We showed our SSV at noon in the atrium for the additional categories: most innovative and most beautiful. We ended up second in the category most innovative, because of our shifting gears.

We further worked on the case report, which we need to hand in by next Friday.

- Process report

Every team member answered the following questions individually for the process report: “Which skills have you developed during the project?”, “What is the final judgement of the team on the process?” and “What is the final judgement of the team on the product (compared to plan of approach)?”.
