND MOBILE.

Saturday	3,000	Wednesday	1,000
Monday	3,000	Thursday	1,000
Tuesday	3,000	Friday	1,000

To Tuesday, we have of 11 bales sold at the wharves and 1,000 bales sold at the Exchange, 1,000 bales for Fair to Middling Orleans, at 12½c.

We notice the sale of 1,000 bales at the wharves on Saturday at 12c., and some small lots of Orleans and Texas have been sold at 12½c.

Corn has been selling in small lots at 60@65c. p bushel.

Oil Cake, 200 cases St. Lucie sold on the 8th instant, at $27 p ton.

Nothing doing in Pork.

Pork has been sold at $17 p bbl.

Lard is dull at 10c. p lb.

In Sugars, the transactions have included 31 hogsheads of Cuba, and about equal lots of Orleans and Louisiana.

Coffee has been quiet and dull, and the sales consist of 500 bags St. Domingo, at 10½c.

Of Whisky, 50 bbls Rectified have been sold at 24c., and 100 bbls Scotch at 26c. p gallon.

Pork has been sold at $17 p bbl.

Of Lard, 20 tierces Prime Lard Oil at 40c. p gal.

Of Rice, 300 tierces Rangoon Rice at 3c. p lb.

In Freights, we mention a ship laid on the Liverpool, at 1c. p pound.

Engagements are dull at our quotations.

Freights to New York are dull and nominal, at 75c. p bale for Cotton, and 12½c. p bbl. for Flour.

Exchange is dull at our quotations.

Sterling Exchange is dull and nominal, at 9@9½ p ct. Francs, 5f. 20c@5f. 10c. p dollar.

Sterling Exchange is dull and nominal, at 9@9½ p ct. Francs, 5f. 20c@5f. 10c. p dollar.

Cuba Exchange is dull and nominal, at ¼@½ p ct. p. p. Sterling,